

FROM SWORDS TO PLOWSHARES, from VT-fuses to pocket radios! Through utilizing the types of sub-miniature tubes developed by Raytheon Mfg. Co. for the Variable Time radar proximity fuse, Belmont Radio Corp. of Chicago announced yesterday that it is manufacturing a 5-tube superheterodyne pocket radio receiver weighing 10 ounces including batteries. The receiver is 3 inches wide, 3/4 inch thick and 6 1/4 inches high. It is designed to fit the pocket or purse, yet its reception is comparable to that of the usual 5-tube receiver. Retail prices start at approximately $30, and it is expected that they will be in retail stores for the Christmas season.

Overseas Director To Speak at Red Cross Annual Meeting

The Annual Meeting of the Newton Chapter, American Red Cross, will be held on Wednesday evening, November 7, at 8 o'clock in Memorial Hall of Newton City Hall. Following a brief business meeting, at which officers and directors for the coming year will be elected, the principal speaker of the evening will be introduced. He is William Andrew Fine, a Red Cross Field Director, recently returned to this country from Europe where he served with combat infantry regiments in Sicily, Cassino, Rome, the invasion of France, and the final weeks in the Vosges mountains. Mr. Fine, is himself, a veteran of both World War I and II, and offered our fighting men the sympathetic understanding of someone who has been through similar experiences. "Men react differently after battle," says Fine. "As they stagger back, there are those who buckle up on the floor and sleep, but there are others who must talk things out before they can rest. I've sat through many a night listening to such boys—some of them only eighteen or nineteen years old."

WILLIAM ANDREW FINE, overseas Red Cross worker, who will speak at the Newton Chapter's annual meeting November 7.

NEWTON'S INSTITUTION OF LUMBER FOR 26 YEARS

THE RESPONSIBILITY FOR CONTINUED GOOD GOVERNMENT IN NEWTON IS YOURS, MAKE SURE YOU VOTE NEXT TUESDAY

Politics With Color

by P. W. C.

(The opinions expressed in this column are the writer's own, and do not necessarily reflect the views or policy of this newspaper.—Editor's Note.)

VOTE, VOTE, VOTE

I urge every reader of this column to go to the polls next Tuesday, Nov. 6, and cast his or her vote for a full slate of candidates for Mayor, Board of Aldermen and School Committee. Let us not repeat the disgraceful situation at the last city election, when the majority of the voters remained away from the polls. If every citizen of Newton who prides himself on his good citizenship and who really believes that the right to vote was one of the fundamental principles for which our returning veterans fought, will go to the polls on Nov. 6, we shall not have to hang our heads in shame on the following morning.

The Election

The campaign was speeded up a bit this week and it will continue to speed up until late evening, Nov. 5. On that date the Board of Aldermen will NOT meet, as is their custom on the first Monday of the month. However, the Board is merely changing the date and is not leaving city business in the doldrums.

Our next Mayor? Unless all signs fail, Mayor Paul M. Goddard will be re-elected by a substantial margin, despite the last-minute radio campaign of his most active opponent, former Alderman Dennis M. Cronin of Auburndale. Newton has not yet, in my opinion, come to the point where an active, versatile campaigner with oratorical ability can defeat a man of substance with a good record in office. I say this with all due respect to Messrs. Cronin and Boyd, each of whom has served in public office and given satisfaction.

I am advised that Cronin will, possibly, make a charge or two against Mayor Goddard before the campaign is concluded. I am wondering just why he did not make any charges at the open meeting at the High School on Oct. 18. Someone who held a watch on the speakers that evening tells me that Cronin used up over a quarter of an hour, Boyd over ten minutes and the Mayor the allotted five minutes. Surely there was time to make open charges against the current administration.

Because there has been a tendency on the part of at least one of the Mayor's opponents to construe my attempt to be fair and open-minded during the past few weeks as a possible indication that I might end by voting for either Cronin or Boyd, may I say here and now that I shall most certainly cast my vote for Mayor Goddard. Not only that, I hope and believe that he will win by a substantial margin. So do most of my friends and acquaintances, as well as those whom I meet on the street corner.

Board of Aldermen

As the situation stands today, there is the possibility of an upset in only one ward—Ward 1. Curiously enough, the sitting Alderman whom the opposition is alternately ignoring or trying to cut down in one way or another, is Alderman Donald L. Gibbs of Newton. It so happens that he is one of the best-liked and most conscientious Aldermen in the entire Board. He has never missed a Board meeting during his various terms and he has served or is now serving as Chairman of three important committees. Despite these facts, the voters are being urged, by Dennis M. Cronin among others, to cast one side Alderman Gibbs and to put in his place a man who has lived in Newton a scant six years and who knows relatively little about Newton's history and problems. It doesn't make sense. Vote for the reelection of Alderman Gibbs and Alderman Barwise. The fourth man in this contest for Alderman-at-Large (two to be elected in each ward, as against ONE Ward Alderman) is James E. Murphy. He is very well-known and has quite a following. However, I doubt if he will run better than fourth.

Now let us take a quick look at the other six wards. Ward 3 and 7 have no contests for Alderman-at-Large. In the former, Ernest Angevine will automatically succeed Robert A. Whidden, who retires voluntarily. In the latter, Carlos T. Pierce, prominent Newton Corner broker, will take the place of retiring Alderman Frank P. Scofield.

What looked like a possible close fight in Ward 2 now appears to have evaporated. William R. Mattson, well-known to all United War Fund workers and other civic leaders in his ward should have a comfortable margin over Harry Gath, restaurant proprietor in Newtonville Square. I base this statement partly on some remarks made to me by one of the Mayoral candidates, who admitted to me that he would probably support for Alderman any candidate who supported him for Mayor. This gentleman, however, was extremely cagey about naming names. I refer to Dennis M. Cronin, who is very obviously and pointedly supporting Dana P. Blake for Alderman-at-Large in Ward 4. I don't know what is in that contest. Frankly, I don't know what the issue is in that contest. In my humble judgment, Alderman Atkins is entitled to re-election and it seems a bit tough to have a man who has been rated as a good friend of his engaged in a contest which is now none too friendly, if reports which come to me are correct. Of course, this is strictly Ward 1's business and whatever the voters there see fit to do on Nov. 6, cannot be questioned by those who live elsewhere.

Once more, I urge my readers to get out early on Tuesday, Nov. 6, and vote. Also, get out your families, neighbors and friends. Let's show the world that Newton CARES how it is governed.

Newton Desperately Needs Foster Homes For Children

"Despite the Share Your Home With a Child Campaign conducted last January, Newton children are being uprooted and sent far away from home, family, and friends because there are not enough foster homes in Newton ready to care for children when an emergency arises," says Harold B. Gores, President of the Newton Community Council, a Red Feather Service.

At a meeting on October 5th, sponsored by the Council and attended by representatives of social agencies in Boston and Newton, it was agreed that something must

Newton Legislators Want Route 128 To By-pass City

Representatives George E. Rawson and John S. Whittemore appeared before the Recess Commission on Post-War Highway Development on October 25 to urge that traffic route 128, the "Circumferential Highway" so called by taken out of Newton. The State Planning Board in 1941 recommended that this route be relocated to by pass both Newton and Waltham, and it was listed then as one of the projects of paramount importance. The coming of World War II, however, put a stop to new highway work. The present session of the General Court has appropriated or allocated sufficient funds for a considerable program of highway working during the next six years. The Newton representatives from the 4th District asserted that the passage of this route through Newton Highlands and Newtonville Square, past numerous schools and churches, constitutes a grave traffic hazard to our city. They further emphasized the fact that this heavy traffic is a detriment to property values in the residential district along the route. They also advised the commission that traffic would be greatly expedited by following the new route, since six traffic lights in Newton and six in Waltham could be thus avoided.

Rep. Rawson also recorded Mayor Goddard and Chief of Police Nicholas Vedecio in favor of the proposal. It is being taken under advisement by the commission.

More Than 10,000 Joyous Youngsters Participate in a Thrilling Event

Newton's fourth Annual Halloween Celebration turned out to be the best and biggest ever held in the city. Every one of the 238 separate neighborhood parties proved to be even more successful than the most optimistic committee member had predicted.

Weeks of preparation and tireless effort on the part of the 1400 parents in charge made the programs proceed like clockwork. And the children cooperated beautifully. To be sure, they let loose their high spirits in unrestrained laughter, romping and shouts; but they were so well-behaved that Newton can be very proud of them. They went home gloriously happy; and if the parents directing the affairs were practically "dead on their feet," while their small folks were still fresh as daisies, that was only to be expected. But they were happy, too—not only because the joyousness of children is contagious, but also because they realized they had done their own work well. From the latter part of the afternoon, when the kindergarten tots gathered, until the last note was sounded at the dance for the high school students at the Totem Pole Ballroom, there was not an

"To Strengthen and Broaden our Citizenship," is the theme for the year, of the Newton Federation of Women's Clubs, and this thought dominated the all-day Conference, which was held in the Union Church, Waban, Monday, Oct. 29th.

Miss Adelaide B. Ball presided and introduced Mayor Paul M. Goddard, principal speaker, at the morning session, whose subject was "Looking Ahead."

Mayor Goddard stressed the point that we must continue to utilize all the driving power exhibited during the war, in a concerted effort to maintain the ideals and principles of a Democratic Government. Speaking of the coming election, Mayor Goddard said that it is the nature of the American citizen to be optimistic, but that "interest in Public Affairs is a test of citizenship, and

It Is Your Duty To Vote

Next Tuesday voters of Newton will express their preference for candidates to be elected to conduct the government of the city for the next two years. We are not as greatly concerned as to the outcome of the election as we are over the apparent lack of interest among Newton citizens in carrying out their duty to ballot. Indications in general point to a fairly light vote as to the matter of percentage, and no system of free government can long endure when installed by a minority. We trust that every registered voter will do his duty and ballot next Tuesday.

Chief interest in the election naturally centers around the contest for the office of Mayor, between present Mayor Paul M. Goddard, Hugh S. Boyd and Dennis M. Cronin. We supported and worked for the election of Mayor Goddard two years ago. We do the same this election.

The facts upon the record are clear. The City of Newton has established some interesting records in 1945, for which her citizens and taxpayers may take proper credit as well as the City Government. The cash receipts of the City, and sound financial management made it unnecessary to borrow money in anticipation of taxes during the year, and no notes are outstanding. At the same time tax titles held by the City have decreased 56 per cent, from $210,168.28 in April 1942 to $92,164.79 on October 1, 1945.

The lowest bond rate was established by the recent sale, the premium offered resulting in a rate of seven-tenths of one per cent. The position of lowest tax rate of any city in the state has been maintained.

The City has retired since January 1, 1942 $2,346,000 of its funded debt, and has issued in that same period $200,000 twenty-year Serial Sewer Bonds and $300,000 ten-year Serial Street Bonds. No taxes for 1943 or previous years are outstanding. Of tax and excise commitments for 1944, approximately four and three quarter million dollars less than one hundred dollars ($100) are uncollected at this date. The City has no tax title loans.

The net bonded debt including all obligations except the Water Debt (to be retired from water revenue) is less than two per cent of the average assessed valuation, less abatements, for the last three calendar years. The figure in this state would average between 4 and 5 per cent, whereas in the balance of the country the figure will commonly reach four or five times the Massachusetts rate.

Such an accomplishment comes through uniform cooperation of citizens and government. The least every citizen can do is to make very certain that he definitely votes on Tuesday, November 6th.

Be sure to vote and remind your friends to vote!

The Victory Loan

Eighty-five million Americans bought partnership in a thriving concern engaged in the business of winning a war.

People—just plain folks—who never before saved for a rainy day, established a new habit—a habit of saving. They bought a share in their Government.

Each war bond they bought was a bond of unity. By means of that unity the war has been won. That unity must extend to the postwar days. The welfare of each American is the welfare of our country. The great partnership must not end now.

The Victory Loan drive begins next Monday, when Americans will have the opportunity to add to their holdings in the world's best and most sound corporation—the United States of America.

Reasons why there must be a Victory Loan are four:

- 1—To pay the bills for munitions and material already delivered and used.
- 2—To pay for the care of our wounded and disabled.
- 3—To provide mustering-out pay and benefits for eight million or more veterans.
- 4—To keep the lid on price inflation.

The war is over, but that's not the whole story.

Let's finish the job!

Dr. Hitchen To Visit Europe for American Unitarian Society

Following a plea by Dr. Frederick May Eliot, president of the American Unitarian Association, members of the First Unitarian Society in Newton voted unanimously last night, at an open meeting following the annual Parish harvest supper, to lend their minister, Dr. Herbert Hitchen, to the national organization on a part-time basis for the next 11 months, for the investigation and co-ordination of a Unitarian World Fellowship. This will involve two six-week trips to England and the continent of Europe, to give encouragement to liberal groups in war-torn areas. The trustees had referred the question to the whole parish for decision.

Dr. Hitchen will begin his new work immediately, giving a day each week and will make his first trip to England in the spring and another trip to the continent next summer. His family will continue to occupy the parsonage.

The American Unitarian Association has promptly agreed to supply the Sunday morning pulpit during these absences and to provide an assistant minister to carry on parish duties, while Dr. Hitchen is away.

The West Newton Unitarian Church also voted to join the Newton Council of Churches, after considerable discussion and a formal vote called by Moderator William B. Baker.

Daniel R. Weedon, chairman of the Board of trustees, announced the purchase of the present parsonage, through use of unrestricted funds and freedom of mortgage through the subscription of a few anonymous church members.

Dining With Jane and Bill

Junior—Gee, what a swell-looking salad!
Bill—Oh, boy, isn't it gay! What's the red stuff?
Jane—Oh, it's some little bits of red pepper.
Junior—Red pepper! None of that hot stuff for me.
Jane—They're not hot, they're the sweet peppers.
Bill—Well, that's a new one on me. I thought you only used red peppers to make pickles.
Jane—It's a shame that so many people think that very thing. Peppers are so rich in vitamin A and ascorbic acid. A red pepper gives us two times the recommended amount of ascorbic acid we need a day and a lot of vitamin A besides.
Bill—Can you stuff those red peppers?
Jane—Yes, we're going to have some tomorrow night. I want to use up some of the leftover meat so I'll mix it with some rice and stuff it into the peppers.
Jane—That's right, and we'd better pick them right away.

Hospital Staffs Set $90,000 Goal To Build and Equip Clinical Conference Room

A goal of $90,000 has been set by members of the medical and surgical staffs of Newton-Wellesley Hospital as the amount to be subscribed by them toward the current $2,250,000 building fund. This amount will be used to build and equip the clinical conference room for the expansion and modernization of the hospital has been announced by Neil Leonard, chairman of the building fund. This amount will be used to build and equip the clinical conference room of the greater 395-bed hospital. The room will be the gift of the doctors of the community to the people of the Newton-Wellesley area, Leonard said.

Hospital officials explained that the clinical conference room will contribute greatly to the dissemination of medical information and the discussion of new techniques and methods of treatment among the members of the profession. An indication of its importance is found in the fact that a regular session of the American College of Surgeons specifies that regular clinical conferences are required if an institution such as Newton-Wellesley Hospital is to maintain its Class A rating.

Occupying approximately one-third of the entire northeast wing of the third floor of the new hospital building, the clinical conference room will be equipped with every modern appliance to facilitate use of motion pictures and other visual media for educational and conference purposes. Its location makes the room readily accessible, and doctors in attendance at meetings can respond quickly to emergency calls from within the hospital or from outside. It was pointed out that the facilities of the room will be available to meet imperative needs of the school of nursing, and also for the use of the trustees and other hospital organizations for public meetings.

Mr. Leonard described the action of the doctors in setting a goal of $90,000 as their contribution to the building fund for the hospital's expansion as being "not only a magnificent demonstration of good will, but also a convincing proof of the importance attached to the construction of additional hospital facilities by those who are in the best position to realize their crucial importance."

The decision to establish the clinical conference room in the name of the medical profession was reached at a recent meeting of doctors held at the hospital and at which Dr. Egon E. Kattwinkel, chairman of the Doctors' Advisory Committee, presided.

Planned to give the physicians an opportunity to present their opinions concerning the layout of the new hospital, the meeting brought forth various comments and suggestions for consideration in working out final plans as well as emphatic statements that additional rooms for patients are the facilities most urgently needed if the hospital is to furnish adequate service to the community.

Speakers included Dr. Claude W. Munger, director of St. Luke's Hospital, New York City, a nationally-known hospital consultant, Francis V. Bulfinch and Lewis B. Abbott of the firm of Coolidge Shepley Bulfinch and Abbott, Boston architects, who are designing the new hospital, Clifford H. Walker, president of the hospital's board of trustees, and Neil Leonard, chairman of the building fund committee.

Dr. Munger, whose survey of hospital needs in this area was determining factor in launching the current building fund program, agreed as to the importance of providing a sufficient number of additional beds for future, as well as present requirements. He stated his belief that the preliminary plans provided an adequate number of beds for a considerable period of years according to his careful though conservative forecast. He made clear that further beds could be provided if at the time of actual construction it was generally thought wise to make such provision.

"It should always be remembered," Dr. Munger said, "that the $2,250,000 fund will provide many desirable improvements beside the construction of a seven-story addition. Tentative plans contemplate the enlargement and modernization of the school of nursing, the addition of a floor to the service wing, the expansion of the mechanical plant and much needed tunnels and passageways to outlying buildings."

Mr. Abbott and Mr. Bulfinch spoke of the architectural features of the greater hospital and emphasized the fact that present plans

City Clerk Grant and the other members of the board of registrars are to be commended for the excellent manner in which the registration of voters was handled the past few weeks. Between 9000 and 10,000 new voters have been made this fall and we have yet to hear of any complaint or any friction in accomplishing this result.

Rotary Club

Paul Swaffield, Advertising Manager of the Hood Rubber Co. and President of the Boston Advertising Club spoke to the members and guests of the Newton Rotary Club at its meeting on Friday, October 26.

Mr. Swaffield told many very interesting and amusing incidents that have happened during his career as a football referee. On the more technical side he mentioned how the officials have to know the eighty-four pages of the thirteen rules and the fifty-two pages of the officials' guide.

He carried us through some of the highlights of important college games and showed the part each official plays in detecting fouls unobserved by the spectators. He told us of the positions of the officials with the referee just in back of the offensive team the umpire in back of the defensive team, the head linesman on the line of play, and the field judge on the opposite side from the head linesman, and farther to the rear of the umpire. He showed how fouls are detected by the officials in spite of the apparent non-chance of the players committing the foul.

He indicated from the outset that one has to be crazy to start a career as a referee and crazier to stay in it. Mr. Swaffield is recognized as one of the outstanding officials in the country.

The guests included Walter Phillips, Louis Bachrach, Harold Barnes, Robert Morse, Fred Heaney, Louis Bachrach, Jr., William Stanger, C. T. Bond, George Haffner, Vic Knapman, Coach; Ralph Sanborn, Manager, and Alvin Teschner, Captain of the Newton High School football team; C. Law, Coach, and J. White, Captain of the Weston High School football team; Warner M. Allen, Executive Secretary Massachusetts Co-operative Bank League; Don Burton, Assistant Field Director United States Savings and Loan League.

Other guests were Warren W. Oliver, Jr., P. H. Tylander, Dick Barker, Ken Prior and Bill Altieri.

ON THE INSIDE

by MARV GOULD

Newton High School's varsity football team was again victorious last Saturday, October 27. Before some 4000 rooters at Dickinson Memorial Stadium, the Garden City eleven edged a fighting Watertown 13-6. When the game was over, the minute old, fleet footed Freddie DeAngelis, Newton's star fullback intercepted one of Bill Boyce's passes meant for Frank Cousineau and sped down a broken field of 65 yards for the first touchdown of the day. Scottie Donnelly, who has been practicing kicking all week, came into the game and made a perfect place kick, thus putting Newton ahead 7-0. Watertown came right back again though to score its first touchdown of the season on a pass from Bill Boyce to Watertown's 125-pound sophomore Jack Najarian. However, the conversion was missed, so Newton still led by a slim margin of one point. Again in the closing minutes of the game DeAngelis hit pay dirt by crashing through center from the Watertown 12-yard line. The attempted conversion was unsuccessful. Final score: Newton 13, Watertown 6. Officials were: Referee, L. Kelly; Umpire, J. O'Connor; Linesman, T. Whalen. Newton had a total of 55 yards lost in penalties to a total of 30 yards for Watertown. The Garden City had a total of 6 first downs to Watertown's 3.

The Vulcan's annual dance is tomorrow night in the main ballroom of the Hotel Stratton. For a full day Saturday we advise you to see Newton smear Medford in the afternoon. Thereafter the Vulcan's dance in the evening and swoon to the romantic rhythm of Barron Hugo's Band.

Between the halves at Saturday's game cheerleader Jim Henderson attempted to show the 4000 odd fans that he was as good a drum Major as the two lovely blondes that usually lead N.H.S. smart parade. So seizing a baton he strutted out onto the field ahead of the band. He did fairly well for a beginner except that for some reason or other he would go one way and the band he was leading would go another. We wonder why.

The Newton Student Canteen will positively not close as was rumored a few weeks ago. More students have joined the ranks of happy Canteen members enabling the canteen to make plans for such necessities as lavatories and various other minor improvements. Jeanne Woodruff will do almost anything to see her name in print so look back 13 words and you will find it. If you would like to see a typical B.T.O. see Lester Grinspoon in Homeroom 330 between the time of 8:15 and 8:30 in the morning. If you ask him he will give you his autograph.

There are only six boys in the Senior class of N.H.S. who can't swim and they are now taking instructions at the "Y" as every boy in the senior class must be able to swim at least 60 feet before he graduates.

An Appreciation

Of the splendid cooperation of all those individuals and organizations who helped make Newton's Halloween parties of 1945 the best ever. This was the fourth year of the city-wide parties which have constantly grown in popularity, not only with the boys and girls of all ages, but those older boys and girls (the parents) who gave so generously of their time in making the parties the great success they were.

From a business standpoint, we can report that whatever observation that whatever pranks were played were few and far between.

NEWTON CHAMBER OF COMMERCE,

Parent-Teachers Council Hears Fred T. Harvey

The School Building Committee of the All-Newton Parent-Teachers' Council, including delegates from the building committees of the local P. T. A.'s, met at the Peirce School, West Newton, on October 23, to hear Mr. Fred T. Harvey, of 21 Pilgrim road, Waban, explain the plans of this important new committee. Mr. Harvey presented to the delegates Mr. Harold B. Gores, Assistant Superintendent of Schools; Mr. William C. Greene, President of the All-Newton Council; and Mrs. B. Alden Thresher of the Newton School Committee.

Mr. Carlton Spencer, chairman of the Building Committee of the Peirce School P.T.A. presided. He reviewed briefly what his committee has accomplished in just one year, the first year of a P.T.A. in the Peirce School. The committee has secured the removal of some heavy, unused machinery in the basement releasing much needed room for the children; it has secured better lighting for the basement, drinking fountains and boxes, and a jungle gym for the playground, and working with the Library Committee, it has raised $400 for a school library, to which the Board of Aldermen will add $200 for redecoration of the room.

Mr. Harvey, in explaining what the All-Newton Building Committee and the local committees wish to accomplish, stressed as their purpose the "promoting of a better understanding throughout Newton of the educational importance of better, modern school buildings. He urged a large and active membership in each local school to study local needs. Newton is fortunate, Mr. Harvey declared, to have as its Superintendent of Schools, a man with Dr. Anderson's record of achievement in the developing of school plants designed to meet present and expanding future needs. Dr. Anderson achieved outstanding success in this direction in Denver and in Detroit. He has now surveyed the needs of Newton and has presented his findings to the School Committee and to the public in addresses before local groups.

The first task of the Building Committee is to promote wider knowledge and better understanding of the first step in Dr. Anderson's building program, Mr. Harvey stated. This step involves the building of five new elementary schools, reconditioning of one, additions and improvements to two Junior High Schools, the High School and the Trade School.

Mr. Gores explained the problems presented by the present Peirce School Building, and the reason why a new Peirce School in a new location is a part of the first step of Dr. Anderson's plan. Thresher of the School Committee spoke briefly, complimenting the Committee upon its purpose to educate the public and support the building program. She was enthusiastic in her praise of the All-Newton Parent-Teacher Council, and its Building Committee for getting behind a city-wide program. In the past, she said, local groups have too often worked selfishly for a local need without regarding the broader aspects of city-wide planning.

Future meetings of the Building Committee will be held in other schools.

String quartet with clarinet was introduced to the sophomores and all members of music classes in the Sophomore Assembly, October 24. Principal Raymond A. Green presented the concert as another educational adventure in the high school curriculum for the pupils and faculty as the first in a series of six planned for the year. Mr. Joseph Zimble and his Boston Symphony Orchestra colleagues played the Mozart Quintet for clarinet and string quartet. Mr. Polatschek, first clarinetist of the symphony played the clarinet part. The music was enthusiastically received by the assembly. The concert was sponsored by a generous trustee of the Boston Symphony Orchestra, Mr. James H. Calder on Radar and Television and one on "Tomorrow's Home" by Mrs. George F. Howland. A third feature, given by Mrs. William N. Tenney, will be a study of the great industrialist, William Kaiser, who has played such an important role in the late war.

This is a good sample of the variety offered in this year's programs which have to do with the current scene and the great developments in our country promised in the near future.

The Highland Glee Club is now in full swing preparing their Fall and Spring concerts, holding rehearsals weekly at their accustomed meeting place, Trinity Church, Newton Centre. The Glee Club this year are looking forward with real anticipation to the return of its members who have been in Military Service.

The invitation extended by the Club to men who have had glee club or choir experience has resulted in the addition of several excellent voices from Newton. These new members will contribute materially to the singing strength of the organization.

It is hoped, by special effort, to familiarize the citizens of Newton with the activities of this organization. The two concerts which it gives will, we hope, this year receive generous support from those interested. A Sponsoring Membership entitles the sponsor to two tickets for each concert, which Memberships are $3 plus tax and are obtainable through any of the active members of the Glee Club.

Only One American in Three Knows Britain Rules Palestine

DENVER, October 13. (Special)—Out of every 100 Americans, only 32 are aware that Great Britain rules Palestine, it was revealed in survey results just released by the National Opinion Research Center, University of Denver.

Almost half of those interviewed in a nationwide public opinion poll—45%—do not know whether or not Palestine is an independent country. Twelve per cent believe that Palestine rules herself, while 9% know that Palestine is ruled by another country, though they cannot name the country. The remaining 2% mentioned Germany or Italy, a Near Eastern country, or the United States.

In contrast to the public as a whole, 63% of persons with college experience, but only 20% of those with no more than a grade school education know that Palestine is under British rule. By religion, 30% of Jews interviewed, but only 30% of Catholics and 29% of Protestants are aware of the political status of the "Holy Land."

While most of those interviewed in the survey give their answers without comment, the few who do add remarks indicate clearly the degree of confusion regarding the status of Palestine. A New York City civil service employee, for instance, thinks that Palestine "is under British supervision, but rules herself like Canada." A mechanic's wife in Waltham, Massachusetts, answers: "Palestine did rule herself, but I think it was the English who took it away. I don't know—maybe it was the Russians."

Hospital Benefit Shop Holds Luncheon, Meeting

The Fall get-together for chairmen and officers of the Benefit Shop, an auxiliary of the Hospital Aid Association of the Newton-Wellesley Hospital, was held on Tuesday at the Berkely in Wellesley Hills. A luncheon was served by the management, preceded by the business meeting, the large bowls of chrysanthemums used for decoration, having been generously donated for the day by Mrs. Frank A. Day from her Newton home.

In the absence of the chairman, Mrs. D. Brewer Eddy, her co-chairman, Mrs. Ralph Conant presided. Two reports were given by Miss Ethel Woodberry who holds the joint offices of Secretary and Treasurer, and these were unanimously accepted. The remainder of the business session was turned over to Mrs. Francis H. Williams, business manager of the Shop, located at 705 Washington street, Newtonville. She prefaced her report with words of high praise for her helpers and referred to them as "a good staff of willing workers" nearly one hundred and twenty-five in number. She urged them to increase the number of donors to the Shop in the coming months, particularly those who were not regular contributors. So, please, NEWTON GRAPHIC readers, make it easier for them by volunteering such articles as may be suitable. As usual, the hospital truck is available for collections on each Wednesday morning by telephoning Mrs. Raymond Perkins, BIG. 8123 by Tuesday noon.

Mrs. Williams stressed the need for gifts for the annual Treasure Sale which is to be held at the Nurses Home on Tuesday, November 13, from one to four. This is the one sale each year which is not open to the public but is limited to the Hospital staff, including nurses; the Board of Directors of the Hospital Aid Association, the village chairman and their corps of workers. Goods remaining unsold will be displayed later at the Shop for the general public.

Attending the luncheon were Mrs. Theron Walker, president of the association, Mrs. Ralph Conant, Miss Ethel Woodberry, Mrs. Francis Williams, Mrs. Raymond Perkins. Among the chairmen were Mrs. Josiah Goddard of Wellesley; Mrs. Dana Dutch and Mrs. E. A. Douglas of Waban; Mrs. Arthur Allen of Newton Centre; Mrs. Ernest Drew and Mrs. Murdo MacKenzie, Auburndale; Miss Louise Sherman and Mrs. Robert Whitehill of Newtonville. There were also two guests, Mrs. Robert Studen and Miss Mary Sawyer of Wellesley.

Newton Lions Club

Speaking before the regular weekly meeting of the Newton Lions Club last Thursday evening, John McGrail, of the State Department of Education, chose as his subject "Educational Opportunities for Veterans." Mr. McGrail gave a wealth of information concerning the unprecedented facilities available to Servicemen without expense through the sponsorship of the Commonwealth.

Four-year evening curriculums, equivalent to two years of actual college education, are offered in many University Extension courses in practically all of the arts. These are the same courses previously and still available to civilians at fees depending upon the subjects. Mr. McGrail compared the great advantages these opportunities hold over many nationally advertised correspondence courses that often lack the important personal contact with instructors.

The speaker disclosed how simple it is for the Veteran to acquire the information he needs, either for the purpose of continuing the education that was interrupted by the war or to discover a means to a new future. Employers of labor in all industries would do well to investigate these excellent facilities that are open to all, and particularly now to Veterans.

The meeting was well attended and announcement was made that Sea Scout Ship 13, the Club's principal project, has been redecorated and its skipper, officers and crew are to be hosted at a Halloween Party to be held Friday evening, October 26th. Following inspection and colors, dancing and refreshments are planned. An open invitation is extended to the public by the Lions Club to visit Ship 13 any Friday evening at 7:30.

Father's Night at Oak Hill School

Thursday, November 8th is Father's Night at Oak Hill school. This year it is to be a strictly social affair, held from 7:30 to 9:00. It is hoped that all parents of Oak Hill pupils will plan to have their dinner that evening at the school with Miss Wymann, the teachers, and other parents.

The class rooms will be open so that parents may see their children's work on display. Each teacher will be in her room to talk with the parents about their children's progress and their problems.

Rev. Woodroffe, Jr. Accepts Call of Grace Church

Rev. Robert W. Woodroffe, Jr., who has accepted a call to become rector of Grace Church, Newton, will conduct his first service in that church on Thanksgiving Day and will preach his first sermon on Sunday, November 25.

Mr. Woodroffe is thirty-five years of age. He was graduated from the University of Michigan in 1931 with an A.B. degree, and from the Episcopal Theological School in 1934, with a B.D. degree. He was ordained in 1935 by the Rt. Rev. Herman Page, D.D., Bishop of Michigan.

In 1934 he accepted a position in Bloomfield Hills, Michigan, as assistant minister in Christ Church, Cranbrook. Here he also served as instructor in sacred studies at Cranbrook School for Boys and Kingswood School for Girls.

In February, 1940, he went to St. Bartholomew's Church, New York City, as assistant minister. While there, among other duties, he had charge of their large and active Community Club, an organization largely composed of young married people.

Shortly after Pearl Harbor he enlisted as a Chaplain with the Roosevelt Hospital Unit, serving in Africa, Italy, France and Germany. Bishop Sherrill speaks with great enthusiasm of Mr. Woodroffe's work during his Chaplaincy. After 3 1/2 years he has just returned to this country and his work at St. Bartholomew's.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodroffe have four children, three girls and a boy.

During his entire ministry, Mr. Woodroffe has shown a deep consecration to his calling and great ability and understanding in his parochial work. He is a man of great sincerity and spirituality. Grace Church is indeed fortunate to obtain a man of his varied experience and qualifications to be its Rector.

That $5000 college education only costs $3750 in Victory Bonds today; the difference is profit at maturity.

devotion to the public welfare is a badge of honor. The Rev. Joseph C. MacDonald, Pastor of the Union Church, delivered the invocation at the Morning Session, and Mrs. Howard G. Musgrave, President of the Waban Woman's Club, extended the hospitality of her Club (the Hostess Club) to the Federated Clubs. Owing to the enforced absence of Mrs. Edwin Troland, President of the Mass. State Federation, greetings were brought by Miss Estelle G. Marsh, corresponding secretary.

Mrs. H. Augustine Smith, First Vice Chairman, presided at the President's Round Table, and the speaker was Mrs. Arthur W. Cornell, Director of the Twelfth District, whose club, the Quinshaug Woman's Club, will be the hostess at the Twelfth District Conference, to be held in the Milford Universalist church, Nov. 14th, at 10:30 p.m.

Art—Mrs. Fred Thompson, Chairman, Mrs. John A. McAuliffe told of the need of monitors, as well as instructors, in the Art and Skills department of the American Red Cross, and the importance of Federated Clubs joining the Penny Art Fund. American Art Week, Nov. 1-7, will be observed throughout the United States and is arousing widespread interest.

American Home—Mrs. Percival Waters introduced Mrs. Daniel MacKay, who stressed Religion, Recreation and Readjustments in the home and youth guidance. Mrs. R. G. W. (Community) Chairman, Mrs. R. G. W. (Community) Chairman, perhaps the major subject discussed, was the improvement of Newton square, as to traffic safety, a covered bus stop and a comfort station. The committee also considered the improvement of all playgrounds and planning in advance for safe coasting and more youth canteens.

Christmas Health Seals—Mrs. Marcus H. Bryan, Chairman, and Public Health Chairman, Mrs. George W. Wyman, together with Mrs. Bryan spoke of the annual sale of Christmas Seals, which is an important part of the yearly program of the Newton Federation. Mrs. E. Gale Whittemore, Executive Secretary of the Newton Tuberculosis and Health Association, explained the purpose of the program to "fulfill the need of the Rehabilitation of the Tuberculosis and his family. Mrs. Grace Lawrence, nursing supervisor of the Newton Public Health Department, presented an over all picture of the "Functions of the Newton Health Department."

Co-operation with War Veterans—Mrs. James G. Patterson introduced Mrs. Carl S. Floyd, State Chairman, who asked for 8,000 Christmas bags, afghans, games, playing cards and cash donations. Mr. Raymond C. Appleton, Jr. (Chairman of Conservation of Natural Resources), stressed the need of some legislative action to eradicate rag-weed for health protection.

Educational—Mrs. Harold M. Bowman presented Dr. Anderson, who explained why and how the new building program for Newton schools would be undertaken. International Relations—Mrs. Harry C. Barber, Chairman, and Mrs. William M. Barber, Executive Chairman, combined their round tables and had as speaker Miss Marie Carroll, Research Director for the World Peace Foundation. Miss Carroll spoke about the potentialities of the atomic bomb and its influence on world peace plans. Mrs. John Mahoney explained the origin and set-up of the Governor's committee for Racial and religious understanding and the encouraging progress it has made in the past three years. Press and Publicity—Mrs. Herbert J. Ham, Chairman, introduced the guest speaker Mrs. Percy L. Barton, State Chairman, who stressed the "A. B. C's of Publicity." Accuracy, brevity and cleanliness. Mrs. Ham read a letter from Miss Betty Driscoll of the Christian Science Monitor, who was unable to attend the conference, in which she graciously explained the policy and ways of presenting news for the "Women's Activity Column."

War Service Relief—Mrs. Herbert G. Bedell, Chairman, presented Miss Nellie Osborne, Vice Chairman of the State Federation, War Relief Division, who displayed samples of the important bedside cases for servicemen, also knitted articles, including sweaters, gloves, socks and scarfs; ditty bags, containing toilet articles were also shown. Baby's layettes and clothing for our own children and the children of France, was stressed and shown. Posters, lists and book plate for the Newton drive for Russia, were distributed to the various club war relief chairmen. An appeal was made for 1,000 decks of bridge and pinocle cards for the state army and navy hospitals.

Mrs. Walter E. Decker, Social Chairman, was in charge of the luncheon, which was served at 12:45 p.m., and the soft glow of candles, enhanced the beautifully decorated tables, with their multi-colored autumn flowers.

Miss Ball presided at the business meeting, which opened at 2 p.m., and the minutes of the last meeting were read by the Recording Secretary, Mrs. Frederick G.

Hallowe'en—

idle moment. Games, movies, singing, dancing, fortune tellers, magicians, stunts and features galore followed one another in rapid succession. And about a dozen different chambers of horror, made eerie with strange lights or no lights at all, provided plenty of chills and shivers. The gleeful shrieks that bounced back from the walls must have been gratifying to the men and women who had let their imaginations run free in planning the "horror." No child, however, was "scared out of its wits"; and so carefully were those "chambers" handled, that none passing through suffered anything more serious than a good, lusty thrill.

At many of the younger parties, the children appeared in costumes—ranging from skeletons and ghosts to spirited pirates—all indicating a good deal of ingenuity and designing ability on the part of fond mothers. Prizes were offered for the best costumes and shrieks of approval greeted the winners.

During the refreshment period, about 12,000 portions of ice cream slipped down eager young throats; more than 35,000 candies, the same way, and approximately 14,000 napkins removed traces of the "feats" from smacking lips.

The outstanding success of this year's parties is attributed by Mr. William G. Read, general chairman, and Mrs. Ragna Hovgaard, chairman of the program committee, to unparalleled city-wide co-operation to the experience gained in previous Hallowe'en celebrations and to the conscientious work of the 1400 volunteer committee members. Equally contributing to this success were the policies of the School Department as expressed by Dr. Homer Anderson, Superintendent of Schools, resulting in a Hallowe'en educational program in the schools which did fine work in inculcating in the children the essentials of good citizenship and created greater respect in them for the rights and property of others. Mr. Rupert C. Thompson, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce states that this latter is borne out by merchants and property owners, generally, who have reported virtually no Hallowe'en vandalism, however.

As these annual events increase in number, it becomes clearer that the purposes of Newton's Hallowe'en parties are bearing fruit and that through them the boys and girls of the City are learning to become the good citizens in whose hands the future welfare of the community can safely be placed.

Frank A. Day Junior High School

We are delighted to report that Day can add its twenty-first consecutive 100% star to our Minute flag. Rooms 10-15-19-26 continue their record of 100% participation each week. We are approaching the total necessary to "Buy a Buddy a Bed" with $1924.25 already on the records, but we hope to do better than our quota before the first of the year rolls around. Grade VIII Art Elective pupils have been busy making Christmas Menu covers for the U. S. Navy. An exhibition of these covers is now on the main bulletin board.

The Ninth Grade elections are taking place on October 31st with the campaign speeches to be given before the vote on Tuesday, October 30. Douglas Duff and Donald Koch are candidates for president; James Carter, Robert Pettys, and Michael Proia are in a three cornered race for the office of vice president; the candidates for secretary are Norman Barbuto, Francis Gentile, Francis Jones and James Waters; and those aspiring to the office of treasurer are Patrick Babin, Mary Jean Carter, Clyde Lewis, and Janet Powell. Carol Nesson is the chairman of the Ninth Grade Rally during which each candidate will have an opportunity to present his platform to the voters.

It seems like old times to see Major Russell V. Burkhardt and to hear his voice in the corridors. After his terminal leave has ended, he will be back as our principal early in December.

Fisher, and reports by the Corresponding Secretary, Miss Florence Bacon, and Mrs. F. J. Blake, Treasurer.

Mrs. Allen R. Barrow, Program Chairman, presented three leading Newton citizens, who spoke on subjects which held the attention of the audience the entire afternoon. Mr. Theodore Lockwood told "What Newton is doing for Veterans," and distributed copies of the G. I. Bill of Rights. Mr. Douglas Sloan explained "What Junior Achievement Means to Our City," and told about the plan for a chartered organization in which young people will be taught to conduct a going business. This transition from school life to the simple business procedure, is a movement sponsored by an imposing list of prominent Newton business men, and its potentialities, like the atomic bomb, can revolutionize the future of our young people of today.

Mr. Roy B. Edwards, President of the Chamber of Commerce, in showing "Why Newton Should Stop Localizing and Start Centralizing," said that we must centralize our interests. A civic auditorium and health center, and a suitable building for veterans is a must and should be started right away.

be done about this serious problem which threatens the welfare of our children. As a result the Council is sponsoring an effort to recruit foster parents who are willing to come to the aid of Newton children.

Newton social workers agree that the present situation is a desperate one. Mr. James P. Reynolds, Director Newton Department of Public Welfare, says: "Newton maintains no emergency shelter for its children, nor any child-placing service, but depends on foster home placement by the Division of Child Guardianship or private agencies in Boston when the need arises. We need a few good foster homes in Newton ready to stand by for a few days or weeks until child-placing agencies can help."

Miss Hilga S. Nelson, Executive Director of the Newton District Nursing Association makes the following statement: "The Newton District Nursing Association has for a long time felt the need of satisfactory foster homes in Newton. This is especially true when an emergency has to be met such as a mother having to leave suddenly for hospital care."

Miss Jane Ludy, General Secretary of the Family Service Bureau of Newton, says: "Several times a month frantic telephone calls come to our office, generally late in the afternoon. A mother has been taken to the hospital, leaving two small children alone in the house. Sometimes Father or the neighbors can help out for a few hours, but sometimes immediate action is necessary. If we knew of a few families ready to help in time of need, we would be saved many anxious moments."

Mr. Gores, speaking for the Newton Community Council, wishes to emphasize that Newton citizens are ready to open their hearts and their homes when the need arises. Many of the children have parents ready and willing to pay their board, if only a foster home were available.

Foster parents are reimbursed for board, clothing, and other incidentals for every child, and for foster parents ready to stand by in any emergency a subsidy will be paid, even when their homes are not in use. Interested persons may call the Newton Community Council, 93 Union Street, Newton Centre. Telephone: LAS. 5121.

Newton Man at Party in India

Forty-five American servicemen from the state of Massachusetts were guests at a gala State party given in their honor this month by the American Red Cross Club 60 in Calcutta.

After a specially prepared dinner, they were introduced individually from the Red Cross club stage. Included in the party roll-call was Robert Snyder, AFS, of Newton.

One way for the Army to get rid of its surplus goods would be for it to rent a large basement and then invite the ladies to the sale.

Lt. Wood Home From Okinawa

Lieutenant Nathaniel F. Wood, of 329 Newtonville avenue, Newtonville, has returned home from battle scarred and typhoon torn Okinawa where he was stationed with the 96th Division and Gen. Joseph Stilwell's Tenth Army. The infantry officer was wounded in action late in May while fighting with the 96th and wears the Purple Heart and other Pacific ribbons and battle stars.

The young officer said of Okinawa's garrison forces, now leveled by two recent typhoons, "the occupational forces of 150,000 troops on this island were fast building more permanent living accommodations when the typhoon caught them. Living conditions at that time were good, though of a temporary nature. Quonset huts and pyramid tents, as well as native huts, served most of the forces stationed there." He related, "Therefore, naturally any severe wind storm would have been able to completely demolish all installations of that type."

He "sweated out" four previous such storms while stationed there but fortunately they failed to materialize in any great way, moving out to the China sea, he noted. "Had such storms caught the forces of guard during or immediately after the 'campaign', a different course in our war of fort here, scarcely 325 miles from Japan proper, would no doubt have occurred," the officer said. "As it was, typhoon warnings prevented our occupation forces from landing in Japan as scheduled last September and MacArthur was forced to postpone the operation for 48 hours. Had the storm hit Okinawa, no one knows the course we would have been forced to take," he noted.

Lieutenant Wood prior to his army career, attended Syracuse University, New York state where he served as editor for the campus All-American daily, the Daily Orange. He is a member of Sigma Delta Chi, national journalism honorary and entered service through the ROTC program in 1943. He is a graduate of the OCS course at Ft. Benning, having completed that course in August, 1944. Later, the infantry officer served in Oklahoma and Colorado as an instructor before going overseas last year.

Prior to his landing on Okinawa he served in Hawaii and on Saipan in the Marianas. En route home aboard the USS Gen. W. C. Langfitt, a navy transport that docked in Seattle last week with 300 liberated prisoners of Japan, interned since 1942. Lieutenant Wood interviewed many of them, many of whom were British officers and men taken at Singapore, and American civilians captured on Wake in the early dark days of the war.

Unprintable were many of the details of the suffering and degradation of American prisoners—officers and men—after the surrender of Corregidor, related a Col. Emil Rawitzer, aboard the Langfitt, who had made the death march of Bataan and Corregidor. Lieutenant Wood discovered that this officer had been slapped, had seen General Wainwright knocked about and many starved. "We ate grass, monkeys, snakes," a mother related "I was in the hold of a ship en route to Japan and lost 60 pounds during the 60-day trip."

Blake, Ward 1 Candidate for Alderman-at-Large

Dana P. Blake, 188 Bellevue street, Newton, has announced his candidacy for Alderman-at-large from Ward 1 for the City of Newton.

Mr. Blake is a practicing attorney with offices at 26 Pemberton square, Boston, specializing in a large measure in the practice of Federal and State taxation. He is a member of the Massachusetts and Boston Bar Associations. He was a financial and administrative officer of the Dewey and Almy Chemical Company for many years and in addition has spent considerable time working with Congressional and Senatorial Committees on federal tax legislation. In an interview with Mr. Blake he expressed the hope that he would have the opportunity to make available to the citizens of the City of Newton his extensive and valuable experience in all-important phases of business, so vital to the successful administration of civic affairs. In commenting upon his unique suite of offices in Pemberton Square his intimate friends say his hobby is the rehabilitation of buildings which have outgrown their original usefulness and purposes, and they are proud of the buildings in the Square.

A political column of a Newton paper concluded with the statement: "Judging by his industry and independence he (Mr. Blake) may well go a long way." That sums up the sentiments of his supporters.

Dennis Cronin in Mayoralty Contest

Dennis M. Cronin, a man youthful in years but old in Municipal experience; a man who is keenly aware of Newton's civic problems brought forth by the ever changing political, social and economical conditions affecting our daily lives; the man who has the experience, education and capabilities to cope with important issues which will affect the next two years, has announced his candidacy for the office of Mayor.

Being in a lifelong resident of Newton, he has always been vigorous in his support of all activities leading to the city's betterment which has resulted in his selection by his many friends and business leaders to enjoy the prestige of this high office. He is personally acquainted with practically all of the city's departmental heads, employees, business leaders, and thousands of Newton's residents have given him a keen insight into the problems of the city from the most essential viewpoint—that of the taxpayer, which will go a long way in helping him to administer the city's affairs.

Cronin, a successful lawyer in Newton as well as a member for many years of the legislative branch of the Government, he served as Vice Mayor of the City of Newton from 1937 to 1941. A Veteran of World War I, he served for almost two years in the same Army outfit as U. S. Senator Saltonstall and Mr. Hon. Justice Wilkins of the Massachusetts Supreme Court. In this war he performed duty for more than two years as Vice Commander of Flotilla 518 of the United States Coast Guard (T.R.) which incidentally was the Newton Flotilla. Cronin is married and the father of two children attending Newton public schools. He resides at 37 Oakland avenue, Auburndale.

In an interview with Mr. Cronin he expressed his intention of surrounding himself with an Advisory Board composed of the best type of citizens from all groups, representative of business, labor, banking, social, church and education.

Postoffice Christmas Work Applications To Close Soon

Men or boys sixteen years of age who desire work in the postoffice during the Christmas period should apply at once to their local superintendent, in order that they will have sufficient time to learn the sorting scheme necessary for the work. The pay rate is very attractive and an opportunity to work in their local office is afforded the boys who make the grade in the sorting test which is not too difficult.

Lieut. Richard Whitney Officially Declared Dead

Twenty months after his plane failed to return from a dangerous bombing mission over Austria, official finding of death has been recorded in the case of First Lieutenant Richard Morin Whitney, 430 Albemarle road, Newtonville, according to a letter just received by his mother, Mrs. Clifford B. Whitney, from Major-General F. Witswell, Acting the Adjutant General of the Army. The air medal and first oak leaf cluster to the air medal were authorized to his being reported missing in action.

Co-pilot of a B-24 Liberator bomber which failed to return from a bombing mission from an Italian base to Steyr, Austria, on Feb. 23, 1944, Lt. Whitney was in the lead plane of his squadron with Major Wm. A. Miller, of Ohio. Three parachutes were seen to leave the plane as it went into a steep dive. The distressed ship could not be further observed due to the intensity of the attack. Mrs. Whitney has learned, Of 35 planes on this mission, only four came back.

In the vicinity of the target formation, the plane was attacked by a large number of enemy fighters and Lt. Whitney's plane was believed to have sustained damage. Major-General Witswell wrote: "It is a great relief to hear of a steady dive. Your son has not been seen or heard from since then." The presumptive finding of death is recorded as of Oct. 18, 1945.

Previous word of Lt. Whitney and his crew being missing in action came on March 20, 1944, four days after the death of his grandfather, Ezra Forte, of Auburndale, father of Mrs. Whitney.

Inducted March 8, 1941, Whitney served as a private in the 101st Infantry at Camp Edwards, was appointed corporal July 28, 1941, and transferred as a private to the 1st Cavalry Division, Camp 28, April, 1942. In 1942 he applied for admission to the Air Corps and trained at Parks Air College, East St. Louis, Ill., then at Randolph Field, Texas, with Co. C. 42E. He was then assigned to observation flying at Brooks Air Field, San Antonio, Texas, where he won his wings and his second lieutenant. In 1943 he was made a First Lieutenant with the First Tow Target Squadron at Hyannis. He left for overseas on Thanksgiving Day, 1943, as a pilot with the 450th Bomb Group, 723d Bombardment Squadron, Fifteenth Air Force, going by way of Porto Rico where he had a brief visit with his brother, Malcolm, then flying to South America and to Dakar, Africa.

Lt. Whitney had completed at least six combat missions before this fatal flight. Since being declared missing in action, his family has held out hope that he still might be found, but no word has come of his plane nor any of the crew, with the families of whom Mrs. Whitney has been in correspondence, the names and addresses having been forwarded to her to use in case of disaster by her son in one of his last letters.

Lt. Richard M. Whitney was born June 4, 1919, youngest son of the late Clifford B. Whitney, former manager of the Summer Street branch, First National Bank of Boston, and Mrs. Whitney (Sadie A. Forte). He was president both of his graduating class at Frank A. Day Junior High school and of the class of 1937 at Newton High School, where he was active in hockey. He was graduated from Nichols Junior College at Dudley in 1939, where he was voted the best student and most likely to succeed, played hockey and was captain of the soccer team, and was a member of the Justiniens. President of the Council and Glee Club. Music was his hobby and he was a member of the xylonhob. Young Whitney worked at the General Electric Division at Lynn before serving in the Army.

Resides his mother, Lt. Whitney is survived by his grandmother, Mrs. Ezra Forte, formerly of Auburndale, now living at the Whitney home in Newtonville; two brothers, Malcolm F. Whitney of Central Air Force, and Richard, and Donald Whitney of Wellesley Hills.

Veteran Solves Housing Problem

Chesley J. Noel, 27-year old veteran of overseas service, is solving his personal housing problem by building his own home in Newton Centre. He has bought one lot on Hartmann road, has an option on a second, and with the help of other veterans will build a better-type house that will be a credit to the neighborhood.

Noel, a civil engineer, had charge of airport construction overseas. His father is an official of the big contracting firm that built Fort Devens and the Veterans' Hospital in West Roxbury. He now resides in Littleton.

Working with Arnold Hartmann, builder of Oak Hill Village, Noel located and purchased all the necessary materials. In addition, Hartmann has building material on hand for 12 houses in the Fox Meadow and Village Circle sections of Newton Centre. Only a delay in getting city services installed, can hold up the start of much needed construction activity in this area.

Cabot-Claffin P.T.A. Operate Thrift Shop

That people are interested in saving money has been proved again by the success of the Thrift Shop run by the Parent Teachers Association of the Cabot-Claffin schools. Operating at the Cabot School on Wednesdays of each week, the Shop has already taken in its four working days more than it totaled from March to June last year.

Regular customers have learned that the best values are quickly snatched up, so there is a steady increase in the number of people waiting when the doors open at 9 o'clock on Wednesday. The hours are from 9 to 12 a.m. and 1:30 to 3:30 p.m.—and it is a busy time for Mrs. Wilbur Witty and her staff of helpers.

Best selling merchandise includes clothes for children and adults, toys and other usable merchandise. The shop works on a commission basis, 10 per cent going to the donor of the merchandise and 20 per cent to the Parent Teachers Association.

Among the many things sold this season was a child's bedroom set, bulky to be sent to the school, and a new bed, Harold Higgins of Newton in said County, deceased.

Complain of Smoke Nuisance at Recess Hearing on Transportation

Present at the hearing held before the Recess Commission on Transportation at the State House, Boston on Wednesday were several residents of Newton and other communities served by the local railroad lines, who appealed for electrification of these roads or the use of diesel power.

Rupert C. Thompson, representing the Newton Chamber of Commerce covering 95 per cent of Newton's industry, and also representative of Mayor Paul M. Goddard of Newton, stated that while residents of Newton are satisfied with the service of the Boston and Albany as far as transportation is concerned, they are opposed to the smoke nuisance which is definitely a factor in lowering the value of property along the railroad right-of-way, and also creates a traffic hazard. This traffic hazard, he said, is particularly noticeable on Washington street where smoke from the trains is at times so dense that traffic must be halted.

Other speakers were George R. Rawson, State representative from Newton; Alderman-elect William R. Mattson, representing the Newtonville Improvement Association; Otis H. Fellows, representing the Newton Centre Improvement Association; Amos J. Shorey, a resident of Central street, Auburndale, and Rev. Emory Buck of Newton.

Representative Rawson urged that the Boston & Albany Railroad abate the smoke nuisance caused by heavy firing of locomotives leaving stations. He suggested electrification of the main line and Highland branch, or that trains be operated by diesel locomotives.

Mr. Shorey stated that the excess smoke was causing damage to property from Wellesley to Boston, the gases from the engines destroying metal roofs, the smoke destroying foliage on trees and gardens, and paint on houses.

He also said merchants are complaining that the smoke and cinders enter their establishments. He also complained of the ancient coaches used on local lines which he said are very dirty and that women avoid travelling on them.

Rev. Emory Buck of Newton, Editor of "The Herald," told the commission he was "filthy with soot" after riding from Newton to Boston.

E. K. Mentzer, special engineer for the Boston & Albany, stated that all of the road's 220 locomotives.

The designed purpose of the Newton Tuberculosis and Health Association was to be of direct aid to its residents. With the development and spread of new concepts in rehabilitation of the tuberculous and their families it became clear that a separate agency should be set up. This conforms with the splendid standard set by the Massachusetts Tuberculosis League, which has trained and placed Rehabilitation Directors and Workers all over the State.

Politics With Color

(The opinions expressed in this column are the writer's own, and do not necessarily reflect the views or policy of this newspaper.—Editor's Note.)

The Election

Mayor Paul M. Goddard won an even more substantial victory than his closest friends had hoped for and expected. His vote of 11,565 was close to double the combined vote of his two opponents, Boyd and Cronin. What happened in the closing days of the campaign to produce this result?

In my opinion, the opposition overplayed its hand and went berserk in the closing hours. It appeared to sense an opportunity to make political capital out of the Street Commissioner's resignation at the eleventh hour. Ridiculous remarks were made to the effect that it was high time that efficiency and honesty were returned to our city government. Yes, you heard me—high time that honesty should be returned to our city government. Can you beat that? Charges like that were too strong for most voters to stomach. The writer has lived nearly sixty years in the Garden City and this is the first time that he has heard any attempt to smear a man of unimpeachable integrity in public office. As a matter of fact, it took considerable courage to make an eleventh-hour change in an important department. Unthinking and informed citizens MIGHT draw the wrong conclusion from the Mayor's prompt and drastic action.

Let's get down to cases. On the evening prior to election I chanced to be in the vicinity of Newton Corner, where Hugh Boyd intercepted me and advised me that an atomic bomb, politically speaking, would be dropped on Newton voters in this election. We will skip the ensuing conversation. May I merely state that the atomic bomb, if dropped, appeared to have completely obliterated its sponsor, who culturally speaking, would be dropped on Newton voters in this election. We will skip the ensuing conversation. May I merely state that the atomic bomb, if dropped, appeared to have completely obliterated its sponsor, who culturally speaking, would be dropped on Newton voters in this election.

To be perfectly frank, what surprised me was the relative showing of Boyd and Cronin. The latter received only 3,177 votes as against Boyd's 3,526. That is not much of a margin but it staggered practically every political observer in the city. One possible explanation is that the Mayor's friends had not forgotten the part that Cronin played in the Treadwell case, which had on the surface at least, no obvious political repercussions. I do not need to remind my readers that politicians seldom forget OR forgive. Another explanation might be that Cronin conducted a more dignified campaign, on the surface at least, but found it difficult to raise any substantial issue against the Mayor. You recall that he asked for a city purchasing department and a citizens advisory committee at the High School political reception. Still another explanation might be that Cronin admitted that he would probably support any candidate for the Board of Aldermen who supported him. In view of the fact that the present Board was a solid block to the Mayor, it was apparent that Cronin was digging his own political grave.

As to the Boyd vote, may I remind my readers that there is always a fair-sized vote which can be delivered to the opposition in a strenuous campaign. A powerful and convincing orator, given some semblance of an issue, can always find a receptive audience on the street corner or among disgruntled city employees and other groups which are frequently with the "outs" as against the "ins." It is too early as yet to figure the second and third choices indicated by the voters. It is my impression that Newton voters followed the usual pattern and substantially ignored their opportunity to vote second and third choices, except in a few Aldermanic contests. The total vote was so close to the 50 percent mark that I am inclined to congratulate the citizenry for its faithfulness to its obligation. It is no more, however, than we should expect in such a fine city. Let us hope that we will always carry on in the same manner. Space will not permit much discussion this week of the various Aldermanic contests. In the only contest for Ward Alderman, which was in Ward I, former Alderman Fahey appears to be the winner over sitting Alderman Akins. A recount is expected here, as the margin was only 29 votes and most observers felt that Akins would be returned to office. He had the support of most of those who were working for Mayor Goddard, to the best of my knowledge. Certainly, those who knew that Fahey was on the line for Boyd must have given Akins a vote. Alderman Gibbs ran quite close to Alderman Barwise as both men turned back Messrs. Blake and Murphy. You did not hear so much about Murphy in this campaign.

tives would be equipped with smoke consuming devices within 18 months, and James B. Brown, representing the Boston & Maine, said his road would never buy another steam locomotive and now had about $14,000,000 invested in oil-burning engines.

H. J. Weiss, general counsel for the New Haven Railroad, told the commission that it would cost $470,000 to electrify the New Haven line in Massachusetts, and $12,000,000 to employ diesel locomotives exclusively.

Glee Club

ened its scope by contributing its services to worthy causes. Carol singing in the early hours of Christmas morning in the various parts of Newton, including the Peabody Home, and Hospitals, has been an outstanding feature.

Anyone interested in the two concerts given each year by the Highland Glee Club may like to have one of their new brochures and may receive one in the mail by dropping a line to Mr. Walter H. Sears, 27 Brooks avenue, Newtonville.

and you may have wondered why he ran ahead of the high-profiled Blake. Blake was beaten more than 11 by both of the sitting Aldermen and ran 1,285 votes behind Murphy. One reason may have been that Blake was definitely downed by the latter with him. Also, Blake is very much a newcomer to Newton politics and the voters here like to vote for a man who has his roots more deeply sunk in our soil.

Answer to this result is probably that Gath was aiming at Mattson, on the assumption that Slocum's friends probably felt the same way and just coasted along. We all realize that, in politics, it is necessary to forget undue modesty and take front seat in the parade, if possible. In Ward 4, as anticipated, Aldermen Bacon and Hunt rmince-meat of Bensley, who was not known to most of the voters. The same thing happened in Ward 5, where Aldermen Baylor and Bauckman administered crushing defeat to Marcy, another unknown. In Ward 6, also, forecast by your columnist, Aldermen Jamieson and Tripp overwhelmed the Messers. Brown and Lundstrom. It was unfortunate that the latter was in the hospital during much of the campaign. We trust that he will recover his health shortly.

That takes care of all the contests, I believe. I offer my congratulations to all the winners, and especially to our city Mayor, who came through with flying colors in the face of possible difficulty. It just goes to show that it is hard to defeat an obviously good man in public life, if all the facts are known and the voters use their heads and not just their hearts. We all look forward to another two years of sound, efficient government at City Hall.

Newton's Hallowe'en Celebration in Retrospect

Outstanding Success of Every Party Reflects Credit on Parents Committees

Looking back on Newton's 23rd separate Hallowe'en parties for more than 10,000 school children, the only conclusion possible is that this year's celebration, the fourth annual, topped those previously held and set a new high-water mark in cooperative, civic endeavor.

So outstanding was each and every neighborhood gathering, says Mrs. Ragna Hovgaard, Chairman of the Program Committee, that it would be splitting hairs to choose between them. All were excellent. And each committee felt amply rewarded for weeks of tireless effort as its members viewed the heart-warming delight of the children participating.

Because of space limitations, only brief summaries of a few parties can be given. But they are typical of all—and are drawn from reports received by Mrs. Hovgaard from various Building Chairmen.

The Junior High party at the Newton Highlands Congregational Church maintained a high note of movement all evening. Movies, dancing and games predominated; and the versatile drummer of the orchestra brought cheers, while a fortune teller did a rushing business.

Chamber of Horrors at the Hyde School, Newton Highlands, had eager youngsters in shivers. They packed around the entrance to the dungeon below, quiveringly waiting their turn to start down into the region of "Horrors" via a slippery chute preceded over by a very lively skeleton.

At the John Ward School, Newton Centre, the high links started off with a picnic supper, followed by games, movies and a visit to the Fun House which included a "horror room" in charge of a real ghost. The evening was helped to a howling success by 350 horns.

About 150 children took part in the F. A. Day Junior High dance. It was an animated gathering and all agreed that this was the best party ever held in that Newtonville school.

The 148 pupils attending the party at the St. John The Evangelist School, Nonantum, had "a wonderful time" playing games, singing, running races and seeing two absorbing movies. During the evening, Mayor Goddard and three representatives dropped in.

At the Totem Pole School, 1400 high school students jammed the dance floor, while Baron Hugo's orchestra gave of its best. The affair was most colorful. Pretty crowds predominated and the laughter and steady buzz of small talk indicated that every boy and girl was superlatively happy. Much credit goes to the committee of high school students who handled the event so efficiently; and the friendly cooperation of Mr. Thomas Gill, owner of the Ballroom, contributed greatly to its success.

Careful planning also was responsible for the excellent party over at the Normandie Room, where the Auburndale Junior High School folks were enjoying movies and dancing.

Over 300 boys and girls of the Warren Junior High, in West Newton, enjoyed movies, dancing, prize games and refreshments. Some of the door prizes were tickets for the West Newton Theatre, kindly donated by Mr. Welch, the manager. In the cafeteria, decorated as a night club, music and dancing were featured and photos were snapped of all who cared to pose.

The afternoon party for the first three grades of the Underwood School, Newton, was reported by the committee as "a very happy, successful affair." A grand march, led by a clown, started the festivities, with prizes given for the most original, scariest and prettiest costumes. A trip through the Fun House, refreshments, movies of animals and animated cartoons made up a crowded program.

About 280 children attended the party at the Stearns School, Nonantum. They paraded by grades up and down the aisles and then to the stage, where prizes were awarded for the best costumes in each grade. Later a magician made young eyes pop, after which there were games, refreshments and a series of funny movies that brought forth shrieks of joy.

At the Weeks Junior High School, Newton Centre, where 360 students, about 75 percent of the school's enrollment, gathered, there was marked enthusiasm. The party was held in both the auditorium and the gymnasium; and while one half of the students attended a fine movie, the other half had a rollicking time in the "Midway." The procedure was then reversed. In the "Midway" there were eleven stunts and 66 parents co-operated in conducting groups of eighteen through each in turn. Prizes were awarded the first and second place winners of each group. The party was tremendously successful—due, the report of the Chairman states, to the fine organizational work of Mr. Blaisdell, the principal, to his faculty and to the superb spirit of the parents in assisting throughout the program.

The parties at the Sacred Heart Parochial School, Newton Centre, were reported as "eminently successful." At the Elementary party, all the 7th and 8th grade pupils were present, and most of the 9th, and practically every child was in costume. Movies, singing, games, dancing and a Chamber of Horrors made up the programs. Rev. Father Eric McKenzie, Pastor of the Sacred Heart Parish was loud in his praise of the program, of the 80 members of the parents committee and of Father Martin Dolphin, who gave his time and talents and was one of the prime movers of the event. The Chairman reports that "the children are already looking forward to next Hallowe'en."

The party at the Cabot School, Newtonville, was "a huge success." The children appeared in captivating costumes, they "howled with delight" at the movies and they were greatly intrigued by a clever magician.

Judging from the enthusiastic words heard on all sides after the gathering at the Union Church, Waban, the young people spent an evening they will long remember. "The entertainment committee," says the Chairman, "did a grand job and put in a lot of time, thought and hard work."

In writing of the party at the Williams School, Auburndale, the Building Chairman says: "We think we should thank the few hundred children who were the real life of the party. We (the committee) were gay, but they were zany. We dressed up in funny clothes, but the children's were much smarter and prettier. We were in fine spirits, but they made a holiday of it. They thanks for a good time and a nice party more than paid us for the effort we made."

Nearly 90 young folks appeared in costume at the celebration at the Hamilton School, Newton Lower Falls. After the grand marches—when prizes were given for the prettiest and most comical costumes—there were games of relay, treasure and singing. Finally, movies of Mickey Mouse and Charlie Chaplin sent waves of giggles and laughter through the room.

The Angier School parties featured Jake Stafford, a magician, movies and a Chamber of Horrors. The 8th and 9th grades had their party at the Waban Neighborhood Club and found games and "Truth and Consequences" joyous attractions. All groups had refreshments and thoroughly enjoyed an event-packed program.

The Building Chairman of the party at the Pierce School, West Newton, gives full credit for its success to the splendid cooperation of the many parents who served on committees. The kindergarten class had a special party at 5 o'clock, with a parade, movies, games and prizes. Grades 1 to 6 were delighted with a varied program, including a professional magician. The 4th, 5th and 6th grades had the added thrill of a "Hall of Horrors."

About 250 children had a grand gathering at the Carr School, Newtonville. In the kindergarten room, decorated with pumpkins and pictures, 45 small tots, many in costume, played games. The party for grades 1 through 6 began at 6:45. They played games, had a grand march, saw movies and filled up on refreshments.

At 6:45, in back of the Burr School, Auburndale, a great number of children, in Hallowe'en costumes, clamored for entrance to the Chamber of Horrors. When the door opened, they streamed in, walked the plank to the accommodations of clanking chains and then proceeded down an alleyway to the ice-chilled rubber tube, cyclone area, spraying cat, and to the tunnel at the exit of which they shook hands with Jupiter Pluvius and then scampered to their respective rooms, where they were thrilled with an extensive Hallowe'en program. "The success of the party," states the Chairman, "was due to the whole-hearted cooperation of the entire committee."

As we go to press, reports about many parties had not been received. But these others, too, struck a high note of excellence, according to Mrs. Hovgaard who took them in on Hallowe'en.

Newton's fourth annual neighborhood Hallowe'en event is now history. But there are certain to be many more. For, whether viewed from the standpoint of the City, the parents or the children, Newton's city-wide Hallowe'en parties have so completely achieved their purposes that they appear destined to be definite fixtures in community affairs.

Pfc. Gorfinkle Meets Princess Elizabeth

Private First Class Herbert J. Gorfinkle, son of Lt. Col. and Mrs. Bernard Gorfinkle, 59 Algonquin road, Newton, Massachusetts, had an unexpected meeting with the future queen of England.

Pfc. Gorfinkle met Princess Elizabeth at the historic city of Bath on October 20. A student at Shrewsbury American University, he made a field trip to the city with Pfc. John G. Lee, of Spanish Fork, Utah, whose wife, Mrs. Joan Mary Lee, lives there now.

Noticing a large crowd outside an ancient Roman building, they asked a Bobby about it. He escorted them down the aisle formed by the throng and into a subterranean bath.

There, with Canadian and English soldiers, they saw the Princess with the Lord Mayor of Bath. Since she is an honorary colonel in the British Army, the GIs snapped to attention as she passed by. The Princess stopped and smiled:

"It's very nice to have you here with us today."

"Thank you," said Pfc. Gorfinkle. He then slung his camera into position and pressed the button. But as luck would have it the shutter jammed and Gorfinkle missed a "natural" for his scrapbook.

Buick Announces New 1946 Models

BUICK INTRODUCES its first models for 1946 with production emphasis on this Series 50 Super four-door sedan which is first to come from the assembly lines. Mounted on a 124-inch wheelbase chassis its improved design incorporates full airflow fenders, new theft-proof rear wheel shields, completely restyled radiator grille and bumper assembly and other appearance refinements. The straight eight, valve-in-head engine has precision-bored and specially honed cylinder barrels and features the dome-shaped combustion chamber characteristic of the Buick fireball design. Numerous mechanical and equipment improvements have been effected. In all, three lines of Buick cars will be manufactured, in nine body models.

Buick Announces 3 Eight-Cylinder Models for '46; Cars Now on Display

Buick's first post-war cars, the new models for 1946, are now being placed on exhibition by Newton Buick Co., local Buick dealer at 371 Washington street, Newton, who has sold and serviced Buick cars through two wars.

Three lines of eight-cylinder cars are being introduced—Series 50 Super on 124-in. wheelbase, Series 70 Roadmaster on 129-in. wheelbase, and Series 40 Special on 121-in. wheelbase. All incorporate important changes in appearance, design, and performance as compared with the similarly numbered models of 1942—the latest to be introduced prior to the war.

First off the line and first to be shown are the Series 50 Super cars made in four-door sedan, two-door sedan, convertible coupe, and estate wagon styles each having six-passenger capacity. The four-door sedan and the estate wagon are now in production with other body styles to follow shortly.

Material advances in styling as well as functional design are immediately apparent in the new Buicks. An entirely new grille not only adds massiveness to the front but due to its construction provides improved air flow. All external surfaces of the new grille are capped with chrome-plated stainless steel.

Front appearance is further enhanced by a new "aiming ring" radiator ornament, new and heavier bumper design, new bumper guards and series designation. Flashway direction signals and parking lights are of larger size. The fender has been remodeled to give a true airfoil contour which is extended through the door panel on all models.

Throughout the new body structure, trim and equipment will be noted a return to materials which in many instances ceased to be available after 1941. Cushion springs are covered with Foamtex rubber tops. The body hardware, knobs and escutcheons are all chrome plated with the former plastic inserts eliminated. Rust-proofing is now carried to levels never before possible and zinc die castings, ideal for small parts but unobtainable during the war are again employed.

The Buick valve-in-head Fireball engine introduced in 1941 is continued with many important refinements. In this engine Buick engineers have taken full advantage of the fundamental qualities of the valve-in-head design which permits, because of its dome-shaped head, the closest possible approach to the ideal form of combustion chamber, the sphere.

In the Fireball engine the piston head has been shaped with a mound on one side and a depression on the other. In this way, at the instant of explosion the charge is compressed into the approximate shape of a ball while at the same time the piston is provided with adequate metal surface to carry off excess heat, thus preventing ping or detonation.

Outstanding among the new Buick engine improvements is the method of fabricating the cylinder bores for superior accuracy and improved finish. After being precision bored, a new type hone is used on a surface finishing operation leaving the cylinder bores properly conditioned to receive a Lubrite coating. This coating is a manganese phosphate treatment which provides rapid seating of the piston rings—eliminating scuffing during the break-in period of the new car.

Also contributing to better performance is the return to aluminum pistons which have not been available since 1941. The carburetor is new, being a dual downdraft type with a redesigned intake manifold. An Inconel heater tube is employed and an automatic choke, providing not only the proper mixture but also the proper throttle opening for starting when cold, is built integrally with the carburetor.

The cooling system has been refined to give maximum water circulation at all points and to provide uniform metal temperatures. The entire system operates under approximately seven pounds pressure maintained by the use of a pressure relief filler cap. This reduces the after-bell and the loss of volatile anti-freeze.

A new type of spark plug, the AC model 48, is used which is provided with an aluminum oxide insulator that resists cracking under sudden temperatures. Because of inherent design the new plug is hotter at low speed, preventing fouling, while at high speed its characteristics are such that pre-ignition is eliminated.

The durex main bearings introduced by Buick in 1941 have had an outstanding record of success during the high mileages accumulated by owners in the war period. These are continued. The bearings consist of a steel back upon which is fused a porous copper nickel matrix into which in turn is cast the bearing metal. The bearing metal fills the pores of the matrix and is reinforced thereby in much the same manner as reinforced concrete is reinforced by the use of steel reinforcing bars. A strong mechanical bond is thus provided, supplementing the metallurgical bond between the bearing metal and its shell.

The Buick oil-conditioning system has been continued. In this system clean oil is provided by means of a screened floating intake which takes the oil from the cleanest part of the crankcase supply. Hinged just below the surface of the oil, this intake draws oil from a source well above any sediment or moisture which may collect at the bottom. At the same time the intake is below the frothy surface of oil supply.

For longer life and quieter operation through better lubrication, the overhead valve rocker arms are Lubrited. Another improvement is a new engine mounting giving a softer rear support located on the centerline of the engine under the point where the transmission base is bolted to the flywheel housing. There is also a new transmission steadyrest that absorbs part of the forward and backward thrust without taking any of the torque reaction or dead weight of the powerplant.

An important detail refinement has been added to the clutch for longer life. To prevent the possibility of wear between the clutch release bearing and the clutch spring, a spring has been added. A further improvement is the use of a different material in the clutch retaining spring which will prevent this spring from taking a set after a long period of use.

Buick's all-welded, rigid, one-piece unit frame is continued as is also the torque-tube drive and all-coil spring suspension. With the torque-tube drive all driving thrust is through the tube, leaving the springs devoted entirely to suspension.

Wide rim wheels which contributed materially to the stability and handling qualities of the 1942 cars are continued in the new models while optional 18x6.50 wheels and tires and high springs are available to owners who require higher road clearance.

In the rear axle, the ring gear has a heavier back and is mounted in a stiffer differential case. The pinion spiral angle has been increased to 50 degrees. These improvements produce a smoother operating and longer wearing unit. Gear ratios are 4.45 to 1 on Series 50 and 4.1 to 1 on Series 70.

A new one-piece molded accelerator pedal with a steel insert is used, eliminating the former metal hinge. Major changes have also been made in the construction and the controls of the car heating and ventilating equipment. Fresh air intake scoops mounted at the front behind the grille have been increased in size and provided with fine mesh screens, while conduits from the scoops to the valves are now of all metal construction providing unrestricted air flow.

The valve which controls the flow of fresh air to the heater and the thermostat which controls the flow of hot water to the heater are now operated by separate buttons mounted below the instrument panel. A third button controls fresh air intake for summer ventilation.

Many improvements are thus noted in the accessories. Experience during the war has led to the de-chairman, has the following group to help her:

Mrs. Philip O. Ahlin, Newtonville; Mrs. Roger Gilmore, Newton Highlands; Miss Elizabeth Kilburn, West Newton; Mrs. Norman W. Mahan, Newton Upper Falls; Mrs. F. Greenwood Morse, Newton; Mrs. Arthur G. Robinson, Auburndale; Miss Grace Rogers, Newton Centre; Mrs. Henry W. Webster, Waban; Mrs. E. Gale Whittemore, Chestnut Hill, Newton Lower Falls.

An Executive Secretary was chosen who would put her emphasis on Rehabilitation. Mrs. E. Gale Whittemore has come to Newton as a trained and experienced Counselor. She has done Case Work in various fields, as well as Testing and Guidance. Also, Mrs. Whittemore has in the past undertaken the teaching of National Tuberculosis Association and Massachusetts Tuberculosis League trainees. This will continue in Newton, where an opportunity for an all-round program will offer to students a chance for observing and participating in a dynamic learning experience.

During the next few years a thorough study of needs will be made throughout Newton and an ideal program to fulfill these needs will be put into action. Mrs. Whittemore will add research to her duties and later report in some particular the best means by which to rehabilitate arrested cases of tuberculosis and their families, as well as making adjustments within the family unit on the event of one member being admitted to a sanatorium.

The new offices will be located at 1357 Washington street, West Newton. It is hoped that all agencies and individuals will call upon it for clarification and assistance. The work of the new association will be closely integrated with the Public Health Nurses of Newton, the clinics and hospitals, so that no duplication of effort will be possible.

The City of Newton will have the unique opportunity of proving what can be accomplished in a far-sighted program of planning and execution. It is expected that the fruits of this new project will set a pattern for future blueprints.

At Thanksgiving time your Seals will be on their way to you. It is hoped that this notice will bring a personal touch to the Seal Sale this year and give you the knowledge that your own Tuberculosis and Health Association is behind this drive.

development of a superior storage battery plate compound which has been adopted, resulting in better performance. In addition the battery has been further improved with improved sealing and new ventilated filler cap. Other features of the Buick electrical system including high output generator with voltage and current regulation, automatic spark advance, sealed beam headlights, flashway direction signalling and dual air trumpet type horns are all continued without change.

A new bumper jack has been developed with the lifting bracket so designed as to straddle the bumper bar thereby preventing any tendency to slide sideways when in use. The front and rear bumper bars have been made of deeper section to prevent excessive deflection when the bumper jacks are used. The bumpers have also been enhanced in appearance by widely spaced guards and a newly designed bar carrying an ornamental plate with the series designation. Bumpers are the wrap-around type for full fender protection.

The windshield wiper motor is now mounted in the engine compartment on the front of the body and operates the two arms through cables. New type wrist action windshield wiper arms are used. The remote mounting of the motor and the new type arms provide silent wiper operation for the first time. In addition, a large windshield wiper control knob is provided which also incorporates the control for the Buick windshield washer accessory.

PLACE ORDERS NOW

THIS, we reasoned, is no time to offer folks a car that stops with artful face-lifting.

It has been nearly four years since our last new Buick was built—it wouldn't be shooting square now to give you less than our honor-bright best.

So we overhauled our whole factory to advantage it with the latest in war-developed machines and processes.

We scoured the country for the stoutest metals anyone can buy today.

We set ourselves precisions that in some cases exceed those of aircraft engine production.

And we eagle-eyed every one of this Buick's

12,000 parts to see if it could be bettered in any way, big or little.

The result is that through every stunning inch of this bright new honey runs solid, dependable Buick character, honest and uncompromised.

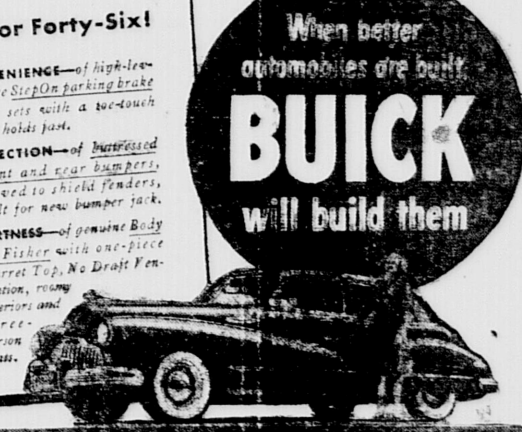

It's in swift clean lines. In seats that are three-persons wide. In stout, time-defying frames and underpinning. Above all—in the lift and life of a Fireball straight-eight that's even livelier than in 1942.

The cars your Buick dealer will have are big. They're beautiful. They're Buicks.

In fact—the best Buicks yet!

What other car has so much that clicks for Forty-Six!

- POWER—from a Buick Fireball valve-in-head straight-eight engine that gets peak return from every drop of fuel.
- HIGH STYLE—of car-length airfoil fenders with built-on rear wheel shields.
- OIL SAVINGS—from non-scuffing Accurite cylinder bores.
- FLASHING ACTION—of light, lively Fliterweight pistons.
- STEADINESS—from full-length torque-tube drive in a sealed chassis.
- GLIDING RIDE—from Panther-gait all-coil springing with only a comfort job to do.
- COMFORT—of soft Foamtex cushions with luxury-type springs.
- SURE FOOTING—of Broadrim wheels; maximum tire mileage, no heel-over on curves, and better car control.

Newtonville Woman's Club

On Friday evening, November 16th, the Newtonville Woman's Club will present a program of unusual interest to young and old alike. Mr. Richard du Bois, of New York, society's foremost magician, performs an astonishing series of miracles in the modern manner; unbelievable telepathic experiments and spiritualistic phenomena defying physical laws and psychological understanding. Mr. du Bois has entertained the guests of Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, Mrs. Andrew Carnegie, ex-Governor and Mrs. Herbert Lehman at the Executive Mansion at Albany, and at exclusive functions in New York and fashionable clubs in the socially prominent suburban areas. Mr. du Bois is one of the best known prestidigitators in the country, a former National Secretary of the Society of American Magicians, and member of the world-famous Magicians' Society of Madhapur, India. His performance is one that will not be forgotten; mystifying, exciting, and above all, great fun.

Miss Estelle G. Marsh, president of the Newtonville Woman's Club, heads the long list of patronesses for the occasion. Tickets may be secured from Mrs. Hugh A. McCrete, tel. Rotary Club

W. Nelson Bump, regional vice president of the American Airlines, was the guest speaker at the meeting of the Newton Rotary Club on Friday at the Brae Burn Country Club.

Speaking on "The Future of Transportation," Mr. Bump presented an account of air transportation, past, present and future. He said that from the horse and buggy days, when it took three and a half months to cross the continent, the time has been reduced to 18 hours and a six to eight hour traveling time is possible. He stated that in 1935, 38,000 persons used the airlines from Boston and predicted that by 1950, the number will exceed four million. Mr. Bump said that mail and freight has increased from 200,000 pounds to five million pounds in five years. Aeronautical research, just in its infancy, will make possible 750 miles per hour in the stratosphere before too many years, he asserted.

"Air travel," said Mr. Bump, "is unusual in that it knows no barriers, but can go as the crow flies over mountains, rivers, lakes and oceans. By the first of the year there will probably be one transcontinental scheduled flight a day from Boston. American Airlines plan eventually to schedule flights from Boston to Ireland, London, Berlin, Moscow, Copenhagen and Sweden. Instruments will soon, aided by the use of radar and radio, make landings safe with a 50 foot ceiling. In the years ahead the world will grow smaller and people of different nations will mingle more readily and often by means of this great and growing air travel industry."

Large Attendance At Harvest Supper

The annual Harvest Supper of the First Unitarian Society in Newton was held in the parish house of the society in West Newton on Tuesday evening, October 30, 1945. The largest attendance in several years enjoyed the excellent turkey supper served under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Scheel. The supper was followed by a lively auction at which many parcels of food ranging from pumpkins to preserves were awarded to the highest bidders. Mr. Carroll acted as auctioneer and the purpose was to raise money to pay for Christmas boxes sent to the members still in the armed forces.

This was followed by a very important meeting of the society. The first item of business was to consider a request of the American Unitarian Association for part time services of the minister, Dr. Herbert Hitchen. Dr. Hitchen has been invited to serve the A. U. A. to head up and coordinate a World Unitarian Fellowship. This will require his part time services for the present at headquarters in Boston and later to make trips to England and the continent of Europe. Dr. Eliot, president of the A. U. A. was present and explained the duties involved to the society and the proposed arrangement for furnishing an assistant minister during Dr. Hitchen's absence. The society voted unanimously but reluctantly to accept this request and the members extended their congratulations and best wishes for success to Dr. Hitchen on this new undertaking.

A second item of business was the invitation to join the Newton Council of Churches. A motion to affiliate was carried in the affirmative and the chairman of trustees was requested to appoint the proper number of delegates.

The chairman of trustees, Daniel R. Weedon announced that due to the generosity of certain members of the society, the newly purchased parsonage at 17 Somerset road, West Newton had been paid for without the necessity of a mortgage being placed on it, after which the highly successful meeting was brought to a close.

Newton Centre Woman's Club

On Tuesday evening, November 13, at 8:30 Warren Sims, a most versatile magician, will entertain members and friends of the Newton Centre Woman's Club with his "Magical Mysteries." A coffee and social hour at 7:30 will precede the program.

On Thursday, November 15, at ten in the morning, Mrs. Frank Mansfield Taylor will present her second lecture of the year on Current Events.

Passengers' choice for the Coach of Tomorrow

When New York Central asked wartime passengers to become its post-war plans committee . . . tens of thousands responded. Eagerly they answered questionnaires . . . voting on newly developed ideas . . . choosing from features found on Central's latest equipment . . . giving the Railroad the best possible guidance in planning its finer Trains of Tomorrow.

Here's how they voted on coach travel

- ☒ WIDE VIEW WINDOWS . . . This was the winning window . . . extra wide, and non-fogging . . . ideal for viewing the scenic Water Level Route.
- ☒ RECLINING SEATS . . . The vast majority voted for adjustable coach seats developed from those now on trains like the Empire State Express.
- ☒ "NEWS & VIEWS" . . . 70% favored a Public Address System to announce stations and points of interest.
- ☒ CONDITIONED AIR . . . Passengers voted 72% about right for winter. But for summer, most felt air conditioning should vary somewhat with temperature outdoors.
- ☒ BIG DRESSING ROOMS. Lounge-type dressing rooms were preferred 2-to-1 as against a number of small, individual washrooms.

There is unusual interest on the part of the active members of the Highland Glee Club of Newton in preparation of their December concert. The attendance at rehearsals has hovered around 50 and the old spirit of good fellowship seems to have returned and taken place of the "do or die" determination by which the organization breached the trying years of the war. Almost every Monday evening at rehearsal there is excitement over some of the men who have just come back from the wars and are glad to be in their accustomed places.

The initial call for Sponsoring Members has gone out and while the returns for the first week are about average, there is very confidence that the concerted drive of the organization to enlist 400 Sponsoring Members will this year be accomplished. Bear in mind that each Sponsoring Member receives 2 tickets for each of the two concerts and that the total outlay, including tax, is $3.60. Where can one find a more pleasurable evening in a strictly musical environment than by attending these concerts?

Last December the soloist was Ruth Diehl, a young and fascinating dramatic soprano from New York City, who has appeared so frequently with the Handel and Haydn Society the last three seasons. Miss Diehl so completely charmed the audience that there was a demand for her reappearance in Newton and it is a pleasure.

Horace Mann P.T.A. Holds Open House

The meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association of the Horace Mann School, Newtonville on Wednesday evening, November 14 was a special celebration of National Education Week. Open house was held in all classrooms. The School Exchange, usually open only on Thursday mornings, was also open so that more might become acquainted with this unusual P.T.A. project, whereby outgrown but still useful clothing, shoes, games and other articles are sold at bargain prices.

Parents assembled in the various classrooms for brief talks on the year's program, by the teachers. Mr. Harold Gores, Assistant Superintendent of the Newton schools, spoke interestingly to the group on "Postwar Plans for Our Schools." Refreshments were served in the Science Room, the fifth grade mothers being in charge with Mrs. Walter Hood and Mrs. Americo Astolfi as co-chairmen.

Post-Campaign Light For The Citizen

Having passed through an election, the campaign leaves problems in citizens' minds. These few rambling comments may be of interest.

One mayoral candidate stated that he noted no increase in the tax rate occurred when the two-platoon system was awarded to the firemen, so he advocated shortening the hours further. Had he wished to talk facts he could have learned that the two-platoon system cost the City of Newton $90,000 annually. The increased protection supplied by additional men should have been paid for by the insurance companies by a reduction in fire rates, and not by the taxpayers. However, the citizens themselves settled that issue by voting the referendum placed on the ballot, with the result that the $90,000 is contained in the tax levy.

Little was said about the frequently discussed City Manager form of government, although many sober-minded citizens are deeply interested in the subject. Newton has long been and is fortunate in the quality of her elective officials and they should be thanked for their generous contribution to civic service. However, running the business of a city of the present size is big business, the figures in and out totaling about twelve millions annually. The responsibilities are serious.

The Board of Aldermen is an appropriate and legislative body. The operating administrative government functions under the critical eye of the Board who may criticize and offer suggestions as to what comes within their view.

The office of Street Commissioner has carried a salary of $4200. The present-day requirements and widespread responsibilities of that large department call for business and technical capacity of a high order, combined with exemplary integrity.

For many years Newton operated in her own way without membership in the Municipal Finance Officers' Association and maintained a good record. Since membership, and since interchange of information as to best current practices has been developed, financial management has improved definitely. The compensation for the chief finance officer remains the same as when the population of the city was 53,003 and municipal conduct was vastly less complex. In the meantime the assistant has been advanced by steps from $2100 to $3000. That illustrates a habit of action. Fixed practice in such a direction may not be a sound policy.

The Board of Aldermen will miss as its one champion of public debate, Carrol Hoffman of Newton Centre. Frank, open discussion reflected in the press has not been viewed as a popular form of making gainful progress in the conduct of City affairs. Beyond doubt, however, all members of the Board will pay Alderman Hoffman a tribute for his consistent efforts to provoke public discussion. There are those who believe that inasmuch as the City Manager Plan operates well in cities with problems which Newton lacks, that it would work even better in Newton. Alderman Hoffman has a deep interest in an organized City Purchasing Department as well as the City Manager Plan and more may be heard from him yet.

After all, a city government reflects its electorate and the citizens should be given credit.

Doubtless in these enlightened days nothing is more needed than a comprehensive municipal library, with a small staff of competent research assistants. So long as the City follows the sound practice of having its Aldermen serve without compensation, at the least they should have conveniently available, as should all departments, complete access to all possible municipal information, figures and surveys, not only of Newton, but of many other cities and towns. Compelling Aldermen to seek such material individually and not affording this constant aid to all departments is obviously out of step with modern practice.

Politics With Color

(The opinions expressed in this column are the writer's own, and do not necessarily reflect the views or policy of this newspaper.—Editor's Note.)

Urgent Business

I have just returned from the weekly luncheon of the Brookline Kiwanis Club, where I was the guest of one of the Selectmen, Eugene P. Carver, Jr., former national commander of the VFW. The speaker was an old buddy of mine, Attorney General Clarence A. Barnes of Mansfield. Barnes is currently engaged in what he terms "extra-curricula" activity, namely, the business of getting an initiative petition filed BEFORE Nov. 25, calling for the voters to approve next year the principle of obligating labor unions to file the same financial report as is now required from business organizations and, secondly, the principle of FORBIDDING labor unions from contributing to political campaigns of individuals or parties.

Let's come straight to the point. Clarence Barnes still needs some 3,900 names on his two petitions, one for each proposition. The required number is 20,000 and some 16,100 are already on hand. Time is short and the Attorney General needs the help of any public-spirited citizen who believes that what is fair for capital is also fair for labor.

Here is a bit of the background of Barnes' labor for this initiative petition. He says frankly (and few members of the Legislature will disagree) that labor, as a whole, has such a strong grip on OUR OWN State Legislature to say nothing of the Legislatures in other states and even Congress itself that it is practically impossible to get any bill passed on Beacon Hill which labor does not want. Why? Because there are two large groups of men in the Legislature on whom the general public cannot count in time of need. The first group consists of men who owe their election to the financial support of some labor union. The second group includes those who are bent on having a close contest for re-election and who do not care to antagonize labor, which would be sure to put them on the black-list if they dared to support any legislation which labor considers inimical to its interests. The third group, which consists of some 90 odd men, can be depended on to vote as they honestly feel.

Two more points. Barnes draws a definite distinction between the average member of a labor union and the bosses at the top. He is convinced, from Gallup polls and from talks with the rank-and-file of the local unions that substantially 80% of union members themselves would like to have a financial accounting from their own leaders. Try to get it, however, and what happens? Union members who dare to express themselves freely are called to account and either thrown out of the union or taken care of in some other way. Nice business, isn't it?

The second point is simply this: business ran wild a few decades ago and was eventually called to account and forced to do the very same things which Barnes would now compel labor to do. Well, why not? The unions most certainly have just as much money at their disposal as big business used to have years and years ago. Many people think that they have a great deal more money to use for political purposes.

So, if anybody in Newton would like to help our Attorney General during the next week or ten days, let him phone him promptly and be told how he or she can help.

Newton Election

Because one key sentence was inadvertently omitted from last week's column, may I refer once more to the contest for Alderman-at-Large in Ward 2. Incidentally, I have been playing with the election figures and have made an interesting discovery. The key sentence referred to the surprise of many people when they learned that Alderman-elect William R. Mattson had not merely defeated Harry Gath by a substantial margin but had at the same time run well ahead of the sitting Alderman Charles P. Slocum. I then went on to explain that Gath was undoubtedly aiming at Mattson, who was also seeking election as a new man and that supporters of Mattson therefore may have rallied to Slocum, whom everybody expected to walk into office. Alderman Slocum's friends apparently felt that way and did not bestir themselves

Dining With Jane and Bill

Jane—It's so nice you could come to supper, Aunt Sally.
Aunt Sally—Jane, what's that? Jane, if it's cabbage I don't think I ought to eat it.

Jane—Why I thought I heard you saying this very afternoon that you liked cabbage!

Aunt Sally—I do, but it doesn't like me—repeats on me. Besides I don't think that cabbage is done, Jane. It's as green as when Junior brought it from the garden.

Jane—I don't think this will trouble you, because it isn't over-cooked. Try a little.

Aunt Sally—Well, only a little. Why it's mild, almost sweet, and crisp. I never ate any cabbage like this!

Junior—Mother says she cooks it a Chinese way.

Jane—Yes, you might call it that. All I do is put a tablespoon of fat in a frying pan that has a tight cover, add all my chopped cabbage with a bit of salt, cover it and let it cook 3 or 4 minutes, stir it up, add a little more salt and cook 3 or 4 minutes more, and it's done.

Aunt Sally—But I didn't smell it cooking!

Jane—Of course not. That's because it's not overcooked. It's the overcooking that makes it smell.

Junior—And gosh! what a smell! Over at Bill's the other day.

Bill—Never mind, Junior.

Jane—Besides, Aunt Sally, you know I'm sort of a "bug" on nutrition. This quick-cooked cabbage doesn't lose its vitamins. And I'm careful not to cut it up until I need it—fixing it much beforehand destroys its vitamins. I make my cole slaw just before dinner—not hours ahead of time as some people do.

Junior—Mother says cabbage is as good as oranges for us.

Jane—Yes. Properly prepared, a serving—that's about two thirds of a cup—is as good as an orange.

Bill—I'd rather use home-raised things anyway. It's good to take advantage of our local produce.

John J. McGrath, Jr., who served in the Navy for three years and saw action in the Pacific, has resumed his duties as a motorcycle officer of the Newton Police Department. McGrath served at Midway, Guam and other Pacific islands. He was an outstanding pistol expert before entering the Navy and served as an arms instructor before going overseas.

John J. Regan who was appointed to the reserve force the day before he entered the Army, and was appointed a regular patrolman during his absence, has received his discharge and will assume his duties with the Newton Police Department on Nov. 19. Regan was formerly employed at the Sacred Heart Academy, Centre street, Newton. He served in the Army three years and eight months, and had been overseas three years as a member of the 29th Infantry. He earned four battle stars, the E. T. O. ribbon, the Bronze Arrowhead for the invasion of Normandy and the Purple Heart.

unduly. Also, Charles Slocum is a most modest man and a politician does not get very far if he is TOO modest.

Here is the fact which I dug up. Mattson won by a margin of 3,899 votes, of which only 1,114 came from the North side of the city where he lives and 2,785 votes came from the South side of the city where he does NOT live. What is that old saying about a prophet is not without honor save in his own country?

Boston Election

Mayor Curley won the election partly because the G.O.P. in Boston used less gray matter than they have in many years. I made it my business to check up on many Boston voters as possible and here are a few facts uncovered. Republicans and independents, especially the younger ones, were completely bewildered by the spectacle of prominent Republicans split up between ALL THREE leading candidates. Whose lead should they follow, especially in view of the fact that all three candidates were vulnerable, as the bridge addicts would say? The result was that many did not bother to vote at all and others decided to vote for the man they practically knew would win anyway, namely, King James of S-I fame, Think of it. Former Mayor Nichols and Russell, Godman, backing Curley, of all people, and Henry L. Shattuck, Francis Gray and Mrs. Henry Parkman backing Reilly, on the Kerrigan band-wagon, which got mired in the mud during the closing weeks of the campaign, so had Douglas Lawson, insurance expert and Rep. Stuart Rind, who should have known better.

Another item was this: real estate experts expected that Curley would be able to reduce the tax rate and thus help them pull some of their chestnuts out of the fire. How does Curley plan to do this? Heaven only knows. He has never had much luck along these lines in his other three terms as Mayor. And what happened to Boston's debt during the Curley reign is too horrible to contemplate.

Boston's one hope now is Plan E or some modification of that plan. P.W.C.

Hospital—

Edward J. Sawyer, chairman of the two branches of the Aid's Coffee and Gift Shop, reported on the continued success of the Shop. Mrs. Sawyer asked the members to look over the Shop's wrappings, and gifts of all kinds for all ages before shopping elsewhere, and to place their orders for books for Christmas.

Mrs. Walker reviewed the recent meeting of the Council of Hospital Auxiliaries and the Volunteer Service Bureau of Greater Boston in the nurses' lounge of the hospital with representatives of 22 hospitals present. Mrs. Alexander G. Grant of Dedham, president of the Friends of the Deaconess, as chairman of the Hospital Council, and Miss Evelyn Davis of Boston, director of Volunteer Service, had presided. All of delegates had expressed the real need for the continued service of all volunteers who had served so faithfully in the hospitals of Greater Boston during the war years. Mrs. Stanley Hobbs, chairman of Newton volunteers had spoken particularly of the continued need of all nurse's aides who had trained for this duty. Mrs. Walker's assistants had been Mrs. Oliver Ames Lothrop, Mrs. Edwin F. Gibbs, Miss Maida Flinders, Mrs. Edward W. Pride, Mrs. Ernest P. Rainsback, and Mrs. Bertha B. Tracy, members of the executive board. Many of the delegates had toured the hospital under the guidance of Miss Storey, assistant director of the hospital, and had lunched at the Coffee Shop.

At the close of Tuesday's meeting Mrs. McGill, Mrs. Edward W. Pride and Mrs. Gordon B. Wilkes were hostesses at morning coffee and pourers were Mrs. Sawyer and Mrs. Arthur L. Shaw.

Nutrition—

The Newton Tuberculosis and Health Association formally opened its doors to the community. The desks were covered with a display of teaching materials used in vocational guidance. The Executive Secretary, Mrs. E. Gale Whittemore, was kept busy interpreting the functions of this new health agency. The Massachusetts Tuberculosis League, Inc. loaned the Association a pictorial exhibit of the rehabilitation process of the tuberculosis and his family. This is a voluntary organization entirely supported by the generous friends who purchase Christmas Thanks. The yearly drive opens Thanksgiving week and it is hoped that renewed response will meet this announcement of a Newton Association devoted to its Tubercular Patients.

The Nutrition Center, formerly located at Newton Corner, is already well known in Newton for its work with the District Nursing Association, the Family Service Bureau, Newton Chapter of the Red Cross, Newton Health Department, and the Newton School Department. It is a Red Feather Agency supported by the Newton Community Chest, the Newton Health Department, and the Newton Chapter, American Red Cross.

NEWTON In The Past

55 Years Ago

The beautiful weather of yesterday brought out the open cars, and the travel was so large that tow cars were called for all the afternoon.

The Rev. Alexander T. Bowser was installed pastor of the Newton Centre Unitarian Society Wednesday evening.

The new contagious wards are all plastered and the inside finish is being put up at the Newton Cottage Hospital.

Miss Thurston and about 80 other librarians of the state met in the green room at the State House, Thursday, and formed the Mass. Library Association to which librarians, library assistants and trustees are eligible.

There is still a chance for those who have not yet embraced the privileges of the secret fraternity. The Knights and Ladies of Columbia is the name of a new order, a branch of which is to be established, if possible, in Newtonville.

The 13th anniversary of the Newton Y. M. C. A. was observed in Eliot Hall, Newton, on last Sunday.

50 Years Ago

The unsightly sign boards advertising shoddy, patent medicines, etc., which have so long disgraced the banks of the Charles near Faneuil, have been removed during the past week, as the result of correspondence between Mr. Lawson, the President of the Hunnewell Hill Improvement Society and the Metropolitan Park Commissioners.

The voting was positively dull in this ward Tuesday (Newtonville). The best turnout of voters was in precinct 2, where 364 men and 35 women cast their ballots.

One couple in Newtonville went to the polling place together. After the lady had emerged from the booth, she went to another booth, occupied at the time by her husband, and peered over his shoulder. The warden hastened to the lady and with blushing face, and a slight tremor of voice, assured her that it was against the law. She only smiled and walked away, remarking, "Why, it's all right; he is going to vote against me, anyway."

Mr. C. F. Ford has sold out the dry goods business he was interested in at Watertown to his partner Mr. Ensing, and is associated with his brother in the manufacture of a popular patented temperance beverage.

Waban rejoices that in the next election it will have a polling place of its own. Residents are now obliged to resort to other towns in order to vote.

The Waban school for boys has been obliged to extend its habitation and has acquired the Frederick Collins estate for dormitories. Waban is to be congratulated on the addition of the principal of the school and his charming wife to its society.

It is now stated that the B. & A. will build a stone wall from Centre to Washington streets on the South side of the tracks, owing to the great cost of the land that would be needed for a slope. Possibly another wall will be built on the north side also.

The boom in Newton business property was a long time in coming, but it appears to have arrived at last, and the $75,000 block to be erected on the corner of Centre street and Centre place will be a great addition to the City, and as the buyers are not for their enterprise, they will probably have the new stores ready by the time the railroad begins operations.

The Newton Co-operative bank will be located ere long in new quarters in the Associates building. The offices will be on the second floor and C. H. Tainter, the newsdealer, will occupy the store underneath.

25 Years Ago

Newton did its full share on Tuesday in rolling up the tremendous vote polled for Harding and Coolidge throughout the entire country, giving the Republican candidates for President and Vice President 12,407 votes to 3689 for their principal opponents, Cox and Roosevelt, a plurality of 8718.

The evening schools will open a general high school course, like that given in the day high school, within the next week or two, providing enough pupils (14) register.

Newton Graphic, Nov. 12, 1920. The Newton Chapter of the Red Cross in the Fourth Annual Red Cross Roll Call, which began Armistice Day and goes on until Thanksgiving Day, hopes to enroll 15,000 members at $1.00 each.

The first performance of "The Pioneers" was given by the All-Newton Girl Scouts in Players Hall, West Newton last Saturday afternoon before a large and enthusiastic audience. Each one of the seven Troops now organized in the City had some part of the program and over 160 Scouts took part.

Rev. Rufus H. Dix has recently resigned as pastor of the Newtonville Universalist Church.

Roger Larkin Awarded Prize For Poem

Roger P. Larkin, S. 1-c, USNR, has been awarded third prize of a $25 War Bond in the Writer's War Board Navy Show Contest for a poem entitled "Sleep On."

Mr. Larkin has served in both the European and Pacific theatres, is at present at Okinawa. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Erath, 29 Boylston road, Newton Highlands, Massachusetts.

SLEEP ON
By Roger P. Larkin
Oh, soldier fallen deep in sleep
Forgive us that we cannot understand;
For we have never felt the breath
Of death
Nor seen the mighty vultures pick
The land,
Nor watched the rivers swollen
Bright with blood
That flowed from mortal wounds.
We could not understand.
And so—sleep on, you've earned your rest.

And soldier, may your sleep be
blest;
And may you lose the bitterness you've known
That came so hard to you so young and gay
Who only knew of happiness and home.
And may you somehow lose the painful look
Of hate and calloused thoughts
The war has grown,
And so—sleep on, your sleep is blest.

Russ Refugees
The most difficult political refugee problem following World War I was finding homes for displaced Russians. Between 1917 and 1920, 1,500,000 Russians had left their native country and refused to return. These people were eventually settled more or less permanently in 45 countries throughout the world.

Superior Styling Marks New Buicks

Graceful new streamlining of the hood and fenders and a distinctive new grille advance styling of the 1946 model Buick to the highest peak yet in beauty and hug-the-road stability.

New Buick models on display at Newton Buick Co., 371 Washington street, Newton, are eloquent testimony to Buick's leadership in perfection of airflow. From the massive front end with its wide, solid-looking chrome-plated bumpers on back in smoothly flowing lines to the spacious trunk, the 1946 Buick is a picture of speed and sure-footedness.

The new cars are characterized by long, low appearance accentuated through the use of sweeping airfoil fenders in combination with wide bodies, massive front end treatment, smoothly fitting rear wheel shields and substantially simplified chrome trim. An entirely new grille, with external surfaces of chrome-plated stainless steel, not only adds massive-ness to the front but also provides improved airflow.

The hood, decorated with the distinctive shield-like Buick crest and "aiming ring" radiator ornament, flows smoothly into the fenders giving a unified, solidly powerful appearance. Fender sidecreases have been eliminated to give a true airfoil contour, which is carried to the highest degree in the front fenders. These are extended along the door panel on all models giving such a sweeping effect that even a parked car seems to be in perpetual motion.

The newly-designed bumpers are of the "wrap-around" type, originated by Buick in 1941, to provide full fender protection. The lower front of the rear fender is protected by a stainless steel deflector. Fender shields mold the rear fenders into graceful units, contributing to the overall rear-end contour that continues the streamlining throughout. The wide, low-set trunk back distinguishes the rear of the bodies, eliminating entirely the hump-back effect of the usual trunk-back models.

Veterans' Services' Work Increased

Commissioner Edmund T. Dugan of the Department of Veterans' Services has announced that the Tuesday evening sessions for assisting veterans to fill out applications for the state bonus are being discontinued.

The decision was prompted by the increase in the department's work in the daytime and the dearth of applicants on Tuesday evenings.
While there has been a steady flow of veterans seeking help at the regular hours daily, only two applicants appeared on Tuesday evening of this week.

In addition to the enlargement of the staff of the department, there has been a reorganization.
Norman Mitchell, who has served as investigator and assistant to Commissioner Dugan, has been assigned to the task of contacting employers in quest of employment for returning veterans. Edward J. Theriault, building inspector who served as rationing clerk during the war, has been lent by the Building Department to the Veterans' Services Department and assigned to the task of making photostatic copies of discharge papers for veterans. The increase in this phase of the work has increased to such an extent that

DO YOU WANT TO CONTINUE TO RECEIVE Home Town News?

The committee has voted to terminate the publication of "What's Cookin' in Newton" after the November 22nd issue, when two full years of its existence has been completed.

This step is taken reluctantly, but because so many of you have been discharged, or are on your way home to become civilians again, it has become practically impossible to keep up with the changes of address, and the discontinuance of mailings.

However, in order that you may keep abreast of the news of your city, the W. C. committee has made arrangements with the Newton Graphic to send that paper to you if you request it, without cost.

It is necessary that you fill out and return the form printed here if you want the Graphic. Postal regulations will not permit us to send it unless such a request is made by each individual who wishes to receive it.

peared before the Recess Commission on Post-War Highway Development on October 25 to urge that traffic route 128, the "Circumferential Highway" so called be taken out of Newton. The State Planning Board in 1941 recommended that this route be relocated to by-pass both Newton and Waltham, and it was listed then as one of the projects of paramount importance. The coming of World War II, however, put a stop to new highway work. The present session of the General Court has appropriated or allocated sufficient funds for a considerable program of highway working during the next six years. The Newton representatives from the 4th District asserted that the passage of this route through Newton Highlands and Newtonville Square, past numerous schools and churches constitutes a grave traffic hazard to our city. They further emphasized the fact that this heavy traffic is a detriment to property values in the residential district along the route. They also advised the commission that traffic would be greatly expedited by following the new route, since six traffic lights in Newton and six in Waltham could be thus avoided.
Rep. Rawson also recorded Mayor Goddard and Chief of Police Nicholas Vedeo in favor of the proposal. It is being taken under advisement by the commission.

KIWANIS CLUB HEARS TALK BY REV. CLARKE

The Rev. Arthur B. Clarke, pastor of the North Congregational Church, addressed the Newton Kiwanis Club at its meeting at the Y.M.C.A., yesterday, talking on the subject of "You and Your Boy."

Your boy, according to Mr.
Clarke, might either be your own son or the boy next door. "Fellow travelers along life's way," he said,
"we are shaking hands with tomorrow. Comradeship, friendship, and the practice of the true spirit of brotherhood are necessary to meet the challenge of our modern post-war world.

"To be in the battle tomorrow
we've got to be in there pitching today... and if we give the world the best we have—the best will come back to us."

President-elect William H. Sullivan presented President Benjamin F. Louis a pin for a perfect attendance record of four years.
Leonard Baker also received a pin for perfect attendance during his first year as a Kiwanian. Harold Pillsbury reported that club sales of Victory Bonds were soar-ing. A. Robert Parrish, with a perfect attendance record during his many years as a Kiwanian, won the attendance prize. William Jas-set announced that Kenneth Jackman of the Newton Business Bureau will be next week's speaker.

28. Hope it's because of Jim's being on his way home rather than a wrong understanding. Thanks to E. J. (Pesky) Pescosolido for his recent letter. There's a reply on the way... Thank, also, to Pfc.
Bill Lucey for his letter and clippings from Yokohama, Japan.
Come again, Bill. It seems a long time since they began to sing,
"Good Bye Mama, I'm Off To Yokohama."

Bob Davenport who lived at 25 Park street before he went traveling for Uncle Sam, writes in from the Philippines to say he liked the August 2nd issue of "What's Cookin'." He'd like to see a picture of either the Underwood, Bigelow or the Newton High School, he writes, and inasmuch as our picture taker, George Benham, is still in town, it may be that we can catch up with a picture, tomorrow, so's to feature it in our next and incidentally the issue of "What's Cookin'." Bob probably doesn't remember, being as how he was only a little guy in short pants at the time, but this department lived next door to him on Park street, a long time ago.
As a matter of fact, Bob's father,
Dr. Davenport, treated members of our family, many, many times when they were ailing... Lt.
Gerald Callanan, son of J. Edward Callanan, 197 Tremont street, Newton, took part in the Navy's opening attack on the Japanese base at Veducio in favor of the USS Elyson, preceded the USS Missouri and the rest of the invasion fleet into Tokyo Bay. The eyes of the Jap pilot who guided them in, he said, popped when he saw the manner in which the American forces landed. He was given ice cream, it was well, too much. He had never tasted it before, according to Callanan.

COMING HOME
So many Newton warriors, returned from overseas, are dropping by to say "hello" these days, we're all beginning to wonder if maybe, "What's Cookin's" circulation isn't greater, locally, than it is overseas. It would be a good idea when you have time, to drop the editor a card either to the effect that you are about to return to the states, or that you've arrived home. It will save a lot of wear and tear on the mailing department, the post office employees and the service A.P.O.'s.

We're all caught up with this department's overseas correspondence other than a few letters due to be believed to be on their way home. Everyone here is hoping that John Campbell of the Navy is back in fighting trim again.

Vol. II, No. 25. NEWTON, MASS., U.S.A., NOVEMBER 15, 1945

A Message

from
Most Rev. Richard J. Cushing, D.D.
Archbishop of Boston

It is a new era, and those who served in the late war helped to make it. They are responsible for the Victory that is ours. Some died for it; others were maimed for it; all sacrificed time, talent and opportunity for it. A grateful country must never forget this service.

S-Sgt. Frank Santucci writes that he "actually" ran into his brother on the sidewalks of Manila. "He had just arrived from France the day before," writes Frank, "and at first, I couldn't believe it was Joe until he went wild at the sight of me. You couldn't imagine the scene we put on right in front of a restaurant.
People must have thought we were looking for section 8's until they knew the reason for the commotion."

That's swell readin' and we're all glad for Frank and Joe. We're hoping, too, that they'll meet in front of the all-time rendezvous in Newton Corner before the month is out and that we'll be around, so's to see it.

Thanks, also, to Frank for that letter. It's good to know you enjoy reading the "Merry-Go-Round." Frank. It was always a pleasure writing it up for guys like you.

AROUND TOWN
The mailman just brought in a letter we'd addressed to Sgt. Jim

DR. E. P. LEONARD
COM. CHAIRMAN FOR OPTOMETRIC CONGRESS
Dr. Edwin P. Leonard, Jr., Newton, was chairman of the Steering and Program committees for the annual meeting of the Northeast Optometric Congress held at the Hotel Statler October 21, 22, 23, with optometrists throughout the New England states in attendance.

Nationally known leaders in vision addressed the Congress presented new discussions in Optometric Techniques having bearing on American industries, visual rehabilitation for returning veterans —the technique of near-point optometry, which is visual effectiveness for near-point concentration, and the training of visual skills necessary for the efficiency demanded in industry.

URGENT NEEDS
1) More straight thinking, straight speaking, straight-shooting statesmen, educators and spiritual men.
2) A greater respect for the Ten Commandments as the guide posts of life.

3) More practical application in the lives of individuals, families and nations of the teachings of the Gospels of Christ.

4) More dependence on prayer and less dependence on ourselves, on conferences, on diplomacy.

5) More serious appreciation of God and religion, with the conviction that they do not belong to Sundays alone but to every minute that is allotted to us on the planet of this earth.

6) More genuine recognition of the fact that irrespective of our accidental differences and traits we are all members of the same human family and the test of our love for Almighty God, the Common Father of us all, the Head of that family, is our love for one another.

7) More honest efforts on the part of Capital and Labor to share responsibilities as well as to gather profits. We live to work, we do not work to live.

8) A rebirth of religion in the home and in the school, the college and the church, so that there will be a greater regard for religious standards and values.

In a word, we must now protect ourselves against ourselves. In this atomic age we have the means to destroy whole nations. Our only protection is to be found in a rebirth of spiritual values. This may be our last chance. Let us join hands as children of Almighty God and by respect for eternal verities and love for one another dry up the tears that flood pathways of human life and ward off the potential evils that threaten to destroy us.

Love God and love one another —Then the crooked ways of life will become straight, the dark ways bright, the rough ways safe, smooth, the dangerous ways safe.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN WAS A LAWYER

The American people have learned to trust LAWYERS like Calvin Coolidge and Leverett Saltonstall to handle their affairs. LAWYERS, like Doctors, are better trained to protect you today than ever before. Government and Big Business of all kinds are today relying on LAWYERS in leadership and responsibility more than ever before. CONSULT YOUR LAWYER FIRST and avoid trouble with your property, contracts, wills and taxes.

In one recent case in this County the failure of a wealthy man to have his will drawn by a lawyer cost his widow over $100,000 as the will was completely void, and in another case the failure of a business man to obtain legal advice about a contract cost him over $14,000 more than he expected. Get impartial advice on whether it is wise to tie up your property in rigid long term trusts which will leave your family helpless in case of emergencies or changes which you cannot foresee in which you waive the protection against mismanagement by the trustee which the Courts are ready to provide.

See your LAWYER as freely as you do your Doctor and avoid the worry and delay of costly litigation.

The Newton-Waltham Bank And Trust Company Offers New "Thrifty Check" Service

Beginning Nov. 16, 1945 the Newton-Waltham Bank of Trust Company will offer a new checking service, "Thrifty Check" as the new service is called, is a simplified pay-as-you-go or no-minimum-balance checking account service. In announcing the new service Mr. William W. Cahill, treasurer of the bank stated: "Thrifty Check places the convenience of a checking account within easy reach of everyone. There are no complicated charges per item of deposit, no fixed balance requirements and a person may open an account with a small amount; even as little as one dollar is sufficient to start."

The A Check Only Charge
The entire cost of the service is covered by a charge of 10c per check. There is no monthly service charge and no charge for deposits. The checks are issued to depositors in a handsome leatherette cover containing regulation book of 20 checks.

Customer's Name Printed on Checks
A novel and pleasing feature of this service is the fact that the customer's name is printed on all checks, and delivered within twenty-four hours. This is part of the service and is not an additional charge. Mr. Cahill stated, "Thrifty Check is quite simple in principle and operation — there is no red tape to opening an account — this is usually accomplished within five minutes."

Lasell Junior College

The French Club held its first meeting of the year on Tuesday evening when a musical program was presented.

The Lasell Workshop players produced "Claudia" on the evenings of the 10th and 11th. The members of the cast were Virginia Morse, Reading Mass.; Patricia Luther, New Haven, Conn.; Lucy Clark, Brighton, Mass.; Frances Oden, Mt. Kisco, N. Y.; Sallie Ott, Providence, R. I.

On Friday, Irma Wing Taylor spoke to the students on the Dutch East Indies and Thailand.

The college is to have the pleasure of hearing Commander Donald B. MacMillan lecture on "Greenland, New Empire of the North" on the 20th of November at eight o'clock in Winslow Hall. Friends are welcome to attend.

The Thanksgiving recess will extend from Wednesday, the 21st, to Monday the 26th.

Plan Big Breakfasts

Nutritionists and medical authorities state that breakfast should provide from one-quarter to one-third of the day's total food requirements, not only in calories but so far as possible in protein, carbohydrates, fat, vitamins and minerals.

New Telephone Directories Being Distributed

Approximately 495,000 copies of the 1945-46 issue of the Boston and Vicinity Telephone Directory will be delivered to homes and businesses in the directory area in the period from Thursday, November 8, to about the first of December. The quantity to be delivered is about 14,000 more than last year, reflecting both an increase in telephone customers and in the requirements of large users of service.

Along with the Boston directory will be delivered local directories in the following suburban districts: Chelsea-Revere-Vinthrop; Canton-Dedham-Norwood-Westwood; Brookline; Newton-Wellesley; Bedford-Lexington-Lincoln-Waltham-Water town-Weston. These will total about 120,000.

The area served by the Boston directory is a telephone exchange in and around Boston as shown on a map on Page 3 of the directory. Exclusive of its green cover, the new volume will have 1512 pages, including 825 in the alphabetical directory, 680 in the classified directory and seven devoted to general information. These are 132 more pages than in the gray-covered old directory, whose life of one year comes to an end with delivery of the new one.

The alphabetical listings in the new volume total approximately 396,000, as compared with about 387,000 in the old book. Listing revisions include changes arranged for prior to October 2, 1945.

The delivery force which gets under way on November 8 consists of about 800 persons, including spare-time workers. Part of their job will be to pick up old directories for paper salvage.

ON THE INSIDE

by MARV GOULD

Before over 3500 fans at Gillis Field, Medford, recently Medford Mustang's two touchdowns and one conversion were made in the first quarter of the game. After scoring their 13 points the Medford team literally fell apart and it looked as if it was going to be an easy victory for the Orange and Black. Set back to its 10-yard line due to a penalty halfway in the initial period, Newton attempted a fake punt but the pass from center was so fast it bounced off a back into the open arms of Medford's guard, Joe Morelli, who scooped down the field for the first score. Three minutes later Peter Drennan intercepted a Newton pass on the Newton 42-yard line. After four plays, Phil Richardson plowed 14 yards for paydirt. Cerve then kicked what was to be the deciding point of the game. Early in the second period the Garden City put on an aerial attack that Medford won't forget for some time. Bob MacConnell received a pass from Donnelly on the Mustang 18, Bobby then scooted the remaining distance to tally. The kick by Donnelly was missed. Again, in the final canto, Newton unleashed another aerial offensive to gain a total of 75 yards, the score coming on a completed pass to left halfback, Rod Jennings. Donnelly attempted a place kick which was blocked by a speedy Medford line. With but a minute left in the game Newton took over on the Mustang 14. A Scanlon to Jennings pass was completed for a first down on the Medford 2. Rod tried to plunge through for the score, but failed. The game ended Medford 13, Newton 12. Now wiping the tears from my eyes I will list the officials: Referee, Cronin; Umpire, Kelleher; Field Judge, Wheelan; Linesman, Kelly.

Halloween night, the Newton Student Canteen was used by the youth of the Day Junior High School for their Halloween party. The usual occupants of the canteen moved to the Totem Pole and the music of Barron Hugo. . . . The Fetting brothers, Ken and Frank, had a flat in the Pole's parking lot. None other than the Barron himself aided in repairing the tire. . . . This was the first peace time Halloween for many students of the elementary grades. . . . Newton's youth proved that they could act as ladies and gentlemen even on Halloween eve, as no serious damage was reported. It is the opinion of yours truly that this was true due to the many city sponsored parties throughout Newton. . . . Of course the usual pranks were pulled. Guess I'll never learn not to pick up what appears to be a nice fat wallet, especially when there is a mouse trap in it. Ow, my finger!

The Newton at Brookline game has been changed to Brookline at Newton. However, Brookline will be the home team, they will also have seats in the stadium, and we, from Newton will sit on the visitors side of the field. The change was made as the Brookline field will be "very muddy and without much grass," in other words it is the same as our practice field. Just plain dirt.

The Vulcan's dance at the Sheraton turned out to be as was predicted by your reporter two weeks ago, a great success. Al Balter, President of the Vulcans, made the only speech of the evening. He thanked everyone who was present for coming, and making the dance as great as it was. The profits of the dance will go to charity.

Report cards were issued at N.H.S. last Monday, and several of the students were in remark about certain teachers saying that they were (CENSORED).

Next week's game is Newton at Quincy, and provided that Teschner's leg is healed, we will pick Newton, 13-7. —M.R.G.

The well known Alpha Theta Chapter of Sigma Phi Upsilon Fraternity will present their fifteenth annual Thanksgiving dance at the Newton Centre Women's Club, Thursday, November 22. The dance will feature music by Chappie Arnold and his versatile dance band. Sigma Phi hopes for the same amount of success which they have experienced for years. This year they have "optional dress" printed on their numerous posters in Newton.

Sigma Phi came up from their defeat by a stronger Nu Sigma eleven to a well earned victory over Phi Delta on the gridiron a few weeks ago. Sigma Phi has another football game next Monday and they are looking for a hard fight and a win.

Real Estate

An interesting sale consummated by Alford Bros. was that of the single older-style home at 12 Putnam street, West Newton, for Mr. and Mrs. George F. Falvey to Dr. and Mrs. John Adam Reuling. Alford Bros. were brokers in the sale of the two-family dwelling at 10 Alwood avenue, Newtonville, for Mr. and Mrs. Arthur S. Bernard to Mrs. Emily B. Grant. The same office sold the single frame dwelling at 181 Langley road, Newton Centre for Mrs. Katherine M. Phillips to Mr. George E. Kippen.

Sports in a Nutshell

By Bill Sullivan

Well felled the collegiate gridiron standing has plenty of chills and spills this Saturday. Here are a few of the national big-time college football scores: Notre Dame 6-Navy 6, Army 54-Villanova 6, Yale 6-Dartmouth 0, Columbia 34-Cornell 28, Penn 28-Princeton 0, Temple 20-Lafayette 0, Michigan 26-Mt. St. Mary's 0, Ohio State 16-Northwestern 14, Purdue 28-Pittsburgh 0, Duke 14-Georgia Tech 6, Tulane 14-Mississippi State 13, Tennessee 20-North Carolina 6, Alabama 60-Kentucky 19, Texas A&M 34-Arkansas 0, Texas 12-Southern Methodist 7, Washington State 7-California 7, Washington 7-Oregon 0, St. Mary's 26-Southern California 0, Holy Cross 20-Submarine Base 6.

NAVY, Notre Dame was the day's top-notch and before 82,000 fans, who all but tore the Stadium loose from its moorings, they battled to a featured tie. The tide of the game in the last minute of the game the Irish won two successful passes found themselves perched upon Navy's one-yard stripe. On an attempted buck, Danewicz was halted inches short of the goal line. The Irish smashed at the Navy's forward wall and was stopped, many thought there was time for a sudden Navy's substitutes rushed onto the field accompanied by many naval officers, who were in the game and then much to the surprise of the 82,000 stunned fans the officials called an end to the battle.

From the very beginning of the game when Ruggiero of Notre Dame scored from five yards out over the middle of the field in the fourth period when Clyde Scott intercepted one of Danewicz's passes to scamper 60 yards for the tying touchdown and right down to the last second of play it was a great game with the Irish having a statistical edge but as the saying goes you don't win on statistics.

The top ten teams don't change much because they all won Saturday (with the exception of the Navy-Notre Dame tie) and just review they look like this as far as ratings go: Army, Notre Dame, Navy, Alabama, St. Mary's, Michigan, Ohio State, Columbia, Holy Cross, Pennsylvania.

In the leading scholastic ranks, Newton bowed to Medford 13-12, Brookline 26-Belmont 0, Wakefield 7-Melrose 6, Everett 32-Waltham 7, Brockton 18-Malden 12, Arlington 14-Weymouth 0, Saugus 14-Lynn Classical 12.

Getting back to our own boys they lost a heartbreaker. Medford scored two quick touchdowns and led 13-0 going into the second period but from then on it was all Newton with a passing combination of Scanlon to Jennings that was about the best seen around these parts in a long while. That combination accounted for two Joe Louises.

Pugistically, Boston has a week of action coming up. Monday night two local featherweights, Buddy Hayes and Tommy Moore both of South Boston are going to have it out, with the winner standing a great chance of taking on some "name" fighters at the Al Pretzie of Watertown. Boston's Friday night finds Henry Chemei, Portland, talking on Vic Delicure of N. Y. Delicure appears to have the better of it on paper because of his experience and also record against better class fighters but Chemei is no setup and could easily get the verdict. The victor will no doubt get a crack at Ray "Sugar" Robinson, the uncrowned welterweight king. There is a very strong possibility that Billy Conn will come here soon in an exhibition scrap against Al Pretzie of Watertown. Boston sure will like that as it will give them a chance to size up Billy before his coming June fight with Joe Louis.

HOCKEY
The Bruins had to skate fast and furious to defeat the Montreal Canadiens 6-5 Sunday night. It was the first victory for Boston and the first defeat for Montreal, Chamberlain and Blake each scored a goal in the first period. In the second Bill Cowley sank one for our first goal but Blake pushed another one in to make it 3-1, but in no time Cowley had another clapper fed to Reardon and Terry slipped it over to Bill who sent it skipping into the net for his second goal. Reardon tied it up at 3 all by sinking one on passes from Clapper and Cain.

The Bruins went ahead 4-3 by some fine team work. Cowley passed over to Bert Cain who fed Reardon. Terry in turn sent it back to Herb who shot it into the far corner of the net. Bep Gundo-lin did the same thing on passes from Gallinger and still Cain and Cowley came thru the line again with Herb feeling like a god who coming in fast pulled the hat trick and fooled Durnan for his third goal.

Peters and Lach each scored a goal to bring Montreal's total to five. Chicago beat Toronto 7-4 and Detroit beat the Rangers 4-1. The Olympics started off right by defeating the Rovers in their first two games. They play Washington and Philadelphia Friday and Saturday nights.

10,000 JOYOUS YOUNGSTERS PARTICIPATE IN NEWTON HALLOWEEN CELEBRATION
Newton's fourth annual Halloween Celebration turned out to be the best and biggest ever held in the city. Every one of the 238 separate neighborhood parties proved to be even more successful than the most optimistic committee member had predicted.

Weeks of preparation and tireless effort on the part of the 1400 parents in charge made the programs proceed like clockwork. And the children cooperated beautifully. To be sure, they let loose their high spirits in unrestrained laughter, romping and shouts; but they were so well-behaved that Newton can be very proud of them.

From the latter part of the afternoon, when the kindergarten gathered, until the last note was sounded at the dance for the high school students at the Totem Pole Ballroom, there was not an idle moment. Games, movies, singing, dancing, fortune tellers, magicians, stunts and features galore followed one another in rapid succession. And about a dozen different chambers of horror, made lights at all, provided plenty of chills and shivers. The gleeful shrieks that bounced back from the walls must have been gratifying to the men and women who had let their imaginations run

Red Cross Needs Help For Christmas Activities

Everyone in Newton can help make Christmas a merry one for our Service men and women, according to Mrs. Edward J. Cannon, chairman of Camp and Hospital Council for Newton Red Cross. "Although many boys and girls have returned to civilian life," explained Mrs. Cannon, "there are still thousands in army and navy hospitals throughout the world, and we are looking to the citizens and organizations in Newton to help play Santa Claus for them."

According to the most recent figures, 15,000 gifts will be needed by the Navy, 15,000 by the army, and about 200 by the WACS and WAVES. These gifts should include toilet articles as they are furnished by the hospitals, but anything else should be attractively wrapped and left at the Chapter House, 21 Foster street, Newtonville. Or a phone call to Mrs.

New Store at Newton Highlands

MARLENE, carrying a full line of Cosmetics, Perfumes, Patent Medicines, Compacts and Costume Jewelry, opened last Saturday at 41 A Lincoln street, Newton Highlands. This store is independently owned and is not a part of any chain of stores.

The shop is attractively decorated in pink and aqua accented by sparkling glass shelves and fixtures. Cannon at Bigelow 1634, if gifts are to be picked up. In order to help in making Christmas shopping lists, Mrs. Cannon has specified a few gift items which will be used for filling Christmas bags at the nearby Federal hospitals. They include new playing cards, small boxes of candy, small pictures frames, men's handkerchiefs, after-shave lotion.

REV. WOODROOFE, JR. ACCEPTS CALL OF GRACE CHURCH

Rev. Robert W. Woodroffe, Jr., who has accepted a call to become rector of Grace Church, Newton, will conduct his first service in that church on Thanksgiving Day and will preach his first sermon on November 25.

Mr. Woodroffe is thirty-five years of age. He was graduated from the University of Michigan in 1931 with an A.B. degree, and from the Episcopal Theological School in 1934, with a B.D. degree. He was ordained in 1935 by the Rt.

Rev. Harman Page, D.D., Bishop of Michigan.

In 1934 he accepted a position in Bloomfield Hills, Michigan, as assistant minister in Christ Church, Cranbrook. Here he also served as instructor in sacred studies at Cranbrook school for boys and Kingswood School for Girls.

In February, 1940, he went to St. Bartholomew's Church, New York City, as assistant minister. While there, among other duties, he had charge of their large and active Community Club, an organization largely composed of young married people.

Shortly after Pearl Harbor he enlisted as a Chaplain with the Roosevelt Hospital Unit, serving in Africa, Italy, France and Germany. Bishop Sherrill speaks with great enthusiasm of Mr. Woodroffe's work during his Chaplaincy. After 3½ years he has just returned to this country and his work at St. Bartholomew's.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodroffe have four children, three girls and a boy.

AIRPORT SUGGESTED FOR NEWTON WOULD COST $262,000

New England as a whole, and particularly Massachusetts, will receive more equitable treatment for the allocation of Federal grants in connection with the National Airport Program if recommendations made by Congressman Philip J. Philip (D) of the Third Massachusetts District are passed upon favorably by House and Senate conferees to adjust differences between the Senate and House versions of the air port program.

In a speech on the floor of the House, Philip charged that New England is being discriminated against under the apportionment formula for the granting of Federal funds and urged the conferees to adopt a new formula whereby 60 percent of the matching Federal grant would be allocated on the basis of population and 40 percent on the basis of land area, instead of the 50-50 proposal in both Senate and House bills. Philip cited figures showing that Massachusetts would receive about $15,000 of Federal money more than $50,000,000 under the current formula.

A bill, authorizing the National Airport Program, in which Newton is recommended for a Class 1 airport at an estimated cost of $262,000, passed the Senate early last month while the House authorized the program a week ago. The House and Senate bills differ on several major points, as a result of which conferees have been named to adjust these differences to the satisfaction of both Houses.

Newton is one of 90 Massachusetts communities listed in the National Airport Plan in a report submitted to Congress last November. The local project would be constructed at an estimated cost of $262,000. This total cost is broken down in an estimated $252,000 for preparation of the land, selected as an airport site and $10,000 for miscellaneous expenditures.

The type of airport for Newton is recommended as Class one, and, according to CAA's Plan, no expenditures are recommended at this time for paving, lighting, and the installation of radio equipment.

The estimated cost for the Newton airport does not include the cost of the land nor buildings. The $252,000 listed for preparation of the land included clearing, grubbing, excavating, grading, drainage, surface lighting, and fencing. The $10,000 listed for miscellaneous includes approach clearing, access roads, marking and landscaping. The class and scope of the airport development for Newton was determined by the relative importance of the community as a center of a trading area, its function in the national airport system, and its importance to existing and proposed air routes.

As a Class one airport, the local airport would have landing strips running from 1800 to 2700 feet and would accommodate small private owner type planes. This includes planes up to a gross weight of 4000 pounds. Facilities would include lighting and hangar.

Philip stressed the fact that the CAA's airport plan is tentative and would require annual revision to adjust it to current needs as aviation develops in the post-war period.

Second in Wellesley Concert Series December 6

The Wellesley Concert Series, David Barnett, manager, will present its second concert of the season on Thursday evening, December 6, at Alumnae Hall, when the Budapest String Quartet will give a program of chamber music. The artists who comprise this quartet are: Josef Reisman, first violin; Edgar Ortenberg, second violin; Boris Kroyt, viola, and Mische Schneider, cello. Their program will include Mozart's Quartet in F Major and Beethoven's Quartet in B Flat Major, Op. 130, which are among these composers' best-loved works. The latter will be played in its original form with the thrilling fugue finale. The Quartet will also present a new work by Darius Milhaud, member of the famous French Group of Six. Mr. Milhaud speaks of his quartet as a musical tribute to the French composer, Gabriel Faure, an especially appropriate act of homage in this, Faure's centennial year.

Critical acclaim is in itself not unusual. But the members of the Budapest String Quartet have been everywhere received with an enthusiasm which far surpasses even exceptional praise. Of their concert in Boston last year, the Boston Herald wrote: "If you were at the concert of the Budapest String Quartet yesterday (and it looked as though practically everyone was) you heard what may be precisely described as the best quartet playing of our generation. The Budapest Quartet is, there can be no question about it, without comparison today, among chamber music ensembles. It has virtually everything, from the most extraordinary technical facility to the most musical awareness it is possible to imagine. It is, in short, hardly conceivable to find a single flaw in anything, from its interpretative approach to the music it plays to its singularly felicitous means of expressing itself in perfect technical unanimity." When one reflects that the string quartet is perhaps the most abstract of musical media, akin to the line drawing or the etching in art, the Budapest String Quartet, to receive universally such unstinting praise from critic and concert-goer alike, must make listening to quartets an exciting and eventful experience.

The Concert Series Office is in Ellings Hall, Wellesley College. There are still a few good seats available.

Hamilton School P.T.A.

"Experiences with Psychological Warfare Against Germany" will be the subject of a lecture by Dr. Walter Nathan at the Hamilton School, Grove street, Newton Lower Falls, on Friday evening, November 16. Sponsored by the Parent Teacher Association of the Hamilton School, the lecture is open to the public.

Dr. Nathan, who was born in Germany and educated at the University of Wurzburg, Berlin, and Bonn, was forced to give up his teaching career in Germany when Hitler came to power. With his family he fled to this country. Here he has held teaching positions at Western Maryland University, John Hopkins University, and at Boston University where he was Assistant Professor of German and Fine Arts from 1941 to 1943.

The United States Office of War Information put Dr. Nathan's intimate knowledge of the German people and their attitude to value in 1944 attached to the Psychological Warfare Division, Twelfth Army Group. He was active in England, France, Luxembourg and in Germany conducting one of the daily radio broadcasts originating from the Chief of Psychological Warfare, as well as the E.T.O. ribbon with four battle stars.

He received a citation for "meritorious service... often well up front with foremost elements of combat troops" from Brig. Gen. Robert A. McClure, Chief of Psychological Warfare, as well as the E.T.O. ribbon with four battle stars.

First Aid Instruction Important

"Many people ask whether First Aid is needed?" says Mrs. Clifford O. Mooney. "To quote from recently published figures for the period from Pearl Harbor, December 7, 1941 to June 1, 1945, the answer is obvious. War casualties—total killed, 230,173; civilian casualties—total killed, 335,000—injured, 35,000,000. 516 killed in Massachusetts in 1944."

"The Newton Red Cross is anxious to assist its citizens in helping to reduce the appalling number of accidents," continues Mrs. Mooney. "Learning to avoid accidents, is as important as the aid administered after an accident."

A revised Standard First Aid course starts Tuesday, November 6th at 7:30 p.m. The class will meet at the Newton Red Cross Chapter House, 21 Foster street, Newtonville, and enrollment may be made by calling Lasell 6000.

Land in Alaska

The homesteaded land in Alaska is back in the timber away from established roads. A settler has to build his own road through several miles of timber of muskeg swamp, clear the timber from his land, hire a tractor and breaking plow at the rate of $10 an acre to turn over the brush and moss, and then it will take about three years for the brush and moss to decay.

Do You Know . . .

About half of Massachusetts industries had declined and half had increased in employment by September 15, the first full month after V-J day, as shown by the report just issued by the Division of Statistics, Dept. of Labor and Industries. The net result in total number of wage earners employed was a drop of 11 per cent or about 63,000 jobs compared with July.

Total pay roll dropped 19 per cent or about $4.5 million per week. . . Industries which employed more people in September than in July included makers of bakery products, book binding, paper boxes, women's clothing, confectionery, cotton goods, jewelry, leather, meat packing, paper and wood pulp, paper goods, book and job printing, news printing, silk and rayon goods, textile machinery and woolen and worsted goods. . . 26 per cent of factory wage earners in Massachusetts were still employed on war work in September, compared with 65 per cent in July.

The 1945 population census indicates that the city of Worcester has passed the 200,000 mark, compared with 193,694 in 1940. . .

Nothing Special

By E. F. Haberstroh

No man, says an old proverb, can be hurt by anything he doesn't say.

Never explain. Your friends don't need explanations and your enemies won't believe you, anyway.

Part of Boston's Back Bay is Newton soil. When the B.B. was filled in, some of the "fill" came from Auburndale. Quite naturally, Boston was thereby "improved."

Brain Exerciser: "What 10 cents, adding up to $1.00, will enable you to make any amount of change between 1 and $1.00?"

A panhandler asked a man for a quarter. The man, his eyes twinkling, said, "If you'd been smart and asked for a nickel, instead, you might have got it." And the panhandler snapped: "Suit yourself. Gimme a quarter or gimme a nickel. But don't try to tell me how to run my business!"

Cleverness is often mistaken for ability. A trained seal can bounce a rubber ball on its head; but the lowly pig brings home the bacon.

Back in Colonial days, hereabouts, folks attending regular monthly town meetings got a free dinner. Stay-aways missed the meal and were fined a measure of wine, besides. Thus adding a "fine" touch to the repast for the other diners, no doubt.

Some people are always wishing for the moon, without the least idea what they do with it if they had it.

Quoth the cynic around the corner: the difference between a man and a woman is that a man will pay four dollars for a two-dollar article he wants, while a woman will pay two dollars for a four-dollar article she doesn't want.

And then there's the alert kid next door who asserts that a goldfish is a sardine that has got very rich.

Auto Drivers Warned Against Post War Speeding

Drivers of the nation were warned this week that neither they nor their cars are in shape to indulge in a post-war speed spree without piling up the biggest traffic toll in the country's history.

The warning came from a joint committee on post-war speed control that represents 14 national organizations, official and otherwise, interested in traffic safety.

A report published for the committee by the National Safety Council cites the danger to America's life and limb from uncontrolled speed during the post-war transition period and makes specific recommendations for holding down the traffic toll in the months ahead. "The nation is in no condition," says the committee, "to return suddenly to pre-war speeds. For present average age of passenger cars is more than eight years, as compared with an average age of four and a half years in 1940.

"Many tires have been driven far beyond their normal life. Many streets and highways are in even worse condition than they were in 1940.

To Direct State March of Dimes

Bill Cunningham

Bill Cunningham of Boston has been named Massachusetts State Chairman of the 1946 March of Dimes to be conducted January 11-31 by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, Basil O'Connor, president of the Foundation, announced.

His first newspaper job was with the DALLAS MORNING NEWS. Here, his relentless crusade against the Klu Klux Klan and similar un-American organizations won him wide acclaim. Later, he was a sports writer on the BOSTON POST for 19 years.

In accepting the March of Dimes chairmanship, Mr. Cunningham said:

"In our state alone during the first nine months of this year, 390 cases of infantile paralysis were reported. Fortunately, through the generous contributions of the American people to the March of Dimes, it is possible for the fight against this disease to be continually strengthened and intensified."

Veterans Urged To Retain National Service Insurance

General Omar N. Bradley, Administrator of Veterans' Affairs, today urged all World War II veterans to retain their National Service Life Insurance as it is "the soundest investment you can make for the protection of your families."

General Bradley also emphasized that those veterans who have let their insurance lapse can reinstate it at little expense and trouble.

Though the term insurance now owned by most veterans may be converted to one of three permanent plans—ordinary life, 20-payment life or 30-payment life, the veteran is advised to continue his term insurance until he has definitely established himself and knows how much insurance he can afford to own.

Mushroom Poisoning

Because of the great danger of mistaking poisonous mushrooms for edible ones, no one who has not been trained to identify them with absolute surety should attempt to collect mushrooms for eating. Some contain very violent poisons and symptoms of mushroom poisoning are slow in developing.

The Pomeroy House, Miss Sandstrom said, is engaged in year around activities. Music is taught there every day. Curtain Store Opens In West Newton

Shoppers are invited to drop in and look around. Merchandise is of the best quality and prices are reasonable.

THIS, we reasoned, is no time to offer folks a car that stops with artful face-lifting.

It has been nearly four years since our last new Buick was built—it wouldn't be shooting square now to give you less than our honor-bright best.

We scoured the country for the stoutest metals anyone can buy today.

We set ourselves precisions that in some cases exceed those of aircraft engine production.

And we eagle-eyed every one of this Buick's

The result is that through every stunning inch of this bright new honey runs solid, dependable Buick character, honest and uncompromised.

It's in swift clean lines. In seats that are three-persons wide. In stout, time-defying frames and underpinning. Above all—in the lift and life of a Fireball straight-eight that's even livelier than in 1942.

The cars your Buick dealer will have are big. They're beautiful. They're Buicks.

In fact—the best Buicks yet!

What other car has so much that clicks for Forty-Six!

- POWER—from a Buick Fireball valve-in-head straight-eight engine that gets peak return from every drop of fuel.
- HIGH STYLE—of car-length Airfoil fenders with bolt-on rear wheel shields.
- OIL SAVINGS—from non-sculfing Accurate cylinder bores.
- FLASHING ACTION—of light, lively Fifteenweight pistons.
- STEADINESS—from full-length torque-tube drive in a sealed chassis.
- GLIDING RIDE—from Panther-gait all-coil springing with one comfort job to do.
- COMFORT—of soft Foamtex cushions with luxury-type springs.
- SURE FOOTING—of Broadrim wheels; maximum tire mileage, no heel-over on curves, and better car control.
- CONTROL—through Permi-firm steering which eliminates need for frequent adjustments.
- CONVENIENCE—of high-coverage StepOn parking brake that sets with a toe-touch and holds fast.
- PROTECTION—of buttressed front and rear bumpers, curved to shield fenders, built for new bumper jack.
- SMARTNESS—of genuine Body by Fisher with one-piece Turret Top, No Draft Ventilation, roomy interiors and three-person seats.

When better automobiles are built BUICK will build them

Aleppo College Head To Speak At Harvest Supper

The conventional picture of a college president as either a dignified figure in cap and gown or a kindly Mr. Chips seated leisurely before an orderly desk does not fit Alford Carleton, Ph.D., young Congregational educator who heads up Aleppo College, one of the chief educational institutions of North Syria. Dr. Carleton will speak at the Harvest Supper of The First Church in Newton, Newton Centre, on Thursday, November 29.

When travel was restricted in Syria during the recent war, Dr. Carleton got from one place to another by volunteering to drive a three-ton American Red Cross truck for the sake of getting transportation to his desired destination. At a formal dinner on the occasion of a visit from the British Ambassador to Aleppo he sat with a French officer on one side and a Syrian Governor on the other, while he served as interpreter between the Governor and the officer who spoke only French and the wife of the British Ambassador who spoke English. Dr. Carleton speaks French and Arabic.

Dr. Carleton has found that being President of such a growing institution is a growing experience. (Continued on Page 5)

The Rev. Randolph S. Merrill, chairman of the committee which has carried on the preparatory arrangements, was elected temporary chairman of the Council and the Rev. John DeWolf Perry Jr., temporary secretary. The chairman was instructed to appoint a nominating committee of five members to bring in nominations for officers and departmental chairmen at the next meeting, which is to be held on January 14, 1946. It was voted that the following departments be established: community worship, Christian education, young people's work, every member canvass, social service, international relations, and publicity. The heads of these departments, together with the president, two vice-presidents, secretary, treasurer, the presidents of the Newton Ministers Association and the Newton Council of Church Women, will constitute the executive committee.

Give Thanks For Victory

The Victory Loan Drive should rightfully be termed the "Thanksgiving Loan Drive." Not only because Thanksgiving Day comes during the period of the drive, but to give the campaign a real impetus by developing an awareness and appreciation of just what it means and represents.

Thanksgiving for Victory—Thanksgiving for the fact that we can realize now just what Victory will mean in so many different ways—Thanksgiving that we have supported seven War Loan Drives, and have generously oversubscribed each one.

Our thanks can best be expressed by going all out to put every idle nickel into this drive and demonstrate to the rest of the world our Thanksgiving for all events of the past four years that brought us to this victory.

This is the last—Give it all you have and more. If you have done your "share" in preceding war loans—do more than your share this time. Let's go overboard for the last one. More than you can afford. Let's wind up this drive in a blaze of glory—For ourselves—For everybody—For our own satisfaction in years to come—For Thanksgiving.

Woodroffe—

Captain Woodroffe, U. S. Army, has recently returned from active service as a Chaplain with the Roosevelt Hospital Unit serving in Africa, Italy, France and Germany. Prior to entering the service Mr. Woodroffe was Assistant Minister at St. Bartholomew's Church, New York City and was called to Newton from that post.

He graduated from the University of Michigan in 1931 and from the Episcopal Theological School in Cambridge three years later. He was ordained in 1935 by the Right Reverend Herman Page, D.D., Bishop of Michigan, and shortly thereafter accepted his first charge as Assistant Minister in Christ Church, Cranbrook, Michigan.

The Reverend and Mrs. Woodroffe and their four children have taken up residence in Grace Church Rectory.

Friendship Guild

Supper Meeting

The Friendship Guild of Second Church, West Newton, will have their November meeting Tuesday evening, Nov. 27. Supper will be served promptly at 6:30. Natural color pictures of the amazing scenes encountered by the Thaw-Asia caravan on its unusual 22,000 mile motor journey from Paris to Bombay will be shown.

Members are asked to take one wrapped, discarded toy, in good condition, for a "Treasure Chest of Toys" which will be sent to the poor Greek children for Christmas.

Demands on the Hospital for service have grown at such a rate, they were told by the Fund Chairman, Dr. Nelson D. King, of Cambridge, that increased capacity is an immediate need. New building operations will be started, he said, as soon as justified by the early response to the appeal.

Those present from Newton Auxiliary included Mrs. Ernest A. Marcoux, 34 Eldridge street, Newton, recording secretary of the Women's Association.

Politics With Color

(The opinions expressed in this column are the writer's own, and do not necessarily reflect the views or policy of this newspaper.—Editor's Note.)

Bradford vs. Lodge

There was a very interesting news item in the Boston Herald on Nov. 20. It referred to a meeting of the Norfolk County Republican Club held in Walpole, addressed by Lt.-Gov. Bradford and attended by former U. S. Senator Henry Cabot Lodge of Beverly (Essex County). What intrigued your columnist very much was the fact that Willis D. McLean, who introduced Lodge to the audience, without calling on him to speak, did the honors for Bradford and alluded to him as "the next Governor of Massachusetts." I am wondering how some of the admirers of former Senator Lodge felt about that.

Now to the point. If the Republicans wish to stick their heads in the sand and ignore what goes on above ground, that, of course, is their privilege. However, it seems to me that it would be smart for all G.O.P. leaders to get together in the near future and discuss ways and means of heading off a possible Bradford-Lodge contest for the G.O.P. nomination for Governor in the fall of 1946. Do you consider that idea far-fetched? Very well. Why do you suppose that that master-strategist of them all, Thomas W. White of Newton, former Senator Lodge's key secretary, made a state-wide tour not many weeks ago? I took the trouble to talk to this amiable gentleman a few days ago and my little fishing expedition got me precisely nowhere. I didn't even catch a dog-fish. The state-wide tour, it seems, was purely personal. Well, well!

Why do I open up this interesting question now? Here is my reason. Ever since Gov. Tobin crushed Horace Cahill in the gubernatorial contest a year ago, the latter's followers (and they are many) have been smarting under the sting of unexpected defeat. Cahill's friends still insist that certain G.O.P. leaders allowed Cahill to sink or swim. They go further. They even suggest that there were some who secretly hoped that Cahill would sink. Consequently, when some of these men get together and contemplate the possibility that Bob Bradford, like Cahill, may also get an uncontested nomination, they cogitate among themselves friendly under what some of the big-shots will do in 1946. Something seems to tell them that Bradford will be supported from start to finish and that he will not be allowed to flounder around and make a lot of costly mistakes.

Very well. Consider, now, the fact that Henry Cabot Lodge is once more back in civilian life and has that old urge to hold public office. What can he do? Senator Walsh comes up for re-election in the fall of 1946. Remember, however, that Walsh and Lodge have always been extremely friendly. Despite the fact that they belong to different parties. This situation goes back to the days when Walsh first came to the Senate and the present Lodge's grandfather went out of his way to be helpful to David I. Walsh. Our Senior Senator has never forgotten those days and he has been quite kind to young Henry Cabot Lodge. The latter is not unmindful of all this. Do you begin to see what I am driving at? Many shrewd observers will bet you real money that Lodge will NEVER oppose Walsh. Of course, if Walsh should decide to retire next year, that would be another matter. Lodge could presumably have the G.O.P. nomination for the U. S. Senate without any opposition whatsoever. Furthermore, with Walsh out of the way, Lodge should be able to defeat any other Democrat without undue difficulty. Let us suppose, however, that Senator Walsh decides to have one more term, as indeed he is expected to at the moment. What happens to Lodge? Unless he marks time and stays on the sidelines—a most unlikely procedure for him—he must run for some important office. Why not the Governorship? Is he not a veteran of World War 2 with a fine overseas record? Did he not retire from the U. S. Senate in order to serve his country in its hour of need? Does Bradford have a greater claim on the voters than Lodge? Underneath it all, Lodge would be counting on substantial support from the disappointed Cahill followers.

One last thought. IF there should be a Bradford-Lodge con-

Dining With Jane and Bill

Junior—Boy, are these brownies good!
Bill—Pass me the cookie jar, Junior, I'm hungry, too.
Jane—Hey, you two. No more than one piece. I'm going to those cookies soon.

Bill—Can them? That's a new one on me. Why are you going to do that?
Jane—Haven't you heard about "Gifts in Tin"? I'm going to put those brownies in a tin can and ship them overseas to young Jim.

Junior—That's what you think. By the time Cousin Jim gets them over in Japan, they'll be all crumbs, just like last time.
Jane—Oh, but it's different now. I can pack the cookies tight in a tin can and they'll arrive in one piece.

Bill—Where are you going to do this? I thought you needed a special sealing machine for tin cans.
Jane—That's right, you do. The Red Cross, here in Newton, has the tin cans and the sealing machine, too. All I do is take my food down to the Chapter House, where they show me how to pack and seal it. Then—presto!—a gift in a tin can ready to send to Jim.

Bill—That's a good idea. There are still a lot of boys overseas who want homemade cookies. How about other foods? Are cookies the only thing you can send?
Jane—You can send anything that will keep in ordinary packages. I'm going to fill one can with peanut butter and another with Jordan almonds. Those are Jim's favorites. Any kind of cake, cookies, or candy is all right. Mrs. Brown even sent some coffee last month.

Bill—Junior, Mother said just one.
Junior—Oh, gee whiz!
Bill—You'd better can those soon. There won't be any left.

Jane—Well, Thursday, November 29, is the day. I'm going down to the Chapter House in Newtonville about two in the afternoon. They're going to be open until four, but I want to get there early to get more done.

NOTE: Anyone in Newton is welcome to bring their food to can at the Red Cross Chapter House. The boys overseas appreciate homemade sweets, or special foods they can't get over there. Call the Chapter House, Lasell 6000, to let them know how many cans you'll need.

Sgt. Van Wart Killed in Action

Sgt. Paul H. Van Wart, 23, son of Mrs. Abigail F. Van Wart, of 239 Central street, Auburndale, and the late Harry A. Van Wart, formerly reported as missing in action since May 30, 1942, has been officially reported by the War Department as having been killed in action.

Sgt. Van Wart, an armorer-gunner on a Mitchell Bomber attached to the 14th Air Force, failed to return from a raid over Sincheng, China, when his plane crashed up.

He was graduated from the Newton High School in 1940 where he was a track letterman and was attending Boston College when he entered the Army Air Forces on February 26, 1943.

test in the Republican primary it would be exceedingly bitter and it would leave scars of such magnitude that the G.O.P. might well lose its excellent chance to redeem the Governorship. May I respectfully call that fact to the attention of those who are, even now, planning how to side-track Lt.-Gov. Bradford in the fall of 1946. Let Bradford have a crack at the Governorship and let Lodge wait until there is a chance to go back to the Senate or—possibly, run for Vice-President of the United States in 1948.

Weekly Quiz

Owing to our recent election, it has been necessary to postpone my weekly quiz, which last appeared on Oct. 25. We now continue this feature and give you the answer to the last quiz.

The lowest tax-rate in Newton since 1900 was in that year, when the rate was $15.20. The highest rate was in 1938 and again in 1939, when it was $30.20. This week's question is: "How many members are there in the lower branch of Congress, the House of Representatives? What is the division between parties? (How many Republicans, Democrats, Independents, etc.)"

Mrs. Gersh Speaks At Family Service Bureau Meeting

Mrs. Edith Day Gersh of New York City, Field Representative of Family Welfare Association of America gave a comprehensive talk on functions of her national organization at the recent meeting of the Board of Directors and members of the Family Service Bureau of Newton at the headquarters of the Bureau in Newtonville.

The meeting was one of two evening meetings held during the year to accommodate those unable to attend the usual late afternoon monthly meetings of the Board.

Mrs. Gersh pointed out the comparatively recent organization of social agencies, stating that the welfare movement in this country began in Buffalo in 1870 with organized charities, and only as recently as in 1910, 58 social agencies started the present national association.

The 56-year-old Family Service Bureau of Newton, Mrs. Gersh said, has been a member of the association for many years. She stated that there are now 228 agencies in U. S. and 5 in Canada. To show how Massachusetts ranks, we have 20 agencies—more than all the other New England states combined. There are but 24 agencies in New York State.

The National Association acts as a clearing house for information on the practices and procedures of its agency members and conducts an Institute each year for the improvement and education of case workers. Many other functions of the association aid in helping to establish and maintain high standards for social agencies, such as the publishing of books and periodicals and having field representatives visit member agencies and counsel with them.

Concannon, Mrs. William Waterfall, Mrs. George E. Wrye, Mrs. Joseph Wogan and Mrs. George T. Winchester.

Members of the Hospital Personnel present were Dr. Walter C. Teufel, Commanding Officer of the Hospital, Dr. William A. Regis, head of the Division of Physical Medicine, Miss Minnie Goodwin, Chief Nurse, Miss Marjorie Roberts, Chief Dietician, Mrs. Helen Welch, Librarian, and Mrs. Katherine Higgins, head of Social Service.

Mrs. Gordon Pinkham has been appointed new Chairman of the unit.

Hunnewell Club Activities

Members, families and guests enjoyed a most entertaining program on Amateur Nite, Friday, November 16. The club auditorium was filled to capacity and all were agreeably surprised by the talent and entertaining abilities of the various performers.

In spite of the help of an applause meter, it was difficult to determine the most popular act. The applause meter showed maximum readings several times during the evening. Finally it was decided that the two acts—The Hunnewell Historian, played by Lucille Cutler, and Barber Shop Cord with Ralph Angier, Everett Olds, Carlos Pierce, Carl Gurshin and Walter Tibbitts—tied for first place. Piano and Banjo Harmony, by Carl Gurshin and Walter Tibbitts, and Piano Specialties, by Ann and Howard Rich, tied for second place, while the third prize went to Leonora and George M. Shannon. Edward F. McAllister was excellent as Master of Ceremonies.

The committee, consisting of Charles Dearborn, Ralph Angier, Roger Congdon and Earl Mitchell and the various members co-operating, deserves much credit for this successful affair.

The next social event is an informal dance for the teen age set. This dance will be held in the Club Lounge Saturday afternoon, November 24. A committee headed by Mrs. Everett Olds is making arrangements for an enjoyable party.

A mixed bridge party for members and guests is scheduled for Wednesday evening, November 28. Mrs. A. F. Rosene is the hostess of this function. On this same evening, the men's bowling team will meet team from Waban Country Club in regular Newton League match on club alleys. The Hunnewell team has recently been strengthened by return of Dwight Colburn.

Zonta Club of Newton

The Newton Zonta Club met Monday evening November 19th at the home of Alice Dosey and Bertha Dudley. The meeting was called to order at eight o'clock.

Donations were collected from the members to be distributed among those not able to have the Thanksgiving goodies to which the children especially look forward. The program was most interesting, presented by Mr. Herbert H. Hosmer Jr. of the Fessenden School assisted by Mrs. Ralph C. Gray.

Mr. Hosmer entertained us with "The Puppets of Toy-covered Theatre" of South Lancaster. His repertoire is original and extensive. Among the scenes are "Hand Puppets in Bluebeard and his Wives" or "The Adventures of an Inquisitive Wife."

For adults — "Tom Sawyer," "Punch and Judy," "Aladdin and the Wonderful Lamp" Xmas Play—"In Sweet Hay."

For children — "Little Black Sambo," "Three Little Pigs," "Goldilocks and the three Bears," "Red Riding Hood."

Mr. Hosmer's programs are jolly and extremely entertaining to old and young, as well as instructive and original. The Zontians were fortunate in securing his services.

Bertha Putney Dudley, Chairman of Publicity.

A SHOP OF PROFESSIONAL SERVICE

"It's nice of you to want to help"

Of course, it's mainly up to the telephone company to see that you get good service. That's what we're in business for. But, in these days, when our switchboards and operators are so very busy, we sure do appreciate the friendly courtesy of people who want to do all they can to help get better service — for themselves and every one. Here are a few helpful habits in using your telephone:

1 LOOK UP THE NUMBER — Wrong numbers waste your time and tie up telephone facilities.

2 PLAN WHAT YOU'RE GOING TO SAY — You save your own time, and other people's, too, by planning your conversations in advance.

3 SPEAK CLEARLY — Use your normal tone of voice, speaking directly into the mouthpiece.

4 ANSWER PROMPTLY — Every one saves time and annoyance when telephones are answered promptly; it's a courtesy we all appreciate.

Why should I plan to Switch to Electric Cooking?

Are you interested in serving more nutritious meals to your family in the future?

- With more ease and speed than you have ever known before?
- In cool, comfortable surroundings?
- And with economy?

We believe homemakers will answer YES! Here are some reasons why we recommend ELECTRIC cooking for your consideration.

You'll be able to buy a new improved electric range like this soon!

ELECTRIC COOKING IS CLEAN: Electric heat is sootless heat. Pans stay bright. Walls, windows and curtains stay clean.

HEALTHFUL: Precious vitamins and natural food juices are preserved when you cook electrically - more nutrition for your family.

COOL: Electric range ovens are thoroughly insulated. Surface units transfer heat directly to the utensils with minimum loss of heat.

SAFE: An electric range is as safe as electric light. The insulated oven keeps the exterior cool.

EASILY CONTROLLED: The same switch setting provides the same cooking temperature every time.

ECONOMICAL: Heat is accurately measured and controlled by the switch - and you can cook on "stored" heat a large percentage of the time.

FAST: Electric heat is instantaneously available and cooks as fast as food will cook.

EXACT: Electric heat on a given speed never varies. Precision-built oven thermostat insures accurately controlled temperature.

by MARV GOULD

Last Saturday, November 17, before some 8,000 fans at Dickinson Memorial Stadium, Newton, a Waltham High eleven led by Captain Ernie Zeno won a hard fought battle over Newton by a score of 13-6. The entire first half of the game it looked as if it was going to be an easy victory for Newton even though they did not have what is commonly termed as "the breaks." As the half ended Newton had possession of the ball on the Waltham 1-foot line with a first down. That was "bad break" number one. In the third canto of the game, Waltham advanced to the Newton 15-yard line on a pass from Stump to Roy. Zeno took the ball on the next play and was roughed up by Newton's back Tinker Connelly. That gave the "Watchmakers" an additional 15 yards via an "unnecessary roughness" penalty, putting the ball on the Newton one with a first down. Ernie Zeno then pranced across the end zone on the next play. Waltham scored again in the third period on a fumble by their own back Stump, the pigskin rolled across the goal line where it was recovered by Left Guard Will Creonte to score the second touchdown of the game for Waltham. Zeno then bucked the line by a quarterback sneak to score the extra point, thus putting the Watchmakers ahead 13-0. After a series of passes by Gig Wales, Rod Jennings, and Tinker Connelly, Newton had the ball on the Waltham 5, where the Garden City fullback, Tony Esposito, plunged ahead for the only Newton score of the day. It is the opinion of this reporter that Newton lost not because they were outplayed but because they didn't have the "breaks." Newton had a total of 45 yards lost in penalties while Waltham lost only 5. Not a single Waltham man was injured while Newton had three of its ace players carried off the field. Tinker Connelly, sprained his left ankle. Arvin "Jim" Taschner with an injured left knee. Bobby Scanlon with a back injury. Incidentally, Newton's star fullback, Freddie DeAngelis was handicapped throughout the entire first half as the strap that holds on his nose guard was broken in the first play of the game. He played the second chapter wearing his practice helmet. The officials were: Referee, Ed Brooks; Umpire, Jim Liston; Linesman, Ted Duffy; Field Judge, Joe Cogan.

Next week it's Brookline at Newton, the traditional gridiron event of the season. Brookline claims that they will win as they have Hal Mofie, but I claim Newton will, as they have not one star but several as, DeAngelis, Wales, Scanlon, Bribbleton, Macconnell, Jennings, Wiper, Connelly, and several others too numerous to mention. We will again pick Newton to win. —M.R.G.

Rotary Club

Thomas H. Mahoney, official consultant to the American Delegation at San Francisco, was the speaker at the meeting of the Newton Rotary Club last Friday, at the Brae Burn Country Club.

Mr. Mahoney is a resident of Newton and Past President of the Massachusetts Law Society. His talk was on "The Atomic Bomb in its relation to International Peace." Pointing out the terrific power of the bomb he stated that 10 planes each with a bomb over as many cities could result in the death of 40 million persons. Up to February 1, 1945 he said 250,000 civilians had been killed in Europe from bombings, but in the two Japanese cities struck by the atomic bombs 171,000 were dead and missing in the space of minutes.

The various opinions as to what should be done about the atom bomb, such as keeping the secret here — becoming isolationists — arming to the teeth, or giving the secret to a general assembly of United Nations or to the Security Council alone will not suffice, Mr. Mahoney stated.

"So long as nations insist on unlimited sovereignty, that is, the right of a nation without reference to right or wrong or recourse to courts to determine if its interests are affected, there can be no control of weapons of war," he maintained.

"Yet there is no military defense against the atomic bomb. What to do about it? It is a fact that we live in peace under all levels of laws, in community, town, city, state and nation. Yet, internationally we fail. Thus, organize our international control, under which we've always had wars, on a higher step. Nations must have trust in it, not suspicion. It is up to the United States to take the lead, the Russians and other great powers will follow. There should be in this World Federation no control of tariffs or immigration, but solely power with reference to international disputes and weapons of war. The right should be given to this federation to go into any state to inspect and prohibit anyone from misuse of atomic power in a military sense.

"We haven't 20 or 30 years to perfect the United Nations. It must be done in a much shorter time. Individuals can help the movement for a world federation by discussing the subject with their neighbors and by attending public meetings on the subject. A way to increase our knowledge on the subject is to attend the lecture to be given by Prof. Kirtley Mather on Dec. 14, on "Science and the Atomic Bomb."

institution requires proficiency in an amazing variety of lines. Circumstances sometimes make it necessary for him to be a teacher; a good business man; a shrewd purchasing agent; a construction engineer; an electrician in time of need; a specialist in water and sewer systems; a landscape artist; an accountant; a medical adviser; a Scoutmaster, and so on ad infinitum. Outside academic halls Dr. Carleton often finds himself the representative of the College before the Government.

That he has been exceedingly successful in his multifarious duties is proved by the college itself. A very touching tribute came from a large group of representative citizens of Aleppo who presented him with a rug and a letter of deep appreciation for what he has done. It said in part: "There are hundreds of people today in Aleppo who, having come to you in the time of their greatest trouble, have found relief. They are Christians, Mohammedans and Jews. They are poor, helpless old people. They are rich, influential people of the highest positions in government and society. They are former students. They are church members, or perfect strangers to both school and church. All these people of different grades, classes and race feel most grateful to you for the help and comfort they have received from you in their moments of difficulty."

Dr. Carleton began his work in the Near East under the American Board in Turkey where he was on the staff of the American College in Tarsus. He was born in Iowa and educated at Oberlin and Hartford Seminary. He first went out in 1924 as a tutor. Five years later he was given full appointment as a career missionary. He met his wife, Mary Cashman, while both he and she were working as single missionaries in the Near East.

Y.M.C.A. Notes

Forty boys were on hand last Saturday morning to take part in the bowling tournaments at the Newton YMCA. This is becoming one of the more popular hobbies of the "Y" members and some very good scores have been turned in so far. In the Junior League, the high honors for single games go to Gerard Cullen—76, Bob Mease—73, and Larry Antonellis—70. Cullen also holds top place for the best two games with 135, Larry Antonellis second with 132, and Bob Mease third with 126. Two of these same boys have been the consistently highest, for honors for the best averages go to Cullen who has 62 3/4, Mease with 60 1/2, and Bob Varteresian with 58.

Competition seems to be keener in the Junior High League, for the honors are divided up among a large number of boys. For the highest single game we take our hats off to Stuary Nelly's 95, to Dick McArille's 93, and Dave Keller's 91. For the best two games, McArille 170, Keller 165, and Roy Fogelgren 161. Junior High best averages are Roy Fogelgren 73 1/2, John Amendola 68 1-3, and Kenneth McKean 67 2-3.

All boys who are interested in bowling should be on hand at the "Y" by 9:00 a.m. Saturday morning.

Twenty-five Indians met in the Auditorium on Saturday morning were a judge of the tremendous interest in the speaker and his presentation, then this meeting certainly rated "A plus."

Conference—

After the invocation, delivered by the Rev. Luther Morris, Mrs. Arthur C. Cornill, Twelfth District Director, in charge of the all day sessions, introduced the President of the hostess club, Miss Madeleine Kynoch, who welcomed the visiting clubs.

Principal speaker at the morning session was Mrs. Edwin F. Troland, President of the State Federation, who brought greetings and later, as general chairman of the "Youth Conservation" division (which is one of the major interests of the Mass. State Federation at this time), presided over a "Round Table" discussion, at which it was decided that an active advisory council would co-operate with the "Problems of Youth Conservation" program to establish a definite health, educational and recreational program, not only in the schools but in the home, not only for the child but for the parent.

Other speakers at the morning session were Mrs. Walter E. Boyd of Hudson, Regional Vice-Chairman of Youth Conservation; Mrs. Daniel MacKee of Boston, chairman of American Home; Mrs. Edward J. Hickox of Springfield, chairman of Education; Mrs. Charles C. Ross, also of Springfield, chairman of Mother Craft; Mrs. Ernest A. Hale of Waban, chairman of Music; Mrs. Howard T. Spaulding of Woburn, chairman of Public Health; Mrs. George A. Ellis Jr. of Braintree, chairman of senior sponsors of Junior membership; and Mrs. Thomas McConnell of Northampton, chairman of Social Welfare.

Seated at the head table with Mrs. Arthur Cornill, Twelfth District Director, were the above chairmen, also Miss Madeleine W. Kynoch, President of the Hostess Club; Mrs. Gilbert W. Rich, Fifth District Director; Mrs. Herbert J. Ham, Twelfth District Publicity chairman; Miss Adelaide B. Ball, President of the Newton Federation of Women's Clubs; Mrs. Alfred Skinner, Needham.

"The World Today," was the subject of a talk by Mr. Streeter Stutz, Faculty member of Boston University and connected with WBZ Broadcasting Station. Mr. Stuart said that "Unrest in the World to-day," pointed the way for a world organization with a central power, to settle national problems.

Christmas bags were shown and other projects for disabled veterans were outlined by Mrs. Carl Floyd, and there was an exhibition of projects and prizes of the Quinshippa Club's Art Committee, Mrs. Cecil A. Ashley, chairman.

Mrs. Ernest A. Hale gave a brief talk on the work of the Federation's Music Division, its recreational and rehabilitation activities for veterans and service hospitals, and stressed the need of adding the letter "M" to the three R's, "reading and riting and rithmatic" in the "Youth Conservation Program." Mrs. Hale then added to the pleasure of the afternoon by presenting a program of music by the following soloists: Mrs. Fletcher P. Osgood, soprano; Mrs. C. Hassler Capron, contralto; and Mrs. S. Schoonmaker, accompanist.

for a tribe meeting. These Indians are not the savages that once roved this section of Massachusetts, but the Navajo Tribe of the Gra-Y Friendly Indians. The tribe is made up of any "Y" member, 8 or 9 years old who "Loves the Great Spirit, who is doing his best to build himself in body, mind and spirit so that he will be ready and happy to serve whenever the opportunity is offered." After the meeting games were played.

Aldermen Hold Hearing On Renewal Of Bus Contract

A hearing was held before the Board of Aldermen Monday night on the application of the Middlesex & Boston Street Railway for renewal of their bus contract service which expires on Dec. 31, 1945.

A letter was read from Mr. Sinclair Williams of Newton Centre in which he suggested that 20 minute bus service between Newton Centre Square and Cleveland Circle be given by the company instead of the present half hour service. At the present time, he said, it is not uncommon for the buses to arrive at the junction of Centre and Beacon streets so loaded with passengers that it is impossible to secure seats; and in many instances the buses run express from Newton Centre Square to Cleveland Circle because of inability to take on even one additional passenger, leaving would-be riders standing at several white posts between Newton Centre and Cleveland Circle for an extra half hour. A 20-minute service he felt would probably solve this problem.

Mr. Williams also stated in his letter that the Oak Hill-Newton Corner bus should be obliged to give out transfers to connecting lines of the Middlesex & Boston system, just as other lines of the company do. Passengers getting a Newton Corner bound bus he stated are not now able to transfer at Newton Corner to any Waltham, Waverley, Lower Falls or Nonantum bus. He also felt that the company should be obligated to give transfers from any point on its lines to the Boston Elevated system. Now he said one is obliged to pay an extra fare after riding on a transfer if his destination is beyond the transfer point, as in going from Newton Centre to the north part of Waltham, the transfer now given only taking a passenger as far as Waltham (Central Square). From that point to his destination on a Lexington bus, an extra fare is required. To remedy this he suggested that a passenger be given sufficient transfer privileges to enable him to go from any one point in Newton to any point, either within the Newtons, or to any point within an adjoining city.

He also recommended that a zone be provided which would enable a person to ride from any point within the city to any other point within a mile distance from his starting point, for a 5 cent fare provided a transfer is not required to go the distance mentioned.

Former alderman John Temperley who was present at the meeting also recommended that transfers be given from any point on the M. & B. lines to other points on their lines.

The Middlesex & Boston argued that as Newton Corner is a terminal point they cannot give trans-

ABRAHAM LINCOLN WAS A LAWYER

The American people have learned to trust LAWYERS like Calvin Coolidge and Leverett Saltonstall to handle their affairs. LAWYERS, like Doctors, are better trained to protect you today than ever before. Government and Big Business of all kinds are today relying on LAWYERS in leadership and responsibility more than ever before. CONSULT YOUR LAWYER FIRST and avoid trouble with your property, contracts, wills and taxes.

In one recent case in this County the failure of a wealthy man to have his will drawn by a lawyer cost his widow over $100,000 as the will was completely void, and in another case the failure of a business man to obtain legal advice about a contract cost him over $14,000 more than he expected. Get impartial advice on whether it is wise to tie up your property in rigid long term trusts which will leave your family helpless in case of emergencies or changes which you cannot foresee in which you waive the protection against mismanagement by the trustee which the Courts are ready to provide.

See your LAWYER as freely as you do your Doctor and avoid the worry and delay of costly litigation.

NEW BUSES WILL HELP . . .

Since early in 1942 the Boston Elevated Railway has been placing orders for new buses. In that period, 105 new buses have been received and are in operation. Today the "El" still has on order 184 new buses.

In the next six months, however, we can expect delivery of only 87 new buses out of this total of 184. Until the Elevated receives these 184 new buses, the operation of our 65 main bus routes will, of necessity, continue to be handicapped.

But, these 87 new, modern buses will help. They will bring new convenience to "El" riders who have cheerfully put up with the shortages and restrictions of wartime years.

The "El" thanks its riders for their understanding of existing reconversion problems and asks for their continued co-operation in the railway's efforts to give good service in Metropolitan Boston.

CLINICAL BACTERIOLOGISTS in the laboratory at Newton-Wellesley Hospital make careful tests of blood specimens to identify bacteria. This important work is of great value in determining the treatment to be given patients.

Odd Objects Aid in Guarding Health At Newton-Wellesley Hospital

Seaweed, mice and pressure-cookers all play a part in helping the doctors and technicians of the Newton-Wellesley Hospital staff in their continued battle to guard community health.

These oddly-assorted tools are all in constant use in the hospital's bacteriology laboratory where diseases are diagnosed by tracing them back to the bacteria that caused them. This work and that of the other laboratories is so valuable in the treatment of most diseases that a new laboratory wing for the hospital has been made an integral part of the $2,250,000 expansion program for which a building fund is now being sought.

Bacteriology is a comparatively new science, for it was only about 30 years ago that Pasteur laid its foundation by proving that tiny micro-organisms caused disease. Since this great pioneer work, the specific microbes that caused many hundreds of diseases have been identified.

Today bacteriology is far more than just one of the medical sciences. Bacteria play an important part in some types of chemical and food manufacturing as well as in agriculture, and these types of useful bacteria are being subjected to the same intensive study that has been given to the hostile microbes of disease.

Clinical bacteriologists like those at the Newton-Wellesley Hospital have as their most important job the identification of bacteria in blood or other specimens taken from patients. Even in common illnesses this is an important check on the doctor's diagnosis, and in some diseases like pneumonia it is vital to identify the particular kind of organism involved so that specific treatment can be given.

To the laymen, identifying bacteria is just a matter of squinting at them through the microscope and seeing what they look like. Unfortunately the problem is not as simple as this. There are literally hundreds of thousands of species, all resembling each other rather closely. Indeed there are only four main types of bacteria when grouped by their appearance. These are the spherical type or "cocci," like the pneumonia organisms; the rod-like "bacilli" like the microbes of diphtheria and typhoid fever; the cork-screw-

His resourcefulness in expediting movement of supplies and in developing and installing procedures of supply control and in devising methods of distribution contributed greatly to the over-all success of the Quartermaster Corps in carrying out its supply function. The development of the Quartermaster Supply Control System, the preparation of numerous technical manuals, and the inauguration of standardized accounting procedures are indicative of the initiative and unusual ability of Lt. Col. Silbert.

The Newton Highlands Congregational Church at a special meeting held November 8, voted to extend a call to Rev. Frederic Groetsema, pastor of the First Congregational Church of Sierra Madre, California. Mr. Groetsema has accepted this call and it is expected that he will be present at the annual meeting of the church to be held on January 18.

Mr. Groetsema, 36 years old, was born at Kalamazoo, Michigan, graduated from the local high school in 1927, and received the degree of Bachelor of Arts from Kalamazoo College in 1931.

While at Kansas State College in Manhattan, Kansas, he held a teaching fellowship. As a result of his research in the field of endocrinology he received in 1933 his Master of Science degree. He was elected to associate membership in Sigma Xi and also received the Phi Kappa Phi key (honorary scholarship in science).

Prior to obtaining his Bachelor of Divinity degree from Chicago Theological Seminary in 1935, Mr. Groetsema was in turn student pastor of the Cooper Congregational Church of Kalamazoo, and assistant of the Warren Avenue Congregational Church of Chicago, and assistant pastor (part time) of the Watson Park Congregational Church of Chicago in charge of young people's activities and dramatics. During the summers of 1934 and 1935 he was supply pastor of the Congregational churches in Armour, South Dakota, and Tombstone, Arizona, respectively.

Ordained to the ministry on October 21, 1936, he served eight months as assistant pastor of the Plymouth Congregational Church of Fort Wayne, Indiana. Then followed a pastorate of three and one-half years with the Congregational Church of Delavan, Wisconsin. Since 1940, Mr. Groetsema has been minister at the First Congregational Church of Sierra Madre, California. He has been a member of the board of directors of the Congregational Conference of Southern California and the Southwest and for two years was chairman of the Department of Christian Education and Publicity. He was also a member of the West Coast Seminar on the pastor's class under the Commission on Evangelism of the General Council of Congregational Churches.

Mr. Groetsema is thoroughly familiar with Scout activities as three Boy Scout troops and ten Girl Scout troops met in the Sierra Madre Congregational Church building. His further civic interests embraced the Y.M.C.A., Kiwanis Club, Red Cross, etc. In his work with young people and young married couples, he has had exceptional success.

Mrs. Groetsema, herself the daughter of a Congregational minister now occupying a pastorate in Granby, Connecticut, is a graduate of Beloit College and studied for her master's degree at Chicago Theological Seminary. Her brother-in-law is Dr. David McKelth Jr. of the Asylum Hill Congregational Church of Hartford, Conn.

Courtesy is the "CENTRAL" idea

One by one, wartime travel shortcomings are on the way out. But the men and women of New York Central will never forget the cheerfulness and helpfulness passengers showed in those trying days.

Your courtesy proved catching. Railroaders responded by redoubling their efforts to be personally helpful. From end to end of New York Central, they've formed themselves into Public Relations Groups. And there you'll find executives, engineers, signalmen, mechanics, people from all the 128 railroad crafts... pooling their ideas and experience to find better ways of earning your goodwill.

Nearly 30,000 have already enrolled, and more are joining daily. For they know their friendly helpfulness can mean as much to your travel enjoyment as the modern comfort of today's Great Steel Fleet... or the still greater luxury being built into the Trains of Tomorrow.

"COMPANY MANNERS"

MOST BECOMING thing to wear is a smile. Little words like "Thank you" do a big job. You'll find such ideas from the new employee booklet, "Company Manners," in action everywhere you travel on New York Central.

Politics With Color

(The opinions expressed in this column are the writer's own, and do not necessarily reflect the views or policy of this newspaper.—Editor's Note.)

President Truman and GM

This is unquestionably the time when President Truman wishes from the bottom of his heart that Franklin Delano Roosevelt was still in command. It has now become obvious that this bitter General Motors strike is definitely NOT an ordinary strike but the opening attack on our entire capitalist system. It is a time for cool heads, calm judgment and wise counsel. The repercussions of this strike may reach into the vast majority of American homes. Let us hope and pray that management and labor alike will keep constantly in mind the fact that our returning veterans have been assured that the United States expects to provide 60,000,000 jobs for them. I am wondering what some of these veterans are thinking today as they peruse the news.

Governor Tobin

Our Governor has had a most fortunate break, coming as it did on the heels of the Boston election, which caused a substantial decline in the gubernatorial prestige. This was due to the extremely poor showing of the Governor's favorite candidate, former Fire Commissioner William Arthur Reilly, who finished third in a six-man fight.

Governor Tobin is currently in London, working feverishly to promote the selection of Boston as the headquarters of the U.N.O. We appear to have a very fair chance of walking off with the prize, even though we now hear rumors that all is not well and that there is a movement on foot to locate these headquarters somewhere in Europe. Good-luck to the Governor and his excellent committee of experts. It is obvious to any thinking man or woman that the benefits to Boston and Massachusetts would be incalculable in the event that we win out. Boston, in present form, would take on a new lease on life.

Boys State

My readers may recall that the American Legion worked many, many months in the fall of 1944 and the first six months of 1945 in preparation for the second annual session of Boys State in Amherst, Mass. This is the movement which aims to inculcate in our High School boys the principles of good citizenship by means of a nine-day conference during which town, city and state governments are set up by the boys themselves under the expert guidance of prominent leaders in the political life of our state.

Unfortunately, the 1945 conference could not be held, owing to necessary OPA restrictions, the gas shortage and other factors resulting from the war. We are hopeful that 1946 will tell a different story. The State Department of the American Legion is even now hard at work developing plans for a nine-day meeting next June at Amherst, Mass.

Newton Post No. 48 sponsored six High School boys last June and had made all the necessary business arrangements prior to the time when Boy State had to be called off. Consequently, it will be necessary only to select the boys this coming year and send them on their way. Inasmuch as the writer is once more a member of the state-wide committee in charge of this project, it will be very much appreciated if anybody who is interested in this proposition will write or phone with suggestions or criticisms.

Rep. Spear Makes a Speech

It is always a pleasure to have some other community pay a compliment to one of our leading citizens. Accordingly, I was delighted to have the privilege of covering a meeting of the Brookline League of Women Voters last Monday afternoon at the Hotel Beaconfield. Rep. Margaret Spear of Newton Centre was one of three prominent speakers on legislative subjects. Her topic was Jury Service for Women, a hardy perennial which is discreetly buried by our State Legislature every year, with or without flowers. This year the bill passed the House of Representatives, although it was generally understood that this happened ONLY because it was known in advance that the Senate would surely kill the bill. The Senate did just that, tho' the vote was quite close.

Mrs. Spear, who spoke under the handicap of a severe cold, was in excellent form and showed a keen sense of humor. One tid-bit which I particularly recall, even tho' I made very few notes, was a curious coincidence at the time when a Representative was arguing that women should not be compelled to serve on juries because they would be working in such close proximity to men of all sorts and varieties. The counter-argument was then made by a lady Representative that nobody gets excited about women riding in Pullman cars and traveling at night without an escort. On the following day the newspapers carried a lurid story of the brutal murder of a woman in a Pullman car! That was a bad break for the proponents of women jurors.

What especially interested our columnist was Rep. Spear's statement that she really believed those men who insisted that it was largely a sense of old-fashioned chivalry which prompted them to vote against this bill every year. Other arguments advanced by the men were that there would be some little expense involved in remodeling court-houses under the new system; the fact that many husbands do not want their wives to be away from home and family for prolonged stretches and finally, the

Newton Centre Woman's Club Victory Bazaar

Mrs. James Mitchell is general chairman and Mrs. S. Hardy Mitchell is vice-chairman of a Victory Bazaar to be held at the Newton Centre Woman's Clubhouse on Thursday and Friday, December 6 from 10 to 5, and December 7 from 10 to 4:30 o'clock. Many special features which have contributed to the pleasure and success of past bazaars are being retained and an added attraction this year will be the presence of a group of Boston authors from three to five on Thursday afternoon to autograph their books. Among those present will be Mrs. Y. R. Chao, "How to Cook and Eat in Chinese"; Colonel Walter M. Pratt, "Adventure in Vermont"; Dorothy Pierce Walker, "The Married Doctor"; "Satan Came Also"; and "Dr. Whitney's Secretary"; Nellie E. Fritch, "Triumph Living"; and Helen Clark Fernald, author of many popular novels, among which are "Jonathan's Doorstep", "The Scarlet Fringe", "Smoke Blows West", and "River Empire". Mrs. Francis J. Flagg is chairman of the Literature Committee, and she is assisted by Mesdames Charles N. Arbuckle, Walter M. Stone, W. Irving Carney, Robert F. Cochrane, Paul M. Giddard, Walter Harstone, Everett C. Herick, Melville D. Liming, Kirtley F. Mather, S. Hardy Mitchell, Willis E. Pattison, Grace L. Rogers, Frank Stewart, Daniel R. Weedon, and Everett C. Winslow.

Mrs. Ferdinand J. Blake is in charge of a Snack Bar on Thursday, noon.

In the afternoon Mrs. Royal J. Toebes, Mrs. Ross Trenholm, and Mrs. George Pfannenstiel have arranged to show movies for the children. There will be two shows this year, at 1:15 and 3:00 o'clock.

Mrs. R. Raymond Gorton is hostess at teatime.

The doors will open again Friday morning at 10 o'clock and after selecting gifts for Christmas, the shopper will find a cafeteria lunch arranged for her by Mrs. Robert Cochrane and Mrs. Robert Hayden.

Bridge at two o'clock is under the direction of Mrs. Curtis Mosher who has arranged for both door and table prizes.

A card reader, a graphologist, and a portrait sketcher will be on hand both days. Mrs. F. E. Earle Conn is in charge of this feature.

Parents and children both will be delighted at the magic wrought by Mrs. Harold Jaques assisted by Mrs. Frank J. Linehan, Jr. and Mrs. C. Hassler Capron. Here will appear those longed-for but hard-to-get toys, dolls, games, and even doll carriages and scooters!

Mrs. Henry Ide has a large and active committee so the "Treasure Table" should hold a variety of as interesting and diversified articles as one might find on a trip through grandmother's attic.

Mrs. John F. Capron and Mrs. Alden H. Speare are heading a group of past presidents and their friends who will help solve Christmas shopping problems at their "Gift Shop."

Mrs. Henry D. Cormerais and Mrs. Wallace D. Riddell assisted by Mrs. Arthur Hall and Mrs. Francis R. Sagel have some choice linen handkerchiefs as the feature of their Handkerchief Table.

Not to forget the tiny tot and his slightly older companion at Christmas. Mrs. Charles Naselli will display many handkerchiefs of snugly wool for their majesties, as well as an assortment of other gifts for youngsters.

Practically for the homemaker herself as well as for her Christmas gifts is the rule at the Utility and Apron Table whose Chairman is Mrs. Virgil Casten.

For a copy of some magazine or book which was not seen in the rush of busy times Mrs. Edward Levine invites the shopper to her table.

Just for fun and the thrill of unexpected reward Mrs. William Gersumky and her committee, offer intriguing "Grabs."

A plant or two in the house keeps summertime the winter through. Mrs. Everett C. Winslow offers many choices and also the opportunity to order Christmas wreaths and decorations.

More gift suggestions? Yes, indeed, Mrs. Vaughan Dabney and the Art Committee have a variety to offer.

And now after a day at the Bazaar, of course, one must think of dinner for the family. At the Food Table Mrs. Edward A. Conney and Mrs. Edwin Harris will help supply the answer.

In spite of sugar shortages Mrs. Otis E. Stephenson will be able to offer a variety of home-made candies.

Decorations of Red, White and Blue to carry out the victory motif are in charge of Mrs. Victor H. Vaughan.

The president, Mrs. John W. Gahan, and Mrs. Howard O. Winslow, are serving as committee-at-large. Mrs. Lloyd S. Clark has charge of admissions assisted by Mrs. Edwin Harris.

Weekly Quiz

The answer to last week's quiz is as follows: There are 435 members of the House of Representatives in Washington. There are 242 Democrats, 191 Republicans, one Progressive and one American Laborite.

This week's question follows: Is there any age limit for a candidate for the Presidency? I.e. How young may a man be and still run for President? Is there any constitutional requirement that makes it necessary to have lived in this country for a specified number of a community influence instead of mere educational institutions. He pointed out the need for studying the growth and progress of the schools and for developing them as community centers, for functions in common with child and adult, such as theatrical productions, music, crafts and similar projects, girl and boy scout headquarters, etc. Mr. Harvey also spoke of the need for cooperation among the parent-teachers associations on a city-wide scale, avoiding too much competition between organizations.

Dr. Homer W. Anderson, superintendent of the Newton schools, then gave an outline of the survey which shows as nearly as possible the ultimate school needs for elementary, junior, senior and trade school education in the city of Newton. This survey includes some of the plans made in earlier years by the Newton School Committee in 1937, which were abandoned because of the war and modified some of the earlier plans to bring them in line with the total future school plant needed. It also provides for the continuance of the program of replacing, also three and four-story frame buildings, some of which are camouflaged by an outside brick veneer. Elementary schools coming under this head include the Williams, Clafin, Pierce, Mason, Rice and Bowen for replacement and the Emerson for reconstruction.

All the schools needed at any future time have been tentatively located. If this plan is followed and sites acquired as soon as possible, Newton will have schools well situated with reference to the district each school serves and in complete accord with the future growth of the city. In the ultimate plan, which provides convenient school facilities for every locality in the city, there will be required 24 elementary school buildings in place of the 22 now in use, five junior high schools and two senior high schools, one of which will house the Trade School.

The matter of providing a second high school to alleviate the congestion now felt in the one building is being thoroughly discussed by Dr. Anderson and also by Mrs. B. Alden Thresher, member of the Newton School Committee, and later in an open question period from the floor. Mrs. Thresher pointed out the difficulties which school officials have in making an adjustment when they go from the comparatively small Junior High into the present High School which enrolls from 2500 to 3000 children. Many other advantages of the two-high school plan were pointed out by members of various committees and the gathering seemed to be unanimously in favor of the plans as presented by Dr. Anderson. To provide for this additional high school at greatest saving, it is recommended that the Weeks Junior High School be converted into a senior high school building and replaced by a junior high school building adjoining the Cold Springs Playground. By this method it will be possible to have another senior high school and a junior high school at a more convenient location than at present, at a cost of only $750,000, the estimate by a former School Committee for a new junior high school alone.

It was reported that progress has already been made on the plan for replacing obsolete elementary school buildings, that some of the sites have been acquired and that one architect has been appointed. Future meetings of the Newton Council of Parent Teachers Associations Buildings Committees will continue a study of the schools and how they fit into the community program.

Engagements

Mr. and Mrs. Roger L. Williams of Auburn, Maine, announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Louise to Weston Bradford Haskell, Jr., son of Mr. Weston B. Haskell of West Newton, and the late Pauline Derby Haskell.

Miss Williams is a graduate of Colby Junior College and Connecticut College for Women. Mr. Haskell, recently discharged from the army after serving 25 months in the European theatre, attended Phillips Andover Academy and Harvard College where he is a member of the Hasty Pudding—Institute of 1770 and the Iroquois Club. At present he is a student at the University of Maine and a member of the Beta Theta Pi fraternity.

Mrs. Charles A. Snow of 216 Lowell Avenue, Newtonville, announces the engagement of her daughter, Lt. (j.g.) June Nesbitt, USNR to Donald T. Gibbs, son of Mrs. Russell C. Gibbs of 17 Prospect avenue, Newtonville.

Lt. Nesbitt graduated from Wellesley College in 1943 and in September of the same year enlisted in the WAVES. She is at present stationed in Washington.

Mr. Gibbs graduated in 1941 from Williams College. He has recently been honorably discharged from the Army having served overseas for 3½ years.

The Barretts at Newton High School This Week

The Barretts, written by Mrs. Marjorie Carleton of Newtonville, will be played this week by members of the senior class. In selecting this excellent drama, the pupils and their coach, Miss Helen Sweetney, are bringing to the school and the community a great treat.

There will be two performances. The Friday matinee, November 30, is at 2:15; the Saturday evening performance, December 1, is at 8:15. Mrs. Aronson is playing the difficult role of Elizabeth Barrett. She is ably supported by Clifford Crowther, cast as Edward Moulton Barrett, and Thomas McGraw, who is the Robert Browning of the characters. All the players and the pupils and teachers on supporting committees have worked hard to make this year's senior play one of the best in school history.

and let them know Newton was with them always. A major understanding and an expensive one, it required considerable thought and discussion. Both clubs had a limited membership composed of the city's outstanding business and professional men, and although each club was unanimously for Roy's idea, a hurried counting of noses and pocket-books was in order, so's to determine whether or not they could successfully underwrite What's Cookin's financial responsibilities.

Ben Louis, treasurer of the Newton Savings Bank, and a member of the Kiwanis Club, adept as all bankers in the art of making money toll overtime, put Kiwanis behind What's Cookin' and shortly thereafter, with Rotary, launched the little overseas paper on its maiden voyage.

It was Ben, also, who approached this writer in Newton Corner, one evening, with an invitation to join What's Cookin's editorial staff. The paper, he said, and maybe, seeing as how this department roamed the city in the nighttime, we might write a little concerning Newton's wartime activities in the wee small hours, that you guys and gals would like to read. About that time, too, Roy sat down with us in the all-time Corner cafe, one night, outlining, pretty much as did Ben, the paper's plans and the niche we could occupy.

Shortly thereafter, What's Cookin', with Phil Ahlin, editor of the Graphic at the helm, Bill Sullivan, manager of Hood's plant doing sports and yours truly tugging at the merry-go-round, took off. Members of both the Rotary and Kiwanis Clubs scouted for news and all helped carry the financial load.

Honed It Wouldn't Be Long... In those days, we all prayed that each issue would be the last—that the war would end before press time. The old merry-go-round squealed and groaned at times, especially when the presses started rolling and we'd yet to take this department's pen in hand. If it wasn't for Butch Fredette, a gal who sees all, knows everything and has plenty to say at all times, we'd have missed the brass ring a time or two. Butch with her nimble fingers on the typewriter keys rode side-saddle more than once, so's to keep this carousel on an even keel. It was always a pleasure doing this job, so's to keep the M.G.R. spinning in your direction however and to the hundreds of you swell warriors, male and female who've taken time out to write, the writer wishes to state that we're sincerely grateful and proud to have been associated with you, even in this small way, during your years of sacrifice, achievement and your final victory.

Good bye and good luck to What's Cookin', the Merry-Go-Round and your local correspondent, P. C.

NEW TELEPHONE DIRECTORIES BEING DISTRIBUTED

Approximately 495,000 copies of the 1945-46 issue of the Boston and Vicinity Telephone Directory has been delivered to homes and businesses in the directory area in the period from November 8 to about the first of December. The quantity delivered is about 14,000 more than last year, reflecting both an increase in telephone customers and in the requirement of large users of service.

The area served by the Boston directory includes 45 telephone exchanges in and around Boston. Exclusive of its green cover, the new volume will have 1512 pages, including 825 in the alphabetical directory, 680 in the classified directory and seven devoted to general information. These are 132 more pages than in the gray-covered old directory, whose life of one year comes to an end with delivery of the new one.

The alphabetical listings in the new volume total approximately 336,000, as compared with about 387,000 in the old book.

ROGER LARKIN AWARDED PRIZE FOR POEM

Roger P. Larkin, S-1-c, USNR, has been awarded third prize of a $25 War Bond in the Writer's War Board Navy Show Contest for a poem entitled "Sleep On."

SLEEP ON

Oh, soldier fallen leap in sleep
Forgive us that we cannot understand;
For we have never felt the breath
Of death.
Nor seen the mighty vultures pick
The land,
Nor watched the rivers swollen
Bright with blood
That flowed from mortal wounds.
We could not understand
And so sleep on, you've earned
your rest.

And soldier, may your sleep be
blest;
And you may lose the bitterness
you've known
That came so hard to you so young and gay
Who only knew of happiness and
home.

And may you somehow lose the
painful look
Of hate and calloused thoughts
The war has grown,
And so—sleep on, your sleep is blest.

So sleep, oh, soldier, sleep in peace
And make your bed where flowers bright with light Shall nestle you and give you body rest.

And children's voices, singing clear and bright Shall open up lost kingdoms to your eyes.

WCOP INVADES

WCOP News Director, Ron Cochran and his family are living at 36 Eden avenue, West Newton, taking over that address when WCOP's Chief Engineer, Roland C. Hale, and his family moved to Lexington.

More recently, Carl P. Hayes, treasurer of the Cowles Broadcasting Company, who has moved his home office to the Cowles' Boston outlet, WCOP, has selected Newton for a home for his family, moving into 33 Gay street, Newtonville.

Do You Want To Continue To Receive Home Town News?

The committee has voted to terminate the publication of "What's Cookin' in Newton" with this issue.

This step is taken reluctantly, but because so many of you have been discharged, or are on your way home to become civilians again, it has become practically impossible to keep up with the changes of address, and the discontinuance of mailings.

However, in order that you may keep abreast of the news of your city, the W. C. committee has made arrangements with the Newton Graphic to send that paper to you if you request it, without cost.

It is necessary that you fill out and return the form printed here if you want the Graphic. Postal regulations will not permit us to send it unless such a request is made by each individual who wishes to receive it.

COMPILED AND SPONSORED BY THE NEWTON ROTARY AND KIWANIS CLUBS FOR NEWTON SERVICE MEN AND WOMEN

VOL. II, No. 26.

NEWTON, MASS., U.S.A., NOVEMBER 29, 1945

Issued Twice A Month

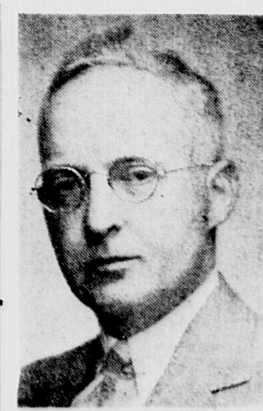

The Termination Of What's Cookin Prompts Us To Present The Following:

ROY S. EDWARDS
Founder of "What's Cookin'"

PAUL M. GODDARD
Mayor of Newton

WARREN W. OLIVER
President of the NEWTON ROTARY CLUB

BENJAMIN F. LOUIS
President of the KIWANIS CLUB OF NEWTON

From our personal experience in World War One, we knew that a man on the Fighting Front could be most lonesome and discouraged if he were not kept informed as to the "going on" in the Home Town. This knowledge prompted us to see to it that our boys of this war were periodically kept in touch with Home Front activities.

The many messages of the appreciation from Newtonians serving in our armed forces in all parts of the world amply justified the efforts put into the creation of "What's Cookin' in Newton" its continuance. The Rotary and Kiwanis Clubs of Newton are to be highly congratulated and commended for this splendid contribution to a most worthwhile cause.

To those in the Service:
Once again I am glad to have the opportunity to send our sincere greetings from City Hall in your own home City of Newton. Your fellow citizens join with me in these greetings and good wishes.

As we celebrate and enjoy the holiday seasons, we are again reminded of the many things for which we can all be thankful, and particularly so this year. We are grateful that the war is over, and for your glorious and self-sacrificing part in it. We are thankful that we have already welcomed many of you home, and that more are coming week by week.

We look forward to the day when you will all be with us again.

No project has produced greater satisfaction to its members than the support by the Rotary Club of Newton to "What's Cookin'." Deep down is the feeling that lonely souls high in the air, below the surface of the ocean, or in battle areas on land and sea, have been cheered and encouraged by news from home.

The Rotary Club rejoices that so many men and women are returning to their peacetime pursuits. We are happy if our contribution has exemplified in any small way, our motto "Service above self."

TO HEAD KIWANIS

At the meeting of the Newton Kiwanis Club, at the YMCA, William H. Sullivan was elected to the presidency of the Club for the next year. Mr. Sullivan will succeed Benjamin F. Louis.

All good things must end! And so the Newton Kiwanis Club somewhat reluctantly sees its co-sponsorship of "What's Cookin' in Newton" end with this final issue of the paper. We hope that we have brought your home-town closer to you through our columns and that you have enjoyed your paper.

God speed you all on your return trip home!

GEN. MACARTHUR'S SECRETARY
Col. H. B. Wheeler of Newton is serving as secretary to Gen. Douglas MacArthur during the absence of Brig. Gen. Bonner F. Fellers, military secretary to Gen. MacArthur, who left last week for a leave in the United States.

shaped "spiral" typified by the syphilis spirochete and the budding branching yeasts and molds. But of the main types there is, as stated, an infinity of species.

Faced with so many similar bacteria, thousands of thousands of which may be found in the air, in water or in the bodies of perfectly healthy people, the bacteriologist cannot trust his eyes alone in identifying a particular species.

Delicate techniques have been developed to differentiate between the various kinds of bacteria that look alike. Some bacteria, for example, cannot grow in air; others must have air for life. Some require special culture mediums for their nourishment. Some microbes are stained by certain dye solutions that have no effect on others.

The first step in identifying a species of bacteria is to get the micro-organisms present in the specimen to grow without adding to the "culture" any of the dozens of bacteria which are present normally in the air. This is where the pressure-cookers or autoclaves and the ovens come in, for every instrument, every piece of laboratory glassware and the mediums (bacteria's food) used in bacteriology must be "cooked" under steam pressure or baked in an oven until it is sterile. Then, with these sterile materials, the specimen can be handled and the bacteria present can be grown uncontaminated by "outside" bacteria.

Most bacteria are grown on a medium that has agar-agar as its basis. This is a gelatinous substance obtained from a form of Pacific seaweed which is mixed with nourishing solutions like beef broth or sugar syrup to form the medium.

A small amount of the specimen which is being cultured is put on or into the medium, which is incubated for a while to give the micro-organisms a chance to grow. Presently visible colonies of the bacteria are formed on the surface of the medium. It is these colonies, each teeming with one particular species of bacteria, which are used to identify the type involved.

Often mice or other laboratory animals must be inoculated with the bacteria to make certain of a diagnosis or to test the power of a serum or antitoxin which is being used to treat a human patient.

The field of bacteriology is constantly expanding, constantly dis-

Advertising By Lawyers

Mr. Arthur W. Blakemore, attorney and legal author, of Park street, Newton, addressed the Bar Association of the Malden and Medford District last week on the subject of Advertising by Lawyers. He recalled a speech by Judge Hammond of the Supreme Court in 1904 that the Bar is the king of professions, and remarked that he seldom heard lawyers praised nowadays but they and the Bench are regularly held up to contempt in comic strips, the radio, and in the press whenever possible.

Mr. Blakemore showed that the public should be taught to consult lawyers freely to avoid trouble. He cited the Stewart case where a manufacturer offered a salesman one-third of the profits in a letter without legal advice and was astonished when the Court found that he owed the salesman $14,000 extra because profits were construed as meaning before salaries. He spoke of the recent case of the wealthy man who died in this County having drawn his own will and cost his widow $100,000 as the will was not properly executed and was therefore void.

He said the Bar is better trained to serve the public today than ever before, that the leading figures today in business and government are more often lawyers than any other class, and that the Bar is entitled to the confidence of the public. The Bar has neglected its own public relations and permitted Banks, real estate men and accountants to take over by shrewd advertising and drummers work which the Bar is better fitted and trained to do. Various Bar Associations are now beginning a campaign of advertising to remedy this condition and let the public know what the Bar is really doing for them.

Newton Merry-Go-Round

By Paul Considine

It sure was a joyous Thanksgiving Day hereabouts, the first peace-time Turkey Day in four long years and everyone, including hundreds of Newton's servicemen and gals, participated in some form of observance of New England's traditional feast day, last week.

A day of real thanksgiving this year, which began solemnly during the morning hours, while mothers and wives tealed with ovens, over-sized turkeys and oodles of assorted fixins'. A day of hard work for the mothers, particularly, this one, however, every moment of it, is filled brimfull of happiness for most of them.

The sight of sons, daughters and husbands across the table, after their years of globe-trotting in the service of Uncle Sam, many of them wearing civilian clothing again, had mistis of happiness almost obscuring the stars in their eyes all day long.

Thanksgiving night the return and furloughed ones caught up with the real brand of U. S. entertainment, as they enjoyed it in the past and as they'll continue to do from now on. The vanguard's home, thousands are arriving here daily from overseas, and we're all happily thanking God with them for His favors and blessings on our Peaceful American Thanksgiving Day.

What Cookin's Adieu... It's difficult to realize that this issue of What's Cookin' in Newton marks the little home town paper's second birthday. Tying years filled with worry, anxiety and sorrow, they've slipped into time, obscured as always, by the present, until the memories of those dark days of '43 seem only as recent yesterdays...

The flower of Newton's youth was marching away to war then equipped with little but their own inherent American courage with which to meet their highly trained and armed foes. The Garden City, as did every village and hamlet in the nation, went to work feverishly, so's to give them everything they needed, and history will record the job turned in by the old men and women, the grandmothers, mothers, wives and sweethearts of this country's fighting men.

Home Town Paper... It was then, too, that Roy Edwards conceived the idea of a hometown newspaper that would be sent free to everyone of Newton's sons and daughters in uniform overseas. A member of the Newton Rotary Club, Roy first put his idea before his own organization, then journeyed to the Kiwanis Club's quarters, arguing that the paper he had in mind would enable the entire city to keep in touch with its warrior sons and daughters, bring them all the news of their city, plus pictures of familiar scenes and faces...

ALDERMEN APPROPRIATE FUNDS FOR NEW POLICE CARS

On the recommendation of Mayor Paul M. Goddard and at the request of Chief Nicholas Veducio, the Board of Aldermen appropriated $6,900 for the purchase of 10 new cars for the Police Department. Seven are to replace the present cruising cars, two others are for the inspectors' department and one for the traffic bureau.

The present cars were purchased in 1942 and each has piled up a mileage of between 100,000 and 150,000, Chief Veducio told the board.

Sports in a Nutshell

By "Bill" Sullivan

Football The college sports picture over the past week-end was more or less on the quiet side as most of the colleges have finished their schedules but the teams that did see action provided plenty of thrills. Here are some of the final scores throughout the country:

Harvard 60, B. U. 0; Yale 20, Princeton 14; Pittsburgh 3, Penn State 0; Columbia 21, Dartmouth 0; Pennsylvania 59, Cornell 6; Colgate 6, Brown 6; Tennessee 14, Kentucky 0; Duke 14, North Carolina 7; Alabama 55, Pensacola Navy 0; Notre Dame 32, Tulane 6; Clemson 21, Georgia Tech 7; Michigan 17, Ohio State 3; Indiana 26, Purdue 0; Northwestern 13, Illinois 17; Wisconsin 26, Minnesota 12; Texas Christian 14, Rice 13; Southern Methodist 34, Baylor 0.

Now for the big news. Holy Cross murdered a courageous B.C. eleven by a 46-0 score and for their excellent season were rewarded with and accepted bid to Orange Bowl. Their opponent has not been selected thus far but it looks as though it is between Georgia and Miami University. Whoever it is, rest assured that Mr. Koslowski and Co. will hold up their end very creditably and no doubt will walk off with the honors.

This is All-America time and your writer would like to pick his mythical team with of course, the reservation that whichever of our choices you don't agree with just insert your own personal candidate and we won't mind a bit. George Poole, Army; Paul Walker, Yale, ends; Dewitt Coulter, Army; Al Nemetz, Army, tackles; Warren Anling, Ohio State; Jim Carrington, Navy, guards; Vaughn Mancha, Alabama, center; Frank Danewicz, Notre Dame, quarterback; Glenn Davis, Army; Stan Koslowski, Holy Cross, halfbacks; Felix Blanchard, Army, fullback. For the "coach of the year" I nominate Hugh Devore of Notre Dame. Hugh did a magnificent job of coaching for his first year in big-time football and now that Frank Leahy is back Devore will have to relinquish the reins but it won't be long before he is signed to a contract with one of the collegiate leaders as he has proven his ability to everyone.

Army and Navy clash this coming Saturday in Philadelphia, with, of course, Army the top-heavy favorite. These traditional rivalries are always tough ones to figure but with Army as it is, one just can't see them getting licked. It's really a shame that every football fan in the country can't see this Army club as it is possibly the greatest collegiate eleven ever assembled with all respect to every great team that has trod up the gridiron. Our Thanksgiving game with Brookline was played here in a downpour of rain with Newton losing 7-0. Brookline made 16 first downs to none for Newton but couldn't cross the goal line once. Grant made only touchdown when he broken clear out to his left and raced for the only touchdown. Grant made another 65-yard run in the final period for what looked like a touchdown but officials called off-side on Brookline. Hal Moffie one of the best blockers in recent years, gave a great exhibition as a mud runner.

Newton had a chance to tie it up in the final quarter as a kick was blocked and recovered by Newton on Brookline 23, here Newton fumbled and lost all chance for the game.

Newton has won 25 games and Brookline 17 with 6 ties. Waltham defeated Newton 13-6. Waltham scored its first touchdown in the second period when with the ball on Newton's 17, Newton's line penalized 15 yards for unnecessary roughness where Zero carried the ball over from the 2-yard line. Waltham scored again in this period when Norm Roy snagged a Newton pass in midfield and Stump on Zero advanced to the Newton three in seven running plays with Creonte scoring. Newton turned on the heat in the final period when they rolled 86 yards only to have Zero intercept a Tinker to Connolly pass on the goal line. Waltham then punted to their own 32. Then Tinker passed to Fitzpatrick for 17 yards and again to Jennings for 17 yards, here Jennings went through to the four, where Esposto took the ball over for a score.

NORTHUMBRIA COUNCIL NOW HAS 1000 CUB SCOUTS

To commemorate this occasion, a special ceremony was held at the First Congregational Church, Newton Centre, November 16, where Richard K. Pratt was presented with a special embroidered Cub Scout neckerchief carrying the inscription "1000th Cub Northumbria Council."

When Cub Scout Richard K. Pratt presented his application to become a Cub Scout, he was, for the first time in the history of Northumbria's Cubbing, the 1000th registered Cub.

In conducting the ceremony, the Council Cubbing chairman, Mr. George M. Shannon, dedicated it to the Cubbers of Northumbria, a tribute to their enthusiasm and efforts that have made it possible for the Cubbing program to grow so rapidly and reach its present height. The Council President, Mr. James C. Walton, spoke of the history of Cubbing in Northumbria and its growth from a small group of Cub Scouts to the present 1000th registered Cub.

Dr. Boynton, sponsor of Pack 1 to become a Cub Scout, and District Commissioner, J. Mason Williams, District Cubbing Chairman, participated in the ceremony, which included a Color Guard made up of Cub Scouts.

A.L. POST 141 ORGANIZED

November 20, the newly organized and chartered American Legion Post Number 141 held their initial meeting at the Bowen School in the heart of Thompsonville. The new Post was named after a former resident of Thompsonville who was killed in action on Iwo Jima. Sergeant George Carson, USMC, the speaker at the meeting was Immediate Past Commander of Newton Post 48, Edward Theriault.

Mr. Theriault outlined the functions of the veterans organization to the new members. He explained that the chief reason for forming the American Legion was to aid the Disabled Veteran and the families of the veterans who did not come back. Commander Theriault then acted as chairman of the meeting as the Post had not as yet elected their first set of officers. George DiMatteo was elected Post Commander, unopposed. Joseph Galvin was chosen by the members for the office of Senior Vice Commander. The position of Junior Vice Commander in charge of entertainment went to John Sostillo. Louis Macalone was elected Chaplain and Louis Foley was elected Historian. The new Post will be installed sometime next month, most likely at the War Memorial Hall at City Hall.

Ed Theriault then informed the officers of their responsibility not

McNeil entered the Army three years ago and served overseas for 13 months. He was attached to a military police unit and saw service in France and Germany. His home is at 7 Orchard street, Newton.

McGrath served at Midway, Guam and other Pacific Islands. He was an outstanding pistol expert before entering the Navy and served as an arms instructor before going overseas.

John J. Regan who was appointed to the reserve force the day before he entered the Army, was appointed a regular patrolman during his absence, has received his discharge and has assumed his duties.

Regan was formerly employed at the Sacred Heart Academy, Centre street, Newton. He served in the Army three years and eight months, and had been overseas three years as a member of the 29th Infantry. He earned four battle stars, the E.T.O. ribbon, the Bronze Arrowhead for the invasion of Normandy and the Purple Heart.

Eliot Men's Club To Present Symphony Concert

On Wednesday evening, December 19, 1945, the Eliot Men's Club is presenting the High Pines Orchestra, Carlos Pinfield conducting, at the Eliot Church Chapel.

The orchestra is composed of fifty musicians, who play for recreation and the love of the music. It was founded by Mr. J. Howard Connelly at Milton, in 1924, and has performed for numerous clubs and schools, including The Milton Club, Women's City Club, Lion's Club, Newton Kiwanis Club, Groton School, and River School.

Mr. Pinfield, a member of the Boston Symphony Orchestra, has been the conductor of the High Pines Orchestra since its founding. He has always preferred to confine the concert performance to locations outside Boston and not attempt to compete with other similar orchestral groups or professional performances in Boston.

The program is, particularly well chosen for the Holiday Season and includes works by Handel, Mozart and Schubert.

The men of Eliot Club believe that this is an undertaking of the highest order and deserves all the support the Community can give to it.

Tickets may be procured at Hubbard's Drug Store, Newton Co-operative Bank, Oak Hill Pharmacy, Garb's Pharmacy, Whatnot Gift Shop, or the Eliot Church Office.

Any license so granted may be suspended or revoked by the chief of police or by the board of aldermen at any time for cause. A suspension or revocation of a license by the chief of police may be set aside by the board of aldermen.

SECTION 8. No person in charge of a taxi shall refuse, unreasonably, to carry a passenger. He shall not smoke cigars, cigarettes or a pipe while transporting passengers.

SECTION 9. No person having charge of a taxi shall take up or carry any passenger after the taxi has been occupied or engaged by a prior passenger against the objection of such prior passenger.

Of eight projects recommended at that time, but two were completed. However, present plans, the result of a recent survey, will allow for a better selection of schools and for possibly one more senior high school that will serve the city's educational needs during the coming years, he added.
